NOTICE

1. Files should be retained no longer than absolutely necessary. If a file is frequently needed at short intervals, it is better to keep it for two or three years than have it out of Central Registry indefinitely. This notice is being circulated and kept in order and also given initial offices as appropriate to the same.

2. Central Registry should be notified whenever a file is passed direct to another branch.

3. All originating offices should have the official file number.
