Special to The Toronto World.
CORNWALL, Ont., July 21.—Yester-trical storm, James Robertson, who

COMPLIMENTED BOYS
ON EXCELLENT SHOWING
Major Weyling Inspected Hundred and Ninth Cadets
Last Night.

The cadets of the 109th Regiment felt that they were amply repaid for a strenuous year of drill when, on their annual inspection at the University of Toronto, they were heartily complimented for their showing by Major Weyling, C. O. & I.

Only 55 of the boys were on parade, the smallness of the number being due to the fact that a large proportion of the corps are at present on leave for the holidays, or assisting farmers and berry growers in the district.
Those present, however, went thru extended order and other drill in excellent style. During the course of his remarks Major Weyling told the cadets that they had made a most creditable showing, and the only improvement he could suggest was that their numbers should be doubled. He hoped that next year the inspection might be held a little earlier and that the corps might have two companies on parade.

Returning to the 109th armories, Major Weyling inspected the books and stores, and took the opportunity of complimenting the corps on the excellence of their system. He also stated that great credit was due to Lieut. W. B. Lavett for instilling such keenness into the cadets.

cerning investments. The advice given the plaintiff was negligently given.

had left court so the matter remains for judgment or argument until Monday.

Special to The Toronto World.

bert Fergus, a grocery traveler for W.

HUNDREDS OF CAPTIVES
CONTINUE TO FOUR IN Canadian in Trenches Describes Arrival of German Prisoners.

LONDON, July 21.—A letter from a Canadian in the front line trenches says, "There are hundreds of prisoners coming thru here every day. They are put into big wire enclosures until they can take them back. I saw about three hundred officers and men yesterday and the sight reminded me of a big stockyard with the officers in one corral and men in the other. They wandered aimlessly about the enclosure just as I have seen cattle doing at home. Our doctors were dressing the wounds of the prisoners who had been hit. There is one young officer who at a distance is the very image of "Little Willie" for sure. They get will look after."

SHOOTING WAS ACCIDENT
MAN ALLOWED FREEDOM
George Wimbush at St. Catharines Was Under Arrest for Three Weeks.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., July 21.— George Wimbush, who has been under arrest since the shooting of Mrs. W.
Holden and her son three weeks ago, was today freed by Magistrate Campbell, evidence showing that the shooting was accidental.

Wimbush, who was in front of his own house, had loaded the gun to protect himself and housekeeper against the husband of the latter, who had just returned to the city and threatened to kill both. Wimbush claimed that he had shot the gun accidentally, and the evidence of those who witnessed the shooting did not upset the claim but tended to confirm it.

MAGIC IN A NAME

Names there are which will recall to your mind achievements that stand out in their own class.

Turner means to you all that is rich and wonderful in the world of color.
Chippendale means all that is charming in the furniture-craft. Pheidias all that is great in sculpture. And Gourlay—Gourlay will bring to you mind the magic of rich inspiring music.
Magic you'll find in the artistic symmetry of its design.

And more than magic you will discover in the enduring perfection of its tone.

BERLIN AWAITS REPLY FROM HON. MR. CASGRAIN

In the Meantime, Anti-Name Changers Promise to Make Things Interesting.

BERLIN, Ont., July 21.—The whole matter of changing the corporate name of Berlin to Kitchener rests with Postmaster-General Casgrain. The Ontario cabinet will wait until next Tuesday for the minister to make a decision on the technicality whether the Province of Ontario may have a postoffice named Kitchener as well as the Province of British Columbia.

In the meantime the anti-name changers are leaving no stone unturned to prepare for the next municipal election, and are figuring to elect a new council who are sure, will return the whole question to the electors, and it is confidently expected that again Berlin will be selected.

City Clerk Millar, who has communicated with the postmaster-general, expects a reply by an early mail.
The "anti" promise to make the same changes on Saturday which will create a sensation.
