

THE EVENING TIMES, ST. JOHN, N. B. MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1968

RACE DOWN RIVER TO SAVE BOY'S
LIFE

Chas. Wallace of Brown's Flats Rushed to the City in the Tug Flushing—He Had Appendicitis.

With all speed possible, the tug Flushing made her quickest trip down river from Brown's Flats on Sunday, leaving Chas. Wallace, the young son of George Wallace, to the city for an operation in the General Public Hospital.

The boy had been taken seriously ill and Dr. Gilchrist, who was called to attend him, seeing that he had a violent attack of appendicitis, recommended that he be taken quickly to the hospital. The tug Flushing was secured and the boy was brought to the city with speed, accompanied by his mother and Dr. Gilchrist. In the hospital last night an operation was performed and it was reported that it was not too soon as it was a case of perforating appendicitis.

Another case of the same kind was brought to the hospital last night. The patient was Edith Corbin, of 692 Main street. The urgency in this case also called for an operation. Simple operations in the hospital are not frequent but in these cases both were necessary to save life. Both patients were reported to have come through as well as could be hoped for.

PROVINCIAL NEWS

Nova Scotia

Harry Bamford, formerly clerk for two years at the Victoria Hotel, has succeeded William Sandwell as clerk at the Sydney Hotel—Sydney Record.

Rev. Dr. Dix, of Knox College, Toronto, will receive a call from St. James' church of Dartmouth.

The case of the King against Fred Lind, from whom a quantity of liquor was seized on Monday last, came up for trial Friday before the stipendiary at St. John's. S. Owing to the absence of the defendant's counsel, Mr. Tobin, the court granted an adjournment of the case. The case arose as the result of the seizure of a large quantity of liquor on election day, which it is supposed was to have been used for election purposes by friends of the Conservative candidate, when it was seized by one of the clerks of the court, who learned of its presence and the purpose to which it was to be put.

Sandy Fraser, a miner, was killed on the Thorsburn railway near New Glasgow on Thursday night. He is supposed to have been walking along the track with his head down when he was struck by a special train returning from the MacDonald reception in New Glasgow.

The S.S. Mystic sailed for Boston from Boston the Mystic will sail for London, where she will undergo extensive repairs.

The schooner Marcellus, of Pictou, which went ashore on Friday at Cow Bay, N. S., may be saved. The cargo of salt fish and codfish is being removed. The vessel was built in 1901 in Cape Breton.

Miss Ethel McQueeney and Elwood L. Briggs of Halifax were in St. John's on Oct. 24. Miss Briggs is in St. John's on Oct. 24.

The capacity of the steel works at Trenton is between four and five thousand tons weekly of the more highly finished products of steel, and since last February the works have been run to their capacity.

S.S. Cabot sailed from Louisbourg on Friday with a cargo of coal bound for Miramichi via St. John's.

A motor boat loaded with coal at Rockport, Mass., on Thursday last, which is supposed to have been manned by Capt. Charles H. Johnson and Henry J. Leo of Beaumont. It was identified by four men who inspected it. No trace of the men has been found and they undoubtedly perished. A suit case has been picked up containing a suit of clothes and carried addressed to Henry Johnson, especially his sister and the other by his aunt. Leo was at one time a member of the crew that won the international trophy at Nova Scotia in 1907—Yarmouth Telegram.

BEWARE OF THE
BACKACHE NOW

Gives Home Prescription to Prevent Serious Kidney Disease, and Tells How to Prepare the Remedy at Nominal Cost.

More people succumb each year to some form of kidney trouble than any other disease. The slightest form of kidney derangement often develops into Bright's kidney disease, diabetes or dropsy. When either of these diseases are suspected the sufferer should at once seek the best medical attention possible. Consult only a good, first-class physician.

There are many of the lesser symptoms of kidney trouble which can be treated at home as stated by a well-known authority. For some of these, such as backache, pain in the region of the kidneys, weak bladder, frequency, (especially at night) painful urination and other urinary troubles, try the following simple home remedy: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce Compound Kargon, one-half ounce Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple ingredients are harmless and can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and anyone can mix them by shaking well in a bottle. The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

There is no more effective remedy known to relieve all forms of rheumatism because it acts directly upon the kidneys and blood. It cleans the clogged up pores in the kidneys so they can filter and strain from the blood the poisonous uric acid and waste matter which if not eliminated remain in the blood, decompose and settle about the joints and muscular tissues causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

Backache is the signal notifying the sufferer that the kidneys are not acting properly. "Take care of your kidneys," is now the physician's advice to his patients.

On Saturday, by order of the court, Dr. E. Berryman attended to injuries received by James Scott, who fell in the country market on Friday and struck his face against the asphalt pavement. He is an elderly man and belongs to river. He had been drinking a little and after his mishap Policeman Lucas took him to central station.

WIDEN DIED OF GRIEF AT A FUNERAL SERVICE

Mrs. William Gillis of Loggieville Stricken Suddenly on Saturday—Death of Milton Mowatt in British Columbia.

Chatham, N. B., Nov. 1.—Just as she was entering the house of death to attend the funeral of her young friend, Mrs. William Gillis, of Loggieville, was stricken suddenly on Saturday evening and died a few minutes later.

The sudden death of the two young women under such circumstances has cast a gloom over Loggieville and messages of sympathy are being poured in from the bereaved husband.

Less than a year ago, Dr. J. B. McKenzie brought his bride home to Loggieville. She was the daughter of 1916 Head, Restigouche County. On Thursday she gave birth to a child which died the same day. Mrs. McKenzie sank gravely and passed away at 2 o'clock on Saturday morning.

The sad news spread rapidly and expressions of sympathy were heard on all sides. One of those most affected was Mrs. Gillis, who lives next door to the McKenzies and she took the loss of her young friend very much to heart. The neighbors gathered at an evening service at the late bride's home prior to the body being taken to Restigouche for burial.

About 7:45 o'clock Mrs. Gillis entered the house and before she got through the hall into the room where the body lay, she fell dying. Never in robust health the fearful strain and burden of grief so weighed her down that she could not have been very sudden.

She leaves her husband and two small children. With the sense of sorrow deepened the sad service and the funeral of Mrs. Gillis was held on Monday last.

A telegram to Mrs. Margaret Mowatt, of the west end conveyed the sad intelligence of the death of her only brother, Milton Mowatt, in British Columbia. No particulars have been received but Miss Mowatt received a letter from her brother less than a week ago. His death must have been very sudden.

Miss Mowatt telegraphed to have the body sent home for burial and it is expected in a day or two. Within a short time Miss Mowatt's second brother and mother have died and it remains to her to perform the sad task of burying the surviving member of her family. Last spring her brother, Milton, came on from the west with the body of his mother, and then his last visit here.

Rain, snow and extreme cold have succeeded the exceptionally fine weather prevalent here for some months.

ST. GEORGE LIBERALS
CELEBRATE TODD'S
VICTORY

Enthusiastic Reception and Banquet on Saturday Attended by Over 300 Guests.

St. George, N.B., Oct. 31.—The Liberals of St. George celebrated a reception to Wm. T. Todd, M.P., and Mrs. Todd on Monday night. Mr. Todd and Mrs. Todd arrived from St. Stephen on the afternoon train. At eight o'clock a committee headed by E. A. Greenan, president of the St. George Liberal Club, James O'Brien, ex-M.P., Lewis Connors of Connors Bros., Blackie Harbor, and others escorted the party to the home of the Senator and Mrs. Gilmour, from the Senator's home to Count's hall, where nearly 300 stalwart Liberals, their wives and daughters awaited them.

The arrival of the leaders of Liberalism in this county was the signal for an outburst of enthusiasm that well testified to the feelings of those present in having with them an M.P. and a senator of their own.

The ladies had decorated the hall. A large picture of the great Liberal chief, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, hung in the center of the stage, and bunting in graceful folds were draped around, and tables groaning with good things, tastefully adorned with flowers, filled the main floor. The banquet that followed reflected great credit on the ladies—it was a Liberal banquet, everything good and plenty.

"The member-elect from Charlottetown," gave a speech abounding with facts, pleasing to the hosts of Liberalism. He was modest in his victory, unlike his opponent in the late contest, he said he did not "own Charlottetown," but that Charlottetown owned him. He said that his interests were his, that his efforts would ever be for her advancement. His speech stamped him an orator of no mean ability, and it is believed Mr. Pugsley will be very much strengthened in the house by the presence of William F. Todd, Senator Gilmour, and those efforts.

Dr. C. C. Alexander presided, and the evening was a happy vein. He expressed his feelings at having the county in line in this victory, and predicted a long era of continued prosperity to Canada and Charlottetown.

Samuel Craig, of Back Bay, raised the enthusiasm of those present to the highest pitch by a vivid portrayal of good things Liberal.

Lewis Connors made a telling speech, full of practical points and sound argument.

R. T. Wetmore spoke briefly. Dr. C. C. Alexander presided, gracefully and carried the programme through to the entire satisfaction of all present.

Musical by Miss Jessie O'Brien, Miss Marsh, Messrs. Wetmore and O'Neill added much to the enjoyment of the evening.

It was long past midnight when the gathering dispersed, and everyone went home happy and with a feeling that the choice of a representative at Ottawa was a wise one.

ARSON CHARGED
AGAINST WOMAN

Oldtown, Me., Nov. 1.—Mrs. Bina Tourtellotte, aged 50 years, who came here some eight years ago to work in the woolen mills, was arrested tonight on the charge of arson, the warrant alleging the woman set fire to the summer cottage of Chas. H. Day of this place, at Northport Camp ground last Thursday, causing the destruction of five buildings and a loss of $15,000.

Mrs. Tourtellotte occupied apartments in this city in a block owned by Mr. Day and spent last summer at Northport Camp ground.

Next Thursday being November 5, (Guy Fawkes' Day), the Orangemen of this city will celebrate the event by holding a musical and literary entertainment in the Orange Hall, German street.

TAFT AND BRYAN ARE BOTH
CERTAIN THEY WILL WIN

Republicans and Democrats Both Expect Victory in Tomorrow's Election—An All Day Republican Parade in New York.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 1.—At both Republican and Democratic headquarters in this city today it was announced that in the campaign of 1908 was at an end.

At Republican headquarters in the Metropolitan tower today, it was asserted that Mr. Bryan had been expected in view of the same claims made earlier in the campaign.

Mr. Mack declared today that "the only thing that can defeat Mr. Bryan is the corrupt use of money." He said he had sent his last instructions to state chairmen to get out their vote early and to see that it was fairly counted.

Mr. Hitchcock announced that there had been a tie in the vote between the two parties. He said that the Republican party was augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration.

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

New York, Oct. 31.—Darkness had fallen tonight ere the tail-end of the giant Republican parade, which began at 10 o'clock this morning, filed by the reviewing stand up town, and disbanded, passing into history as one of the greatest political parties ever held in this city. Beginning as a daylight demonstration in honor of Taft and Sherman, the parade came to a close as a torchlight procession with thousands of twinkling lights dancing above the heads of the marching men. It took seven hours and fifteen minutes for the vast army to pass in review before the grand stand, and it is variously estimated that there were from 50,000 to 60,000 men in line, the number probably being nearer the latter figure.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 1.—With the assertion that the vote for the Prohibition party next Tuesday will be twice as large as the largest ever before cast for the party, Chairman Charles R. Jones announced today that the prohibition national committee has been assured an income of $25,000 a year for the next four years with which to carry on its work. Mr. Jones said that the financial backing for the party has been pledged by 1,000 prominent citizens.

"With the widespread interest shown in the work of suppressing the liquor traffic and the votes taken from the old parties by our presidential nominee, Eugene W. Chaffin, we will force the prohibition issue as the dominant question in national politics," said Mr. Jones. "Every prospect is for a wide desertion from the Republican and the Democratic to the prohibition ranks."

Mr. Bryan himself has gained wonderful personal strength in the last few years in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack said today that his claim that Bryan and Kern will receive 333 votes in the electoral college is based on reports received from state chairmen and from private sources. State Chairman Connors has predicted that Bryan will receive more than 40,000 plurality in the state and that Mr. Chanler will get more than 100,000.

The Democratic national committee bases its belief that Mr. Bryan will be elected on the following four reasons, which have been incorporated into a statement by National Committeeman Joseph Daniels, chairman of the literary bureau:—

"Bryan will be elected because the Democracy today presents a united front. Furthermore, the Democratic party will be augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration."

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack declared today that "the only thing that can defeat Mr. Bryan is the corrupt use of money." He said he had sent his last instructions to state chairmen to get out their vote early and to see that it was fairly counted.

Mr. Hitchcock announced that there had been a tie in the vote between the two parties. He said that the Republican party was augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration.

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack said today that his claim that Bryan and Kern will receive 333 votes in the electoral college is based on reports received from state chairmen and from private sources. State Chairman Connors has predicted that Bryan will receive more than 40,000 plurality in the state and that Mr. Chanler will get more than 100,000.

The Democratic national committee bases its belief that Mr. Bryan will be elected on the following four reasons, which have been incorporated into a statement by National Committeeman Joseph Daniels, chairman of the literary bureau:—

"Bryan will be elected because the Democracy today presents a united front. Furthermore, the Democratic party will be augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration."

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack declared today that "the only thing that can defeat Mr. Bryan is the corrupt use of money." He said he had sent his last instructions to state chairmen to get out their vote early and to see that it was fairly counted.

Mr. Hitchcock announced that there had been a tie in the vote between the two parties. He said that the Republican party was augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration.

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack said today that his claim that Bryan and Kern will receive 333 votes in the electoral college is based on reports received from state chairmen and from private sources. State Chairman Connors has predicted that Bryan will receive more than 40,000 plurality in the state and that Mr. Chanler will get more than 100,000.

The Democratic national committee bases its belief that Mr. Bryan will be elected on the following four reasons, which have been incorporated into a statement by National Committeeman Joseph Daniels, chairman of the literary bureau:—

"Bryan will be elected because the Democracy today presents a united front. Furthermore, the Democratic party will be augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration."

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack declared today that "the only thing that can defeat Mr. Bryan is the corrupt use of money." He said he had sent his last instructions to state chairmen to get out their vote early and to see that it was fairly counted.

Mr. Hitchcock announced that there had been a tie in the vote between the two parties. He said that the Republican party was augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration.

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack said today that his claim that Bryan and Kern will receive 333 votes in the electoral college is based on reports received from state chairmen and from private sources. State Chairman Connors has predicted that Bryan will receive more than 40,000 plurality in the state and that Mr. Chanler will get more than 100,000.

The Democratic national committee bases its belief that Mr. Bryan will be elected on the following four reasons, which have been incorporated into a statement by National Committeeman Joseph Daniels, chairman of the literary bureau:—

"Bryan will be elected because the Democracy today presents a united front. Furthermore, the Democratic party will be augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration."

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

TAFT AND BRYAN ARE BOTH
CERTAIN THEY WILL WIN

Republicans and Democrats Both Expect Victory in Tomorrow's Election—An All Day Republican Parade in New York.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 1.—At both Republican and Democratic headquarters in this city today it was announced that in the campaign of 1908 was at an end.

At Republican headquarters in the Metropolitan tower today, it was asserted that Mr. Bryan had been expected in view of the same claims made earlier in the campaign.

Mr. Mack declared today that "the only thing that can defeat Mr. Bryan is the corrupt use of money." He said he had sent his last instructions to state chairmen to get out their vote early and to see that it was fairly counted.

Mr. Hitchcock announced that there had been a tie in the vote between the two parties. He said that the Republican party was augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration.

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack said today that his claim that Bryan and Kern will receive 333 votes in the electoral college is based on reports received from state chairmen and from private sources. State Chairman Connors has predicted that Bryan will receive more than 40,000 plurality in the state and that Mr. Chanler will get more than 100,000.

The Democratic national committee bases its belief that Mr. Bryan will be elected on the following four reasons, which have been incorporated into a statement by National Committeeman Joseph Daniels, chairman of the literary bureau:—

"Bryan will be elected because the Democracy today presents a united front. Furthermore, the Democratic party will be augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration."

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack declared today that "the only thing that can defeat Mr. Bryan is the corrupt use of money." He said he had sent his last instructions to state chairmen to get out their vote early and to see that it was fairly counted.

Mr. Hitchcock announced that there had been a tie in the vote between the two parties. He said that the Republican party was augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration.

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack said today that his claim that Bryan and Kern will receive 333 votes in the electoral college is based on reports received from state chairmen and from private sources. State Chairman Connors has predicted that Bryan will receive more than 40,000 plurality in the state and that Mr. Chanler will get more than 100,000.

The Democratic national committee bases its belief that Mr. Bryan will be elected on the following four reasons, which have been incorporated into a statement by National Committeeman Joseph Daniels, chairman of the literary bureau:—

"Bryan will be elected because the Democracy today presents a united front. Furthermore, the Democratic party will be augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration."

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack declared today that "the only thing that can defeat Mr. Bryan is the corrupt use of money." He said he had sent his last instructions to state chairmen to get out their vote early and to see that it was fairly counted.

Mr. Hitchcock announced that there had been a tie in the vote between the two parties. He said that the Republican party was augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration.

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack said today that his claim that Bryan and Kern will receive 333 votes in the electoral college is based on reports received from state chairmen and from private sources. State Chairman Connors has predicted that Bryan will receive more than 40,000 plurality in the state and that Mr. Chanler will get more than 100,000.

The Democratic national committee bases its belief that Mr. Bryan will be elected on the following four reasons, which have been incorporated into a statement by National Committeeman Joseph Daniels, chairman of the literary bureau:—

"Bryan will be elected because the Democracy today presents a united front. Furthermore, the Democratic party will be augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration."

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack declared today that "the only thing that can defeat Mr. Bryan is the corrupt use of money." He said he had sent his last instructions to state chairmen to get out their vote early and to see that it was fairly counted.

Mr. Hitchcock announced that there had been a tie in the vote between the two parties. He said that the Republican party was augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration.

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack said today that his claim that Bryan and Kern will receive 333 votes in the electoral college is based on reports received from state chairmen and from private sources. State Chairman Connors has predicted that Bryan will receive more than 40,000 plurality in the state and that Mr. Chanler will get more than 100,000.

The Democratic national committee bases its belief that Mr. Bryan will be elected on the following four reasons, which have been incorporated into a statement by National Committeeman Joseph Daniels, chairman of the literary bureau:—

"Bryan will be elected because the Democracy today presents a united front. Furthermore, the Democratic party will be augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration."

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack declared today that "the only thing that can defeat Mr. Bryan is the corrupt use of money." He said he had sent his last instructions to state chairmen to get out their vote early and to see that it was fairly counted.

Mr. Hitchcock announced that there had been a tie in the vote between the two parties. He said that the Republican party was augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration.

This army of voters will be further strengthened by a new force in the American politics—the labor vote. Assuming there will be a strict party line-up in all parts of the country and thousands of voters who neither understood him nor his aims, now place their absolute trust in him and in his policies.

"The Democratic national committee has brought all the elements of the party together; it has the labor vote and its remarkable accession of strength from the Republican ranks—together with Mr. Bryan's strength with the masses are the reasons why this country will turn to Democracy."

Mr. Mack said today that his claim that Bryan and Kern will receive 333 votes in the electoral college is based on reports received from state chairmen and from private sources. State Chairman Connors has predicted that Bryan will receive more than 40,000 plurality in the state and that Mr. Chanler will get more than 100,000.

The Democratic national committee bases its belief that Mr. Bryan will be elected on the following four reasons, which have been incorporated into a statement by National Committeeman Joseph Daniels, chairman of the literary bureau:—

"Bryan will be elected because the Democracy today presents a united front. Furthermore, the Democratic party will be augmented by thousands of Republicans disaffected with the mistakes of twelve years of Republican administration."

THE NOBLE WORK OF LORD'S DAY
ALLIANCE

Rev. W. G. Hanna Tells How the Alliance Has Won Day of Rest for 80,000 Canadian Workmen.

Rev. W. G. Hanna, general secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance for Eastern Canada, was in the city yesterday and preached in Main street Baptist church in the morning and Centenary church in the evening. At both services he delivered eloquent sermons setting forth the work of the Lord's Day Alliance.

He said that the aim of the alliance was mainly to secure a day of rest for every person in Canada. To effect that aim the law was secured and through the operation of that law in six of the nine provinces of the dominion the following results had been secured through the work of the alliance.

First—Of the 150,000 seven-day-in-the-week workers, who had no rest when the law went into force, 80,000 had been set free. There still remained 70,000 for whose emancipation the alliance was working and striving.

Secondly—When the law went into force, about 150,000 American workmen were sold in Canada on the Lord's Day. This had been reduced by about 130,000 and the 20,000 remaining were distributed in provinces where the law was not in effect.

Thirdly—A very large number of cases of violations of the law were made to case through the action of the Lord's Day Alliance.

Rev. Mr. Hanna showed the method by which this change had been brought about. When a complaint was made to the office, correspondence with the violator of the law was entered into by the secretary in Toronto. Through this correspondence, 94 per cent. of the violators had been brought to cease in the provinces where the law was in force.

In the case of those who had not yielded the matter was laid before the attorney-general of the province and through correspondence from his office 4 per cent. more were stopped, making 98 per cent. in all.

It was a matter for gratification, said Mr. Hanna, that the attorney-general of Nova Scotia had undertaken to investigate a number of cases and it was hoped that in the future there would be public enforcement of the law in that province, an object that has been earnestly sought by those who have been seeking for liberty for the toilers.

Only about 2 per cent. of all the cases complained of had been brought to court. The Alliance did not prosecute. This was the function of the officers of the crown. It was important to remember, said Mr. Hanna, that none had been prosecuted since the law was in force.

The Alliance sought to secure that the people shall be prosecuted, but that the violations should cease. Its method was to secure this by remonstrance and persuasion if at all possible. It believed the law should be used, not as a club to compel allegiance, but as an instrument to educate the public so that they would understand its equitable character and beneficial effects.

In this way, unnecessary alarm lest the law should be enforced too drastically had been allayed and the confidence of the law officers in the methods of the Alliance had been secured. This is a very important consideration.

The Alliance desired to have the co-operation and support of all the people in Canada who believed that every person has the right to a day of rest. It believed that this dominion should have liberty to rest on the rest day. It did not conflict in any way with the sphere of worship, which is a sacred thing to civil rights and left the matter of religious observance with the churches.

Rev. Mr. Hanna left this morning for Summerside, where he will address a meeting this evening and tomorrow evening will attend the meeting of the P. L. L. Day Alliance, returning to St. John on Wednesday to address the alliance in this city.

Simon Jones who came out from England a few days ago, has been spending the week in Montreal. He will probably visit St. John before his return. He intends to make his headquarters in England.

Dr. W. Warwick, of St. John, N. B., was in Montreal on Friday.

Dr. W. Warwick, of St. John, N. B., was in Montreal on Friday.

Dr. W. Warwick, of St. John, N. B., was in Montreal on Friday.

Dr. W. Warwick, of St. John, N. B., was in Montreal on Friday.

Dr. W. Warwick, of St. John, N. B., was in Montreal on Friday.

Dr. W. Warwick, of St. John, N. B., was in Montreal on Friday.