

COMPLETELY BROKEN DOWN

Another Lady Thinks "Fruit-a-lives" Greatest Tonic in the World

Hagersville, Ont., Aug. 26th, 1913. I can highly recommend "Fruit-a-lives" because they did me an awful lot of good. About four years ago, I commenced taking "Fruit-a-lives" for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth, but they did all that your advertising claims for them, and as I said before, I cannot speak too highly for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other medicines, that I am glad to say so and I trust that some other woman may start taking "Fruit-a-lives" for I know the results will be all that you claim."

MRS. W. N. KELLY.
50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or from Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

JOSEPH FELS' WILL

No Provision For Single Tax Work—Estate $201 CO

Philadelphia, March 24.—The will of Joseph Fels, philanthropist and single tax advocate, who died on Feb. 22, was admitted to probate here. According to the petition presented by the executor, Mary Fels, the widow of Joseph Fels, a brother, the estate is valued at $200,000 and upward. It is devised in its entirety to Mrs. Fels, with the following conditions: "I request my said wife to pay over to Walter Coates, of Middleboro, Yorkshire, the sum of $50,000 out of my estate, free of all sums that he may now owe to me, as a token of appreciation of W. Coates' faithfulness to me, and as a man."

While no direct provision for carrying out any of Mr. Fels' charities and single tax work is made in the will, it is believed that Mrs. Fels will assist materially in the many philanthropic enterprises in which her husband was interested.

SHE HAS THE VERY BEST OF REASONS

WHY THIS MANITOBA LADY RECOMMENDS DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Mrs. Bourbioniere had many troubles. All of which were caused by Sick Kidneys, and She Found a Simple and Complete Cure.

St. Rose du Lac, Man., March 23.—(Special).—Mrs. D. J. Bourbioniere, an estimable lady of this place, is losing no opportunity to praise Dodd's Kidney Pills to her friends. And she has a reason. Here it is in her own words: "I suffered very much from my kidneys. Mrs. Bourbioniere says, 'I was tired and nervous, my appetite was uncertain and my memory was failing. I had heart flutterings, my back was sore, my head ached, my stomach was full of gas, and I was in a bad way indeed.'"

"I tried one medicine, but it did me no good, and then I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I am very glad that I did, for now after taking four boxes I feel like a new woman. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Mrs. Bourbioniere because all her troubles came from sick kidneys. Sick kidneys cannot do their work of straining the impurities out of the blood, and the result is sickness, depression and lassitude all over the body. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured the kidneys; the purified blood did the rest."

IN THE POLICE COURT

In the case in the police court yesterday afternoon against George Liffon, charged with obtaining goods under false pretences, evidence was given by Chief Clerk, Deputy Chief, and Dr. E. J. Broderick. Magistrate Ritchie said he would wait until Wednesday to give his decision. At present he did not think U. J. Sweeney, who appeared for the complainant had established a case. D. Mullin, K. C., appeared for the defendant.

In the case against Myrtle Chadden, aged 16 years, charged with stealing a diamond ring from Mrs. Harvey Stansbury, evidence was given by the latter, and Miss Stella Walsh, a nurse. Adjudgment was made until Wednesday afternoon. D. Mullin, K. C., appeared for the complainant, and E. S. Ritchie for the defence.

Two boys charged with stealing coal from an I. C. R. car at Gilbert's Lane were allowed to go.

The cases against three men charged with breaching cargo at West St. John was postponed until tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

WANTED TO KNOW

The Truth About Grape-Nuts Food.

It doesn't matter so much what you hear about a thing, it's what you know that counts. And correct knowledge is most likely to come from personal experience.

"About a year ago," writes an Eastern man, "I was bothered by indigestion, especially during the forenoon. I tried several remedies without any permanent improvement."

"My breakfast usually consisted of oatmeal, steak or chops, bread, coffee and some fruit."

"Hearing so much about Grape-Nuts, I concluded to give it a trial and find out if I had heard of it was true."

"So I began with Grape-Nuts and cream, soft boiled eggs, toast, a cup of Postum and some fruit. Before the end of the first week I was rid of the acidity of the stomach and felt much relieved."

"By the end of the second week all traces of indigestion had disappeared and I was in first rate health once more. Before beginning this course of diet, I never had any appetite for lunch, but now I can enjoy the meal at noon time."

BANQUET MARKS

OPENING OF CAMPAIGN FOR METROPOLE FUND

Committeemen Guests of Women's Canadian Club—Speakers Tell of Need of Work—Canvassing Begun Today

About 225 campaign workers were present last night at the complimentary banquet tendered by the Women's Canadian Club to the committeemen in charge of the Metropole campaign. The banquet was a successful affair. A splendid menu was provided and the ladies in charge were highly complimented upon the excellent and capable manner in which every detail was arranged. The different speakers voiced the pleasure of those present and congratulated the ladies upon the affair as well as the practical interest they were taking in the campaign.

The speakers were Mayor Frink, Sir Frederic Barker, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Rev. J. A. MacKegan, W. E. East and Major Moore.

A vote of thanks moved by Sir Frederic Barker and seconded by Chief Justice McLeod was tendered the Club and unanimously responded to by the president, Mrs. Smith.

Mr. MacKegan referred to the good work being done by the Salvation Army and the large clock erected on the erection of such a building as the Metropole would bring undesirable here. The army does not pauperize, he said, it improves the poor.

Mr. East spoke of the army as a business institution and thought it should be admitted and supported by all. Major Moore spoke in behalf of the army, thinking the present for their able co-operation. He said he was glad "that there was an agitation for prison farms and that the public conscience is being awakened in this respect."

The campaign will now begin in earnest and the large clock erected on the building of F. W. Daniel & Co., at the head of King street will indicate the success of each day's efforts. The committee workers will report each day at noon at Bond's restaurant.

PASSING OF T WHARF AS CENTRE OF FISH TRADE IN BOSTON

Dealers to Move to New $3,000, 000 Pier After Thirty Years

Boston, March 24.—This is moving week at T wharf. The historic pier, after thirty years of service, is going out of use as the centre of the country's fresh fish industry, which, after April 1, will be located at the new Boston fish pier, the $3,000,000 plant in South Boston.

It was in 1884 that the wholesale fish dealers of Boston, then numbering about a score, signed a ten-year lease of the T wharf property, and moved to the pier. Up to that time the dealers had been located on Commercial wharf, first in ramshackle shanties, and later in the big stone blocks.

It was generally thought that long before the 10 years for which the dealers leased T wharf was up, the fishermen would be heartily sick of their bargain, and perhaps in bankruptcy.

Last year statistics collected by experts of the United States government show 3882 vessels landed at T wharf 29,321,484 pounds of fish worth $2,988,432. Besides this vast amount of fish came to the T wharf from other ports. Through the New England Fish Exchange, the clearing house of the wholesale fresh fish business, 320,000,000 pounds of fish were handled by T wharf dealers last year.

With the passing of T wharf Boston will lose one of its most picturesque landmarks. For more than a quarter of a century the great fish mart, known to all over this country but all over the world, has been a sort of mecca for the sightseeing pilgrims who troop to Boston each year. In fact T wharf has been a valuable asset for the city.

The entire moving of the entire wholesale fish business of the country's biggest fish mart across the bay has presented serious problems. For a month past the T wharf dealers have been busy getting things in readiness.

Most of the dealers will lead their effects on steam lighters, which will then sail across to South Boston and tie up to the new dock.

MRS. CHENG GETS DIVORCE

San Francisco Court Grants White Wife of a Boston Chinese Doctor $100 a Month Alimony

San Francisco, March 24.—Mrs. Elvise C. Cheng, white wife of Ewing W. Cheng, a Chinese physician of Boston, was granted a divorce in the Superior Court here on the ground of extreme cruelty. After six years of married life, during which she endeavored to adapt herself to the Oriental mode of life, Mrs. Cheng admitted to the court, that, so far as she was concerned, intermarriage of the white and yellow races was a failure.

Mrs. Cheng was allowed $100 a month alimony and permission to resume her maiden name of Nelson. Doctor Cheng made no contest of his wife's suit, but wrote a letter to Mrs. Cheng's attorney advising him how to conduct the case, saying among other things:

"Be decisive, earnest and fight for all you are worth. I will not contest this suit, as it is a batch of lies. Handle the case so that there can be no warning given by the presiding judge. You will have to work hard for my money, if you need it. Snap does not mean snap money."

The letter was introduced as evidence.

SALVATIONISTS TO BUCK THE TANGO WITH HYMNS

THE TANGO WITH HYMNS

New York, March 24.—Hymns in opposition to tango music were to be tried by the Salvation army men and women to attract dancers from their pastime. The crusaders, who are the sweetest singers in the Salvation army in this city, plan to march from one tango restaurant to another. The line of march includes the most popular restaurants and hotels in the theatre district. The proprietors of some of the tango restaurants announced that guards would hold the doors against the crusaders, while at two places the proprietors said the singers would be permitted to enter and would be given a respectful hearing if they did not create a disturbance.

ARE YOUR HANDS ROUGH & CHAPPED?

One thorough application of Zam-Buk at night will bring ease by morning. Zam-Buk stops the smarting, heals the cracks and makes the hands smooth.

Mrs. A. F. Phillips, of Ayer's Cliff, Que., says: "I suffered terribly from chapped hands. Some of my friends almost cried with the pain and smarting. Zam-Buk was recommended and it gave me ease almost as soon as applied. Now my hands are quite smooth."

Also use Zam-Buk for all skin eruptions, eczema, itching, hemorrhoids, all skin injuries. 50c. box all drug stores.

SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL CONCLUDED IN AMHERST

Series of Evangelistic Services Conducted by Rev. E. C. Jenkins

Rev. E. C. Jenkins last week completed a three weeks series of evangelistic services in the First Baptist church in Amherst.

Every meeting witnessed a full house and the interest throughout was very manifest and a large number signified for the first time their interest in things pertaining to the Christian religion.

Rev. Mr. Jenkins is a New Brunswick man, a graduate of Colgate University, and a brother of the late F. W. Jenkins of the St. John police.

Although a comparatively young man he has been ministerial work for upwards of twenty years. His first pastorate was with the Baptist Church, St. John West.

He then removed to Kansas City, where for some years he was pastor of the Baptist Church, returning to the province of New Brunswick in 1908.

He is a man of commanding presence, something more than six feet tall and built in proportion, with a strong, deep voice, full of power and sympathy, and every word commands attention. He preaches the simple Gospel but with much power. Pastor-evangelist best described Mr. Jenkins. The Baptists of the maritime provinces, says an Amherst report, are fortunate in having a man so well fitted.
