Paris Matin this week, signed Y., which is openly ascribed to M. Hanotaux, and the assertion is not denied.

The great danger in the Balkans was the possibility of a collision between Austria and Russia. That is now over, Emperor Francis Joseph and the Czar have realized the great idea of Catherine I. and Nicholas I.—an understanding between Austria and Russia in the European concert, and does not affect the respective influence of the two countries.

Of course, if there were an alliance of the three Emperors this would mean the end of the Franco-Russian union. But the understanding between the republic and the Muscovite empire is more cordial than ever.

At the instance of Mrs. Hemphock, 343 Jackson-street west, William Hemphock, her son, and George Hemphock, Mountain-avenue, were arrested late last night for being disorderly.

MACLEOD STILL HAS A SHOW IN MEMORY OF COMRADES.

Decoration of the Monument in Queen's Park

BY THE BATOCHÉ VETERANS

Lieut.-Col. Buchan Describes the Fight On That Memorable Sunday.

When the Brave Boys Were Disturbed at Religious Services—Surgeon-General Eyreton Also Speaks—Each Member of the Column Laid a Branch of Flowers at the Foot of the Monument, After Which They All Sang "God Save the Queen."

Nearly a hundred of Canada's sturdy soldiers who, 12 years ago to-day, were fighting for their country at Batoche yesterday paid an affectionate tribute to the memory of their dead comrades by decorating the steps of the monument and, amid perfect order, the Northwest volunteers' monument in the east side of Queen's Park, in front of the Parliament Buildings.

The officers were on the inside of the circle, and Lieut.-Col. Buchan mounted the steps of the monument and, amid perfect order, the Northwest volunteers' monument in the east side of Queen's Park, in front of the Parliament Buildings.
