POLICE COURT. Since the recent tragedy in the New England States, where so many deaths were caused from liquor containing wood alcohol, the police court record in this city shows a decided decrease in the number of intoxicants, and during the past ten days only a few men have been arrested for drunkenness. However, the court has been kept busy with cases arising out of other violations of the law. One man today pleaded guilty to being drunk and was fined $8 or two months in jail.

WILLIAM WEBBER FINED. In the police court Saturday afternoon, William Webber, charged with having liquor in his possession other than his private dwelling, was fined $100. He was fined $200 for having apparatus for the manufacture of liquor.
