ST. JOHN'S GREATEST MERCANTILE EVENT

Big Rush During Final Days of Oak Hall's 31st Anniversary Sale.

Saturday will be the final day of St. John's greatest mercantile event, which is Oak Hall's 31st anniversary sale and as the popularity of this event seems to grow with every passing day the last two days will no doubt score up record crowds and Oak Hall is preparing accordingly by making still further additions to its already greatly enlarged selling staff.

Thousands of new shoppers wend their way to this great event as soon as they realize that everything in Oak Hall is offered at a substantial reduction, that new merchandise is brought forward every day, and that the Oak Hall guarantee stands back of every piece of merchandise sold. This guarantee is not an empty phrase but is taken seriously by Oak Hall and is interpreted to mean absolute satisfaction to every customer in every transaction.

Furthermore, the Oak Hall motto, "Large volume at minimum profit," assures everyone of the very lowest possible prices in keeping with the quality offered. Under these conditions it is doubtful if there is a person in St. John who will willingly let such an opportunity slip by without taking full advantage of it, but Saturday is drawing near so it behooves everyone to act promptly.

BEWARE OF TENDER GUMS

Unhealthy soil kills the best of wheat. Unhealthy gums kill the best of teeth. To keep the teeth sound keep the gums well. Watch for tender and bleeding gums. This is a symptom of Pyorrhoea, which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

Pyorrhoea menaces the body as well as the teeth. Not only do the gums recede and cause the teeth to decay, loosen and fall out, but the infecting Pyorrhoea germs lower the body's vitality and cause many serious ills.

To avoid Pyorrhoea, visit your dentist frequently for tooth and gum inspection. And use Forhan's Fur the Gums, which has set in use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

LAW STUDENTS DEBATE.
The Law Students' Society met in the Pugsley building last evening for a debate on the subject: "Resolved, that the constitution of Canada is better than that of the United States." The subject was strongly contested. K. L. S. Bailey, R. P. Cahill and K. E. MacLaughlin presented the arguments for the affirmative, and H. M. Groom, R. Murray and J. J. Dunlap for the negative. In the absence of the president, H. Murray took the chair. B. C. Rice, G. T. Milton and W. H. Davidson acted as judges and gave the decision for the affirmative on a very close margin, there being one dissenting judgment.
