Maritime Nat. Works.
With four points desperately needed by the New Brunswick Telephone Company's team to keep them within striking distance of the league leaders coming into the home stretch in the championship race for the first series in the Commercial League, the phone men, with their backs to the wall, smashed two league records for the season, captured their four points and still entered high hopes of landing on top. The Canadian National Express team was kept in the third string when Parfitt rolled 136, breaking the season's record by twelve pins, but even this high string failed to secure the point for his team. The phone men's total of 482 for the first string broke the previous record, also held by this team, by one pin, while their grand total of 1387 broke the record, again held by this team, by nine pins. Marshall's score of 118 and Jenner's of 111 were also special features of the match.
