THE OAR

BELOANS' WIN NOT POPULAR.

LONDON, July 6.—The capture of the Grand Challenge Cup by the Belgians, representing the Club Nautique, provokes much newspaper comment and searchings of heart on the debatable question of British and foreign styles of rowing. The majority of rowing men appear to still pin their faith to the Eton swing, as against the Belgian short stroke, and are inclined to think that had the Leander crew, able to put in a representative crew to defend the cup, the Belgians would have been defeated. The Daily Graphic thinks the incident is likely to accentuate the anti-foreign agitation, and express the hope that if any change is made, it will be in the direction of providing and endorsing an extra national race at Henley and not for the exclusion of foreigners, adding that in any case if the proposal of Mr. Fletcher, the Oxford coach, that no further entries for the Henley regatta for any American rowing club be accepted should be adopted, it would be almost a national calamity.

The Times expresses the hope that the stewards will discover a less drastic way out of the difficulty than Coach Fletcher's harsh and invidious proposal to exclude Americans.
