ENGAGEMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Allison Armstrong have announced the engagement of their daughter, Edna, to Percy, Oakey, the wedding will take place on June 27.

HOLIDAYS JUNE 30

It was announced at the Board of School Trustees' office this morning that the public schools will be closed for the summer vacation on June 30. It is not as yet definitely known what date they will reopen.

THE CENSUS

Census enumerators are continuing to make good progress according to reports received by W. S. Clawson, census commissioner for St. John and County and Albert County. Some of the men report that they are being confused with men who were getting information for the city directory and say they have a hard time convincing some people that they have not already given the necessary data.

DIED IN BOSTON

In Boston today, Laura, widow of W. Beecher Fairweather, and daughter of the late Albert and Helen McCleery of Grey's Mills, Kings County, N. B., passed away. She is survived by one son, Albert; and by five brothers—Watson and Gordon in Boston, Oakey and Herbert of St. John, and Ivory on the homestead at Grey's Mills. Her husband was a native of Springfield, Kings County. She had lived in Boston for about ten years. Old friends will hear of her death with sincere regret. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon from the residence of her son, Watson, 276 Lexington Avenue, Boston.

NOVELTY SHOWERS.

A number of friends of Miss Kathryn Cusack gathered at her home in Waterloo street last evening and tendered her a novelty shower. The guests were joyfully entertained with music and the party broke up about midnight.

Many friends gathered at the home of Mrs. John Koller, 3 David's street, last evening and tendered to her daughter, Miss Pearl Miller, a novelty shower.
The gifts were numerous and handsome.
The evening was spent in a pleasant with music and games, and at midnight refreshments were served by Mrs. Koller and Mrs. C. Holt. The shower was in honor of Miss Miller's marriage, which is to be in the near future.

ST. JOHN MAN
IN HORRORS OF
PUEBLO FLOOD

"I sold a house the day before the flood to Jackson, a huge negro. The house drifted away while his wife and he watched it from a tree, and when it was gone, a heavy woman, became exhausted with cold and beating rain, dropped off the tree he saw her no more. I heard a tale of belief in God that amazed me, especially what he claimed was the direct result of prayer. A poor woman (white) gave birth to a child at 5 p. m.
Thursday, June 2, at 7 p. m. came a raining from the shrieking of the siren of the awful flood. He stood until the last one of his neighbors, and he went to higher ground, telling them that his wife could not be moved. Then came the fierce rush of waters and he had the bed taken into the attic of the house which was only one-story in height. The water rose to the bed, his wife calmly said: 'If it is the will of God, we shall live. He grasped a bed and beat a hole through the roof. The Methodist minister, who knew their awful plight, arrived at the same moment and he pulled his wife, his seven hour old babe, his eight year old boy and the nurse through a very small opening in the roof. The boat landed them all safely on higher ground and mother and child are doing well at the hospital. The man, Harrison, told me this with his own mouth, and further stated that he had just been able to get into his own house and recover $50 in cash and a gold watch. The house was tilted at such an angle wondered how he got in and looking at the roof wondered still more how they escaped through that roof. The location was about 515 W. V. st., just one block north of my two houses.

"As I write, the river is racing again through the town and it may reach my office yet; so far from the river, I curb. The loss will run into many millions of dollars. The lightning is flashing and the deluge is on. May need Noble Ark to get out of this. Enough for now.

"The third day—Am in bad shape with rheumatism in my back, right hand and legs. It was one of our black nights about twenty-four hours long, with rain descending in torrents; for some unknown reason the third flood last night did not come up quite so high and there were no fires. From a slip of paper gotten out on a hand press, we learn that two trains which turned over before getting out of the city when the flood overtook them did not have all their passengers drowned, as first reported.
Four babies were born in the court house last night, all boys who should practise law when they grow to manhood.
Trenches have been dug not alone for burying the dead animals. Modern sanitation is a failure just for the time being.

"The Denver people spread the report that we had 2,000 drowned; I guess the number at maybe 200 to 300. The governor proclaimed martial law and sent two Denver troops on army trucks; also other troops overland, there being no chance of railroad transportation. It took the Denver boys twenty-four hours to get here and they built four pontoon bridges in the last twenty miles. We are glad to see them. They brought some drinking water, which of course goes to the hospital.

"Across the way is a two story brick second story and adobe first floor dwelling of nine rooms. No one ever dreamed that the flood would ever touch it, but it did and now the adobe has fallen out of the kitchen and soon the building will collapse.
"It will take 1,000 men ninety days to clean away the debris and shovel mud; no one can do anything until the rain quits and the levees are repaired and built higher. The Mississippi has nothing on the Arkansas, even at its widest and moreover terrible destruction was caused by the Fountain Creek at the other side of the city, which washed away three of the city's principal bridges and did its part toward rendering more than 1,000 families homeless. I must not write more. Will help with my aid

UNION CASE IN
THE COURT TODAY

Longshoremen's President
Concludes Evidence—Gro- cers Testify About Joseph Elliott and Checks.

The case of C. G. Langbier, charged with embezzlement from the International Longshoremen's Union, was continued this morning in the police court.
J. J. Donovan, president of the union, continued his evidence. Having completed the survey of the minute books and financial statements, he said that previous to May 1, the salary of the secretary-treasurer was $40 a week. On the evening of May 10, he said that while working at the sugar refinery wharf, Langbier was down to see him. "Jerry, I'm in wrong," Langbier had said to him and then announced that Mr.
Recker told the witness that he had found the accused was short in his accounts to the amount of between $700 and $800. The witness said that he returned to the union and met the accused about 11:30 that night when the latter gave him the keys to the office and safe and asked him not to do anything in the matter until the following Monday.
The case was again postponed until 12 o'clock on Thursday and the magistrate suggested that in view of the financial statements and the manner in which the books were kept, both sides should get together in the meantime and endeavor to get the case fixed up as speedily as possible as from the evidence given to date, it looked as if the accused had not defaulted through any criminal intent.

A case against Joseph Elliott, charged with passing bogus checks, was taken up. F. S. Purdy, grocer, said that the defendant was in his store on the evening of May 21, and presented a check signed Mr. Smith of the Smith Brokerage Co., asking the witness to cash it.
The check was for $22 and the witness cashed it. He deposited the check in the bank. He identified the check produced in court as that which the defendant had cashed in his store.

Irving D. Appleby, grocer, said the accused had cashed a check at his store on the evening of either May 28 or 29, for the sum of $12. The check had the name of Malcolm MacKay and the accused produced a letter of recommendation from Commissioner Thornton. The following morning he received a telephone message from the accused asking him not to present the check for payment as Mr. MacKay was transferring his account to another bank. The witness said this aroused his suspicions and he communicated with Commissioner Thornton and the police. He identified the check in court. Cross-examined by Colonel E. C. Weyman, who appeared for the defence, the witness said that Elliott told him if the check was not good he would be responsible.

H. R. Coleman told of the defendant being at his store and cashing there a check early in May. A few days later, he said, the defendant telephoned him and asked him not to cash the check, and he went in and fixed it up. The defendant did not do so, and so he reported the matter to the police.

D. Masdovechlo testified that the defendant had asked him to cash a check for $170 and upon his being unable to do so, got $15 from him, allowing witness to hold check as security. Upon enquiry at the bank, he said he found there were no funds to meet the check and defendant rang him by telephone and asked him to hold the check for a few days. The case was postponed.

A charge was brought by the S. P. C. against Edward Dumphrey, driver for C. H. Peters, for overloading his horse.
Police Constable Howard made the report and the accused said he had been ordered to take the load by his boss, Mr. O'Brien.
Mr. O'Brien was summoned to court and which he did not consider the load too heavy for the horse. A fine of $50 was struck against both O'Brien and Dumphrey, but was allowed to stand.
One man charged with drunkenness was remanded.

THE JUNE BRIDES

Ruske-Long
A wedding of interest took place in the Douglas avenue church this morning at seven o'clock when Miss Margaret Long, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Long of Exmouth street, was united in marriage to John Campbell Ruske, assistant manager of the Ford Motor Co., St.
John branch. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. B. Appel. The bride wore a sand colored suit, picture hat and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. They were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Ruske left on the Digby boat and after an automobile trip through the Annapolis valley will return to St. John. They will reside at 88 Wright street. Many friends extend best wishes for a long and happy life filled with happiness.

WILL BENEFIT
THE NORTH END

The programme of water main renewals which Commissioner Jones is now carrying out should prove of great benefit to the north end. Practically the last link in a continuous service through a pipe at least twelve inches in diameter will be the new pipe in Celebration street which the council approved yesterday.

The service to the North End is supplied through a 16-inch main in City Road, thence by a 12-inch pipe up Clyde street near Christie's factory. This joins the 8-inch pipe now in Celebration street which is to be replaced by a 12-inch line which will extend across Stanley street.
Between Winter street and the 12-inch main in Paradise Row is a small section of 8-inch pipe which the commissioner proposes renewing with the larger size as soon as Celebration street is finished.
This will make the enlarged service complete to the North End.

Brunswick Pharmaceutical Association is being held today in the Natural History Society rooms. At 10 o'clock this morning the council met and went over the year's business, after which a general session was held, but no business of importance was transacted. Among those from other points in New Brunswick were—James Cook, George Spencer and Mr. Rodd of Moncton; Charles Burchill and Alonzo Staples of Fredericton; Mr. Fairweather of Sussex; Percy Woods of Norton and Miss Clark of St. Stephen. The meeting is being continued this afternoon.

Means Efficiency
and Satisfaction

A KITCHEN CABINET is more than a "piece of kitchen furniture." In this age of efficiency and sanitation there is nothing which will take the place of this cabinet as a place to store your cooking ingredients and utensils.

IN TIMES GONE BY a CLEAN kitchen was all that was desired, but now we know that food and utensils exposed in the cleanest kitchen are in violation of the simplest laws of sanitation. The steps lost in the kitchen originated the drudge.

WE WANT YOU to see the Cabinets we have here
