MERCIER MAKES STRONG PROTEST

Deportation of Belgians to Germany Denounced in Firm Language.

TREATED LIKE SLAVES

Thousands Carried Off to Work Under Tyrants in Germany.

London, Nov. 13.—Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, has issued a protest to the civilized world against the deportation of Belgians to Germany for forced labor. The protest is dated Nov. 7 and is signed by Cardinal Mercier.

Among the principal passages contained in Cardinal Mercier's protest are the following which "The Echo" will publish tomorrow, according to a Reuter despatch from Amsterdam:

"The military authorities are daily deporting thousands of inoffensive citizens in order to set them to forced labor.

Carried Off Like Slaves.

"As early as Oct. 12, we sent a protest to the governor-general, a copy of which was also sent to the representatives in Brussels of the Holy See, Spain, the United States and the Netherlands. The governor-general, in reply, refused to take any steps.

"At that time the authorities only threatened unemployed men; today all able bodied men are carried off, penned up in trucks and deported to unknown destinations like slave gangs.

"The enemy proceeds by regions. Vague reports have reached us that arrests have been made successively at Tournai, Ghent and Alost, but we are unaware of the circumstances.

Systematic Round-Up.

"Between Oct. 24 and the beginning of November, the enemy operated in the regions of Mons, Quievrain, St. Ghislain and Jemappes, from 100 to 1500 being rounded up daily. Tomorrow and the following day he intends to fall on the Nivelles Arrondissement. A poster orders all males to present themselves at Nivelles on Nov. 8, provided with identification and registration cards. They are permitted to bring only a small handbag, clothing, food, and a few necessities. Schoolmasters are exempt. Burgomasters are held responsible for the execution of the order. There is an interval of 24 hours between the posting of the order and deportation.

Deceases Fave Way.

"Under the pretext of the necessity to carry out public works on Belgian soil, the occupying power has tried to obtain from the communes lists of unemployed workmen, the majority of the communes proudly refused to give. Three decrees of the governor-general paved the way for the blow which was struck today. The first issued Aug. 15, 1915, ordered forced labor for the unemployed under pain of imprisonment and a fine, but it stated that it was only a question of work in Belgium. The second, issued May 2, gives the German authorities the right to provide work for the unemployed, any unauthorized person giving work being liable to three years imprisonment and a fine of 20,000 marks. The third decree, issued May 13, authorized the governors and military commanders to issue orders for the unemployed to be forcibly taken to places for work.

"It was already a matter of forced labor in Belgium, but in Germany for the Germans' benefit."

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

MANTELL RETURNS TO THE ALEXANDRA

Gives Splendid Portrayal of Shylock in "Merchant of Venice."

MARGARET ANGLIN IN FLAWLESS PLAY

Scores Big Hit in "Caroline" at Grand.

COMPANY CAPABLE
Well Supported by Genevieve Hamper, Who Scores as Portia.

Toronto has always been a great lover of the Bard of Avon, and in presenting Robert B. Mantell in Shakespearean repertory, the Alexandra Theatre is catering to the popular taste of the city.

Mr. Mantell brings with him a strong company, including Miss Genevieve Hamper, Miss Eleanor Brent, Fritz Lieber and John Alexander. Last night's performance of "A Merchant of Venice" showed the company to be one of the best balanced that have been seen in Shakespearean repertory on the Toronto stage in some time. The critical audience that attended the first performance was won by the strong virile interpretation given by Mr. Mantell and his associates. He adheres to the manuscript as closely as possible, and follows the interpretation of the recognized authorities.

While not at his best in the role of Shylock, Mr. Mantell gave a skillful portrayal of the usurer with all his humanity crushed in his desire for revenge on the man who spurned and despised him. Mantell cleverly brought out the touch of tenderness in the usurer. In the court room scene his play was powerful, but not over-drawn.

Miss Genevieve Hamper made a most unusual and splendid Portia. She was really a beautiful and charming actress, and she made the necessary personality to make the role her own. From the beginning she held the audience and as the play progressed, the appreciation deepened. She ran the gamut of the emotions with wonderful facility and restraint. Of the remainder of the cast, Edward French, with a husband tucked safely away in India, is marvellously sympathetic and affectionate, but not clever, and she comforts him with a play which is cleverly filled by Beatrice Warren.

Reverend Cunningham is a young lover who is hapless, and is exceedingly anxious to marry Caroline until the opportunity offers. Robert Oldham is similarly affected, but feels bound to propose to Caroline after his ten years' attention. The play narrates these proposals, rejections, reconsiderations, the devices of Maude to bring the lovers together, their reluctance to accept the advice of the doctor, and the dilemma from which the doctor escaped. This must not be spoiled by being told, but is one of the ingenious scenes which can be readily forgotten, and was presented with consummate art and skill.

There is no moral nor anything else in the piece but sheer amusement, and it serves its purpose in this respect. Miss Anglin has the heartiest reception and repeated curtain calls. The setting of the piece and the costumes are of the most admirable. Miss Edney is a thoroughly excellent actress, and her production as a whole is as nearly flawless as a play can be.

TALENTED GIRLS FROM SUNNY ITALY AT SHEA'S
Present Feature Offering in All-Round Excellent Bill.

Carmela and Rosa Penzillo, two talented Italian girls, present the feature offering in an excellent all-round bill at Shea's this week. These sisters of excellent range and beautiful quality. They submit a program attractive and varied, and charm the audience with personalities quite out of the ordinary.

Harmony held the boards with the appearance of the American Comedy Four, an organization of harmless entertainers, who for the most part are amusing and mirth-provoking antics could not be surpassed.

Isabella D'Armand and Bobby O'Neil were favorites in a pleasing melange of songs, chatter and eccentric dancing. The Demi Tasse by Addison Burkhardt, "The Moonlight Age," is a whimsical comedy introducing the capricious daughter of a giddy mamma. Louis Barnes entertains with a host of brand-new stories and jokes fun at the prohibition victim. Wallace Bradley and Gracie Ardine in a smart, snappy, clinging and dancing surprise open the bill, while Daisy and Fred Rials in an aerial novelty complete a good program.

TWO JAPANESE STARS PLEASE REGENT PATRONS
"The Soul of Kura San" Features Program for Forepart of Week.

Sessue Hayakawa, the foremost Japanese actor in motion pictures, and Tsuru Aoki, the charming little Japanese actress, star in an intensely interesting drama, "The Soul of Kura San," produced by the Lanark Company, which features the program for the forepart of this week at the Regent Theatre.

This story, which includes the tragic self-imposed death of Kura San, the role of which is taken by Miss Aoki, is based in the Orient, and however moves the principal characters to New York, where the disappointed lover succeeds his uncle as a wealthy art broker. The play is a masterpiece of the drama, and is a thrilling climax. In addition to this play, the Gaumont Graflex, organ recital and vocal solo are rendered as features.
