by the city council to meet him. He also writes that the steamer Elaine has had trouble on the Temple bar, where several schooners have lately been held up.PRAISE ST. JOHN.
Christian Science Monitor, Boston.—Jerusalem commander, K. T. Eminent Commander Russell, arrived in Boston yesterday afternoon after its three days' pilgrimage to St. John, N. B. The boat with the party arrived about 2 o'clock and after a march across the city the pilgrims went home to Fitchburg by the four o'clock train. The returning knights are high in praise of St. John hospitality.SURPRISED MR. SIPPPELL*Had No Idea Post of Treasurer of Baptist Alliance Was to be Conferred on Him—Delegates HomeConfirming the message that E. M. Sippell, of St. John, had been elected treasurer of the Baptist World Alliance for the coming year, the delegates, including Rev.
F. S. Porter of this city, returned from Philadelphia yesterday. The election came as a great surprise to Mr. Sippell who was unaware of the honor contemplated for him by the executive of the alliance.
The session was one of the most notable since the alliance was started six years ago in London, England. In the roll call 3,000 delegates representing sixty nations responded to their names. The many notable speakers included the president, John Clifford, F. B. Meyer, J. H. H. Strong of Dorchester, Wm. Pether of St. Petersburg, and the president elect, H. F. McArthur of New York City.One of the important decisions reached by the alliance was the decision to hold a university in Moscow or St. Petersburg.
Dr. F. B. Meyer and Dr. Corrywall were appointed a committee to interview the czar for permission to build in St. Petersburg and to have restrictions, religious and otherwise, removed. The next congress will be held in Berlin, Germany in 1915.There was a delegation of about thirty from the maritime provinces.
Rev. Dr. Joseph McLeod of St. John was the vice president of the alliance at organization. The Maritime Baptist this week was an interesting one on the Philadelphia meeting.CITY HALL BOOKLET VERY ATTRACTIVE ONE THIS YEARThe annual publication of the list of civil officials for the current year is issued today, and is very attractive and neat in design. It includes not only the names of the civil officials for 1911-1912 but also the names of those mentioned in the charter of the city, as well as portraits of King George and Queen Mary and King George III. The booklet is the most attractive of its kind which has been issued by the city for many years.
It is the last to be issued containing the names of seventeen aldermen and it is interesting to note the names of the first civil officials which are given as follows: Mayor, The Hon. Gabriel G. Laidlaw; recorder, Ward Chipman; common clerk, Bartholomew Connolly; chamberlain and treasurer, George Leonard; sheriff, Wm.
S. Olive; high constable, Ebenezer Holly.
The aldermen and assistant aldermen with the names of their wards are also given: Kings, George Leonard, John Colville; Queens, Wm. Pagan, Fitch Rogers; Dukes, Thos. Menzies, Munson Jarvis; Sidney, Wm. Paine, Richard Stennan; Goys, John Holland, Adino Paddock; Brooks, Stephen Hoyt, John Ness.ST. JOHN MAN'S WEDDINGA Charlottown, Mass., newspaper publishes the following:
Miss Julia F. Donnelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Donnelly, of 45 Spencer avenue, and George E. McCuskey, who is engaged in business at St. John, N. B., were married at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Catherine's church by Rev. James A. Donnelly, curate of St.
Mary's church, Charlottown, brother of the bride.The bride was gown in white point d'esprit, over white silk, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Her sister, Miss Agnes L. Donnelly, in pink silk and carrying pink roses, was bridesmaid, and Robert Powers, of Greenfield, was best man.
Relatives and intimate friends attended a reception after the wedding. The couple received many gifts. The groom's gift was a substantial cheque to his bride, and a ring to the bridesmaid, and a scarf pin to the groomsmen. The ushers were:— Joseph and Leon Donnelly, brothers of the bride; Joseph Donahue and Arthur Carron. Mr. and Mrs. McCuskey will make their home at St. John, where they first became acquainted during a vacation visit of the bride.NINE IN THE

WAS IN THE CITY TODAY*J. J. Foy of Ontario on Way to Sydney Celebration—Has Been a Good Year For the OrderJ. J. Foy of Perth, Ont., Canadian representative on the National Board of Directors of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, passed through the city at noon today on his way to Sydney, C. B., to attend celebration by the Sydney branch of the order there on July 1. He was met here by a delegation headed by O. H. men including Thomas Kichham, John McCloskey, and J. J. Donovan.Mr. Foy spoke enthusiastically of the growth of the order in the west and in Canada in general and said that the present year was the most successful that the order has experienced for some time.
Asked how things were progressing in the west he said that everything was booming and that the crop this year was expected to be a good one. "This is my first trip down east," he added, "but I shall try to visit St. John on my way home in order to look over the city of which I have heard so much."Mr. Foy will leave Sydney the first part of next week and will very likely spend a day or two in St. John.WAGES FOR WORKMEN IN CITY WATER DEPARTMENT*Superintendent Murdoch Lays Schedule Before the Aldermen—Market Slip SanitariesThis afternoon at the meeting of the Water and Sewerage board tenders for the opening of what is known as the N. E. valley sewer through the premises of the T. S. Simms Co. Ltd., will be opened.
Other matters of interest will be dealt with. Superintendent Murdoch has recommended that a main sewer be laid in Barker street, at a cost estimated at $200.
The matter of the wages for city workmen will also be considered. Mr. Murdoch has suggested that pipe layers and quarrymen receive $2 a day, and laborers from $1.40 to $1.75, and that superior workmen, foremen, etc., be given $2.20.
The wages of teamsters with single horses he suggests remain at $10 a week.It is also recommended that a sewer be laid for 200 feet in Germain street, west side, at a cost of $200, and that the open water course traversing the city block from the city line to Lancaster street, between St. James and Germain, west side, be enclosed at an approximate cost of $600.The cost of the sanitary conveniences in Market Slip is placed at $200. The claim of M. N. Powers for damages in an accident in City Road, Mr. Murdoch suggests be left with the recorder and a committee.CORONATION SOUVENIR The Times-Star has received from the publishers of La Patrie, Montreal, a copy of their souvenir number handsomely illustrated and designed. The front page presents a striking picture of Queen Mary, King George V. and Queen Mary, while throughout the book are pictures of places and people prominent in the coronation festivities. There are also typical Canadian scenes and as an illustrated journal of reflects the highest credit on the publishers, whose plant is evidently one of the most up to date in Canada.THE BATTLE LINE.
