

double the number of boys sent by them to the Institution and thus save them from crime, as well as the city and country from so much criminal annoyance and expense, the Board need only say that the accommodation in the present building is quite sufficient to admit that number, while they take this opportunity of expressing their willingness, with the continued, and, as this case will require, the increasing generosity of the benevolent public, to do all in their power to meet the demand as well as to fulfil the new obligations which may thus be laid upon them.

THANKS.

In conclusion, our thanks are again most cordially accorded to Dr. Slayter and Mr. Puttner, for their gratuitous and valuable services; to Charles Street (Methodist) and Chalmers' (Presbyterian) churches for church accommodation; to the Hon. S. D. Archibald for his annual donation of ten chaldrons of coal; to H. A. Taylor, Esq., druggist, for his services, as well as to the press of the city for their hearty notices of our affairs as occasion required.
