

INSURANCE DOCTORS DISLIKE ADIPOSITY

Wider Waist, Shorter Life,
Says Dr. H. B. Anderson
at Institute.

Get your life insured before you commence to increase your waist line and lessen your life line.

The above is valuable advice to those persons who are prone to fatness, if the statement made last night by Dr. H. B. Anderson, L. R. C. P. (London), M. R. C. S. (London) and medical referee of the Imperial Life Assurance of Canada, is carefully considered. Dr. Anderson last night delivered an interesting lecture at the monthly dinner of the Insurance Institute of Canada at the board of trade rooms, Royal Bank building, taking as his subject "Blood Pressure." Dr. Anderson declared it was a medical fact that as a man increased his waist line he lessened his life line. A fat man possessed comparatively a small heart to supply a big body. Such cases, he said, did not represent good insurance risks. After describing the circulatory system and the functions it performed on its journey round the body Dr. Anderson said that from the time blood left the heart only one minute elapsed for it to do the round tour. The heart, according to the doctor, possessed a wonderful reserve of power—and in a healthy subject could perform seven times the amount of work it was called on to do. The daily work the heart did was enormous and in 24 hours it generated sufficient power to lift a four-pound weight from the bottom of the deepest mine to the top of the highest mountain, or the same amount of power could lift a man from the street and place him on the top of the highest building in New York. If the daily heart power was multiplied by 365 a big force would be created and would beat any machine yet invented by man.

Blood Pressure

Coming to the question of blood pressure, Dr. Anderson said that before the discovery of instruments for testing blood pressures doctors tested by pulse pressure, and if they found a high pressure pulse they knew it meant disease of some kind. An Englishman named Holmes, in the 18th century introduced a tube into a horse and by the length to which the blood rose in the tube, the pressure was estimated. As years advanced instruments for use on human beings were invented and were in extensive use today. Blood pressure varies with age, said the doctor, and as age increases five points must be added for every 10 years from 15 upwards. Low blood pressure, he declared, was less serious than high pressure, but most insurance companies would take risks with a pressure 12 to 15 points above the standard figure. Low blood pressure was always serious in disease, especially in pneumonia. Dr. Anderson issued a warning against the too frequent taking of blood pressure tests as if it was overdone it worried and frightened nervous persons, who in many cases thought it was a more serious matter than did the doctor. In conclusion Dr. Anderson said that insurance doctors when they found a case of high blood pressure usually postponed the risk for some time for the purpose of seeing if the pressure remained at a standard or if it denoted kidney or other diseases.

H. W. Crossin was in the chair and some 150 members were present to enjoy the address.

Old Dutch Cleanser

—Is great for cleaning plaster or painted wooden floors, oil-cloth or linoleum. It is more economical
than anything else
and does better work.
Use Old Dutch for cleaning everything throughout the house.

HATS OF INTEREST

BY LILLIAN M. SCOTT.

VERY lovely is the blouse of ivory point d'esprit net, and no less flattering to its wearer is the hat of natter blue, with crown of straw.

One of the most interesting hats worn at a recent wedding was a large black hat decorated with delicate antique rose-colored plumes. Another was of vivid yellow.

As yet, hats for early spring wear show no startling change. There is the small fabric turban over which is sometimes draped veil of embroidered net. Tricorne in every conceivable shape is already being worn. Close-fitting hats a veil is very often worn as a matter of fact.

For formal occasions there is the broad-brimmed hat of pineapple straw, faced with fallie and trimmed with flowers or fruit.

THE COMPLEAT ANGLESS

A Guide to Matrimony—In One Lesson.

BY HELEN ROWLAND.

(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

GREET him with that "Oh, aren't you wonderful!" smile. Say nothing—until he has run out of platitudes.

Then ask him if he plays golf. Gradually lead him to tell you all about "that wonderful shot" he made, four years ago. (You won't understand it—but you will look amazed.)

Let him FINISH!

Ask him if he is as strong as he looks! Admire his shoulders.

Let him tell you all about his ailments and "how he suffers."

Ask him how the war has affected his business.

Let him tell you all about his troubles at the office and how unreasonable the boss is, and what a lot of "dubs" the rest of the office force are.

Ask him to let you see his photograph. Call him "Poor boy."

Ask him who REALLY wrote "The Young Visitors"; what he thinks of Sir Oliver Lodge; what he thinks of the administration; what he thinks of feminism.

AGREE with him—ab-so-lute-ly!

Let him tell you "all he knows about women." Encourage him to "confide" in you. (You know where these platonic heart-to-heart talks lead.) Inspire him to confess his "sentimental affairs."

Ask him to let you see his palm. Tell him what a wonderfully keen reasoning faculty he possesses; what marvelous judgment!

Tell him he should have been a lawyer. Tell him he ought to write a book about his life!

Tell him he is too kind-hearted for his own good. Get out the chafing dish and FEED him!

During the process try to look cute and awfully domestic.

Tell him that "Mother" is teaching you how to cook; that you are "dreadfully old-fashioned," you guess; that you make all your own clothes.

And that you never, NEVER intend to marry! (This is the real mustard-kiss!)

After while, suggest that the lights hurt your eyes—and let him turn up at the rose-colored lamp beside the piano.

Play something soft and low—and sad.

Or, better still, put a Mischka Elman record on the phonograph. Call him "Sigh—a little."

Get up at the piano. Tell him he must run along. You didn't DREAM it was late.

Insist on holding his overcoat for him. Ask him why he didn't wear a muffler. Pat his shoulders and that motherly, impersonal, "you-poor-destitute-boy!" air.

This doesn't bring something definite, within a week—

Try another man!

He is immune!

ALLIANCE DEMANDS UTMOST MEASURE

(Continued From Page 1.)

be supplied with the conclusions we arrive at upon mature consideration of the legal opinions given us on these questions.

Domestic Alliance Demands.

The demands of the Dominion Alliance in substance are as follows:

1. Immediate and annual provincial registration and taxation of all liquor of a prescribed quantity now in the custody of any person in a private house or elsewhere.

2. To prevent the people of Ontario obtaining liquor otherwise than from the license commissioners' stores. The O.T.A. be amended to provide regulation and delivery of liquor in the province and the keeping of it.

3. That the serving of liquor at banquets, dinners, etc., be regulated. This would apply to private houses and is meant to limit the number of guests to whom liquor may be served.

4. Further limitation of the quantity of liquor that may be prescribed by doctors or kept in doctors' possession. Only non-potable liquor to be prescribed or supplied for external use. Prescriptions to be upon set forms, except in cases of emergency. Limiting the quantity of liquor one person may obtain by prescription within a set period of time. Repeal of the O.T.A. provisions for sale of native wine in private possession or other. Illegality of using liquor as beverage when obtained for any other purpose. Extending the power of magistrates to imprison and fine for first offence. More drastic law against liquor advertising. Compulsory duty of police to prosecute for secondary offences.

The preamble of the foregoing recommends the most drastic experiments of certain states across the border with regard to sacramental wine.

Utmost Measures.

After careful consideration of the matters contained herein and conference with representatives of various temperance and other sympathetic organizations we come to you on behalf of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance, as we have come to every government of the province of Ontario for many years, and respectfully request that you do at the forthcoming session of the legislature introduce a bill embodying the utmost measure of prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes that the province has power to enact.

We believe that only such legislation will meet the needs of the situation and give effect to the expressed will of the people in the recent referendum. And we further submit that the referendum results warrant this.

Public opinion will support the government and give effect to the granting of this request. While the Ontario temperance act is a splendid measure and one which has been met with approval, we believe that it can be materially strengthened and improved and declare our earnest willingness to give every possible aid to the government in realizing the more persons in adequate legislation. We ask that the following principles govern the framing of amendments to the law:

1. That the government, through the board of license commissioners, shall absolutely control all sales and distribution of liquor in the province of Ontario.

2. That the board shall provide adequate facilities of a sufficient supply of all liquor needed for sacramental, medicinal and industrial purposes.

MARCH IN ALGONQUIN PARK

The bracing atmosphere, the attractive winter sports, the novelty of fishing through the ice, the indoor pleasures enjoyed at the "Highland Inn" by a game of bridge or just lounging before the open fireplace, wipe the cobwebs from the tired brain and give rest and recuperation to those who need them. March is a good month and early application for rooms should be made as accommodation is limited. Ask any Grand Trunk agent for descriptive booklet or write N. T. Clarke, Highland Inn, Algonquin Park Station, Ont.

FLYING AS A PASTIME.

Wealthy men in Japan have turned to airplane as a sport. Many of those who made fortunes during the war in manufacturing munitions and building ships are neglecting their motor cars to devote time to skimming thru the air. The Japanese government is encouraging the innovation in every way, for it is realized that the more persons indulge in the pastime the greater will be the prospects of progress in aviation.

In the island Kingdom, Japan, the young and old indulging in the sport. Large kite-flying tournaments which the fliers compete in take place in the held and are awarded by judges by a point system which is hard for an Occidental to understand.

In aviation meet of the machines used have few foreign make, but it is expected that the home production will equal soon both the government demand and that for recreational purposes.

SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips.

General Sir Henry Pellatt is making a wonderful recovery from his recent attack of pneumonia, when he had three nurses and two doctors with him for several days; Lady Pellatt is also progressing favorably from her recent illness.

Sir Percy Lake and Lady Lake are in Ottawa from Regina, to spend a few days before leaving for St. John N.B. en route to England. Sir Percy will go to Geneva, Switzerland, for the international conference of the Red Cross.

Miss Mary Logie gave a luncheon at the end of the week, when twenty-five girls were the guests. Luncheon was served at small tables decorated with daffodils and freesias.

The Rev. the Dean of Ontario, gave a dinner on Monday evening at Queen's University, Kingston, for the canvassers of the Forward Movement.

The mayor of Halifax, Nova Scotia and Mrs. Parker, who have been in Toronto and other places in Canada, and the United States for some weeks, have returned to Nova Scotia.

Miss Grace Evans is visiting Miss Alice King in Kingston.

General and Mrs. Mitchell have bought Mr. and Mrs. Eden Smith's house in Wyndwood Park and are moving in at once.

Miss Troop, Halifax, N.S. is visiting her sister Mrs. R. C. Brown, Clarendon avenue.

Mrs. Arthur Miles, who returned from New York the end of the week, gave a dinner-party luncheon at her house in Wilketts Street yesterday.

The table decoration was of pink anemones and freesias and there were twenty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allison, Rushmore road, gave a small dinner on Wednesday night in honor of Mrs. John Tenney, who left for Picton yesterday, en route to her home in New York.

Mrs. C. C. Parker is at the Queen's, Halifax, N.S.

Mrs. Herbert H. Wood, who has been visiting her mother, John Fairlie in Kingston, returned home on Saturday, leaving one of her young sons with her grandmother for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCurdy, Russell Hill road, gave a dinner dance last night.

The table decoration was of pink anemones and freesias and there were twenty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allison, Rushmore road, gave a small dinner on Wednesday night in honor of Mrs. John Tenney, who left for Picton yesterday, en route to her home in New York.

Mrs. C. C. Parker is at the Queen's, Halifax, N.S.

Mrs. Herbert H. Wood, who has been visiting her mother, John Fairlie in Kingston, returned home on Saturday, leaving one of her young sons with her grandmother for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCurdy, Russell Hill road, gave a dinner dance last night.

The table decoration was of pink anemones and freesias and there were twenty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allison, Rushmore road, gave a small dinner on Wednesday night in honor of Mrs. John Tenney, who left for Picton yesterday, en route to her home in New York.

Mrs. C. C. Parker is at the Queen's, Halifax, N.S.

Mrs. Herbert H. Wood, who has been visiting her mother, John Fairlie in Kingston, returned home on Saturday, leaving one of her young sons with her grandmother for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCurdy, Russell Hill road, gave a dinner dance last night.

The table decoration was of pink anemones and freesias and there were twenty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allison, Rushmore road, gave a small dinner on Wednesday night in honor of Mrs. John Tenney, who left for Picton yesterday, en route to her home in New York.

Mrs. C. C. Parker is at the Queen's, Halifax, N.S.

Mrs. Herbert H. Wood, who has been visiting her mother, John Fairlie in Kingston, returned home on Saturday, leaving one of her young sons with her grandmother for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCurdy, Russell Hill road, gave a dinner dance last night.

The table decoration was of pink anemones and freesias and there were twenty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allison, Rushmore road, gave a small dinner on Wednesday night in honor of Mrs. John Tenney, who left for Picton yesterday, en route to her home in New York.

Mrs. C. C. Parker is at the Queen's, Halifax, N.S.

Mrs. Herbert H. Wood, who has been visiting her mother, John Fairlie in Kingston, returned home on Saturday, leaving one of her young sons with her grandmother for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCurdy, Russell Hill road, gave a dinner dance last night.

The table decoration was of pink anemones and freesias and there were twenty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allison, Rushmore road, gave a small dinner on Wednesday night in honor of Mrs. John Tenney, who left for Picton yesterday, en route to her home in New York.

Mrs. C. C. Parker is at the Queen's, Halifax, N.S.

Mrs. Herbert H. Wood, who has been visiting her mother, John Fairlie in Kingston, returned home on Saturday, leaving one of her young sons with her grandmother for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCurdy, Russell Hill road, gave a dinner dance last night.

The table decoration was of pink anemones and freesias and there were twenty guests.

HIGH PARK MASONS UNVEIL MEMORIAL

Bronze Tablet Holds Ninety-
Two Names of Heroic Dead.

High Park Masonic Lodge held a reception to their returned soldier members, and unveiled a large bronze tablet bearing the names of the ninety-two members who served in the war, two of whom made the supreme sacrifice, at their lodge-rooms in the Pedlar building, College street, last night. The reception to the visitors and returned men, and the unveiling was held in private, admittance being given only to members and visiting Masons. Most Worshipful Brother Hon. W. D. McPherson, K.C., presided over the ceremonies, and delivered an address appropriate to the occasion. The unveiling was done in two parts. When the first flag was lowered, the heading, "In Loving Commemoration of the Services Rendered to Humanity by our Brothers in the Great War," and the boxed sub-heading, "Paid the Supreme Sacrifice," with the names of H. C. Chedsey and W. Werley, the two members who died in service, enclosed, were exposed, and the Last Post was sounded, after which the members sang the hymn, "Gazing on the Bar." Following Mr. McPherson's address, the honor roll on the tablet was unveiled.

Banquet Held.

Later a banquet was held and entertainment provided by talented members and the High Park Orchestra and High Park Glee Club, both composed of members of the lodge. Between the toasts which were offered, the Glee Club and orchestra gave a series of high class offerings, which were received with great applause.

The Grand Master and the Grand Lodge of Canada, were offered by Worshipful Brother T. S. Young. Hon. Mr. McPherson paid tribute to the returned soldier members for their valor overseas, when he offered "The Honor Roll," which was responded to by Bro. Col. W. H. Price, M.L.A. Among those present were Hon. R. H. Grant, M.L.A., Hon. F. C. Higgins and Hon. H. C. Nixon, who spoke in response to the toast, "Our Visitors," given by V.W. Bro. A. Macomb.

CENTRAL RATEPAYERS CONSIDER HOUSING

At a well attended meeting of the executive of the Central Ratepayers' Association, held at the city hall last night, with Vice-President Mullens in the chair, a committee was, after a good deal of discussion on the city housing question, named, to go thoroughly into the matter and report at an early meeting of the association.

The general opinion of the executive was that some more comprehensive plan for relieving the situation so far as the city is concerned would have to be undertaken before the matter would be right itself. The tremendous increase in the price of all building material, especially hardware and lumber, will, it is thought, act as a deterrent to building on a large scale during the coming season, and many of those who, it is said, earlier in the season intended building will instead take their tools and go out and work wherever available.

A few of those present were: Honorary President J. M. Skelton, Mrs. McIver, George Shields and J. Laxton.

COUNTY ORANGE LODGE ENTERTAINS PATIENTS

County Orange Lodge rejoiced the hearts of St. Andrew's Hospital patients with a smoking concert last night. The program was arranged by A. A. Gray, deputy grand master, assisted by W. H. Elliott, worshipful county master; S. M. Carle, county treasurer; Wm. Harrigan, Wm. Peterson and Wm. Powell.

The following artists kindly assisted in making the evening an enjoyable one: Pat Morrison, elocutionist; Norman Johnson, fancy dancer; Master Bert Powell, Scotch dancer; Bill Ayres and Stearns, comedians. The 40th Highlanders' pipe band gave many selections.

Further features were a wrestling bout between Jack Harris and Kid Bevan and a four round boxing bout between Frank Ward and Kid Cooke. Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Harrigan dispensed comforts to the bed patients who could not attend the festivities.

Forbes Robertson says Hamlet was not a coward. "I wonder what he thinks of some of the actors who have felt a call to play Hamlet."

DOG'S LIFE.

Rivers had some home, and was stung by over things in the dark hallway. "What are you growling about, dear?" called Mrs. Rivers from the floor above. "I am growling," he answered in his deepest bass voice, "to drown the barking of my shins."

RISE OUT OF HIM.

A farmer and an Irishman were at work in a field when an airplane passed over their heads. "What's he up to in that thing," said the farmer.

"Faith, I'd hate to be up there and not in it!" retorted the Irishman.

A DOG'S LIFE.

Rivers had some home, and was stung by over things in the dark hallway. "What are you growling about, dear?" called Mrs. Rivers from the floor above. "I am growling," he answered in his deepest bass voice, "to drown the barking of my shins."

DOG'S LIFE.

Rivers had some home, and was stung by over things in the dark hallway. "What are you growling about, dear?" called Mrs. Rivers from the floor above. "I am growling," he answered in his deepest bass voice, "to drown the barking of my shins."

DOG'S LIFE.

Rivers had some home, and was stung by over things in the dark hallway. "What are you growling about, dear?" called Mrs. Rivers from the floor above. "I am growling," he answered in his deepest bass voice, "to drown the barking of my shins."

DOG'S LIFE.

Rivers had some home, and was stung by over things in the dark hallway. "What are you growling about, dear?" called Mrs. Rivers from the floor above. "I am growling," he answered in his deepest bass voice, "to drown the barking of my shins."

DOG'S LIFE.

Rivers had some home, and was stung by over things in the dark hallway. "What are you growling about, dear?" called Mrs. Rivers from the floor above. "I am growling," he answered in his deepest bass voice, "to drown the barking of my shins."

DOG'S LIFE.

Rivers had some home, and was stung by over things in the dark hallway. "What are you growling about, dear?" called Mrs. Rivers from the floor above. "I am growling," he answered in his deepest bass voice, "to drown the barking of my shins."

DOG'S LIFE.

Rivers had some home, and was stung by over things in the dark hallway. "What are you growling about, dear?" called Mrs. Rivers from the floor above. "I am growling," he answered in his deepest bass voice, "to drown the barking of my shins."

DOG'S LIFE.

Rivers had some home, and was stung by over things in the dark hallway. "What are you growling about, dear?" called Mrs. Rivers from the floor above. "I am growling," he answered in his deepest bass voice, "to drown the barking of my shins."

DOG'S LIFE.

Rivers had some home, and was stung by over things in the dark hallway. "What are you growling about, dear?" called Mrs. Rivers from the floor above. "I am growling," he answered in his deepest bass voice, "to drown the barking of my shins."

DOG'S LIFE.

Rivers had some home, and was stung by over things in the dark hallway. "What are you growling about, dear?" called Mrs. Rivers from the floor above. "I am growling," he answered in his deepest bass voice, "to drown the barking of my shins."

DOG'S LIFE.

Nujol

For Constipation

A New Method of treating an Old Complaint

Why Pay Foreign Exchange

When Buying Your Week-End Reading?

THE Toronto Sunday World, Canada's best and brightest week-end newspaper, contains matter of literary merit and pictorial excellence the equal of any foreign publication, and with the advantage of it being edited from a Canadian viewpoint.

Remember, The Sunday World is the only Canadian newspaper that prints its own four-color comic section—replete with clean humor—it is welcomed into the most critical home circles. The Sunday World contains a weekly review of the world events of the preceding week—short stories by the foremost writers and entertaining articles of local interest by versatile Canadian writers.

The Sunday World is not a profiteer. It is sold for 5 cents the copy everywhere.

To insure against disappointment, have your newsdealer or newsboy reserve your copy every week.

VETERANS

Items of Interest to Returned Soldiers Will Be Printed in This Column if Phoned or Sent in.

GIVE SOLDIERS MORE TIME TO ASK LOANS

Ottawa, Feb. 19.—(By Canadian Press).—The time has been extended in which eligible disabled ex-service men may apply for loans in order to purchase tools and equipment, or to resume interrupted training and educational courses.

Men now on the strength of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment and who are eligible for such assistance, have until April 30 next in which to make application.

Men now on the strength of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment for training or treatment, and who may be eligible for loans, have a period of two months after completion of their courses or discharge from treatment in which to apply.

Loans up to $500, without interest, are available.

DOGS AND BLIND MEN.

"A dog never becomes really attached to a blind man." That was the really astounding statement a dog expert made the other day. Asked how he could prove that to be true, and, if so, why was it true, he asserted that a dog loves and understands more than anything else the eye of his master. And he said, quite truly, that the dog, worshipping his master, always look up into his face. The expert agreed that it was quite possible that a dog should, when he had gone blind, still show affection, but that it was impossible for a dog, who had never seen the eye of his owner, to become really attached to him. He would be a faithful, willing slave, but there would not be the real deep affection.

BIRDS OF THE SEASON: Identified by Thompson has kindly consented to address the opening meeting of the Bird Society tomorrow (Saturday), at 3 p.m., in the Central Y.M.C.A., on the above subject. It will be a rare opportunity for beginners to acquaint themselves with our winter birds and their notes.

OPEN FORUM—Foresters' Hall, 224 Colborne street, Sunday, Feb. 22, 1920, 3 p.m. Address by Mr. C. B. Sisson, on "The State and Housing." With special reference to the Toronto situation. Discussion.

astounding statement a dog expert made the other day. Asked how he could prove that to be true, and, if so, why was it true, he asserted that a dog loves and understands more than anything else the eye of his master. And he said, quite truly, that the dog, worshipping his master, always look up into his face. The expert agreed that it was quite possible that a dog should, when he had gone blind, still show affection, but that it was impossible for a dog, who had never seen the eye of his owner, to become really attached to him. He would be a faithful, willing slave, but there would not be the real deep affection.

astounding statement a dog expert made the other day. Asked how he could prove that to be true, and, if so, why was it true, he asserted that a dog loves and understands more than anything else the eye of his master. And he said, quite truly, that the dog, worshipping his master, always look up into his face. The expert agreed that it was quite possible that a dog should, when he had gone blind, still show affection, but that it was impossible for a dog, who had never seen the eye of his owner, to become really attached to him. He would be a faithful, willing slave, but there would not be the real deep affection.

astounding statement a dog expert made the other day. Asked how he could prove that to be true, and, if so, why was it true, he asserted that a dog loves and understands more than anything else the eye of his master. And he said, quite truly, that the dog, worshipping his master, always look up into his face. The expert agreed that it was quite possible that a dog should, when he had gone blind, still show affection, but that it was impossible for a dog, who had never seen the eye of his owner, to become really attached to him. He would be a faithful, willing slave, but there would not be the real deep affection.

astounding statement a dog expert made the other day. Asked how he could prove that to be true, and, if so, why was it true, he asserted that a dog loves and understands more than anything else the eye of his master. And he said, quite truly, that the dog, worshipping his master, always look up into his face. The expert agreed that it was quite possible that a dog should, when he had gone blind, still show affection, but that it was impossible for a dog, who had never seen the eye of his owner, to become really attached to him. He would be a faithful, willing slave, but there would not be the real deep affection.

astounding statement a dog expert made the other day. Asked how he could prove that to be true, and, if so, why was it true, he asserted that a dog loves and understands more than anything else the eye of his master. And he said, quite truly, that the dog, worshipping his master, always look up into his face. The expert agreed that it was quite possible that a dog should, when he had gone blind, still show affection, but that it was impossible for a dog, who had never seen the eye of his owner, to become really attached to him. He would be a faithful, willing slave, but there would not be the real deep affection.

astounding statement a dog expert made the other day. Asked how he could prove that to be true, and, if so