CHILDREN BURNED

Family of Ten Perish in Fire at St. Bernard, Que.

PARENTS OUT AT PARTY

After Giving Children Soothing Syrup Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Gravel Leave Them and Return After Midnight to Find House in Flames—Lighted Lamp is Blamed For Causing Awful Catastrophe.

St. Bernard, Que., Oct. 3.—Ten children, the whole family of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gravel, were burned to death in their home here early yesterday morning.

The mother and father went out on Tuesday evening to a party, leaving their ten youngsters, who ranged from 16 years of age to months, at home. They returned after midnight and then noticed their house was in flames. Both father and mother made frantic efforts to get into the building to rescue their children, but the heat of the blazing house, which was of frame construction, was too much for them.

There is no fire-fighting apparatus in this village, and the father and mother had to witness the consumption of their home and their children.

At first the cries of the children were pitiable, and both parents had to be forcibly held back by neighbors, who prevented them from rushing into the blazing pit. Mr. and Mrs. Gravel towards the end were in a state bordering lunacy, and were taken by main force from the tragic scene.

The fire completely destroyed the house, and the skeleton of the eldest child, a girl, and the skull of the youngest were found.

It is thought that the fire was started by a lamp which was left alight in the bedroom of the children.

The dead children are: Eva, 16 years; Desanges, 15 years; Adelia, 13 years; Ronéo, 12 years; Regina, 11 years; Marie Ange, 8 years; Francois, 7 years; Lionel, 5 years; Marie Louise, 3 years; Simon, 16 months.

It is said that the younger Gravel children were given a dose of soothing syrup to make them sleep during the absence of their parents, and it is said that this dosing of children has become quite prevalent among country people of the vicinity, who wish to spend social evenings among their neighbors without having to worry about the little ones.

However, the fire at the Gravel house broke out so suddenly that there would have been no opportunity for any of the children to escape.

St. Bernard is four miles from Scott's Junction, Bruce County, on the line of the Quebec Central Railway. The village is not connected by telephone.

Rev. R. E. Knowles Recovers.

Galt, Oct. 3.—Rev. R. E. Knowles, pastor of Knox Church, and widely known as an author and lecturer, has so far recovered his health, which six months ago was in such a state as to cause the greatest anxiety, that he will in future be able to fully discharge the duties of his office. Accordingly Rev. J. E. Motherrill, B.A., who has acted as assistant minister during the summer, has resigned to resume his college course. At the congregational meeting Mr. Motherrill was presented with an address of address and a purse of gold.

Asquith Followers in Dread.

London, Oct. 3.—C.A.P. Cable.—Monday, the opening day of Parliament, is to be a day of discussion of the Titanic disaster report, which will prove a dull prelude to a very exciting session.

Impartial critics prophesy that while the Liberals are justly nervous concerning the future of the party, it is unlikely that the Government is in any immediate danger of defeat. The turbulent opposition means also a full and constant attendance of Ministers.

Negro Lynched in Prison.

He was arrested at Fort Steele, 12 miles from here, by the Wagon and Railway police, lived near the penitentiary and was a favorite with the prisoners.

FACTORY GIRL GIVES UP

Too Sick to Work—Doctor Advised Operation. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—"I run a sewing machine in a large factory and got all run down. I had to give up work for I could not stand the pains in my back. The doctor said I needed an operation for female trouble but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me more than the doctors did. I hope that every one who is suffering will get the Compound. My pains, nervousness and backache are gone and I have gained five pounds. I love my thanks to your medicine for it is the working girls friend, and all women who suffer should write to you for special advice."—Miss TILLIE PLENZIG, 3 Jay St., Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

When a remedy has lived for over thirty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their very lives to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

We challenge anyone to show any other one remedy for a special class of disease which has attained such an enormous demand and maintained it for so many years as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (consultant) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

First Newspaper Advertising.

Advertisements first began to appear in the periodicals, or as they were called, newbooks, in 1647, according to a writer in the Oxford and Cambridge Review, "probably being nothing more at the start than a gratuitous puff of a friend's writings."

Very soon the advantages of the publicity thus given became so evident that not only the fear that the purchaser of a news book would complain of the strictly limited space of the pamphlet being occupied by them for the author's benefit (for the writer and not the publisher received the fee—advertisements prevented their increasing on modern lines. As a result, in 1649 registry offices were set up for the hire of servants, sale of lands, etc., and the advertisements in news books became confined to three matters—(1) books, (2) runaway "brothers" and (3) lost or stolen horses.

Advertisements of books never appeared more than once or in more than one periodical, the writer of which was supposed personally to recommend them.

The weekly allowance of advertisements to a news book was two or three.

ONE WOMAN DEAD.

Bay of Quinte Train Jumps Track Near Kingston.

Kingston, Oct. 3.—One woman killed, four seriously hurt, and a few others with minor injuries, is the toll of accidents, which occurred on the Bay of Quinte Railway shortly before 11 o'clock yesterday morning, when the regular mixed train from Tweed to Kingston, jumped the track at Sydenham Road, four miles from this city, and rolled down an embankment.

Mrs. Alfred Brown of Moscow, Ont., was killed, and the following injured: Mrs. A. Fahland, Clamb Falls, Wis., left arm broken and badly cut on temple, not expected to recover; Mrs. A. E. Youreux, Moscow, Ont., internally injured; Conductor Marshall Parks, Tweed, hip injured, not serious; N. M. Beattie, material agent, C.N.R., face badly cut. In addition to these, there were fifteen other passengers who were badly shaken up, but received no serious injuries. The injured were brought to this city.

Mrs. Brown lived but a few minutes after the crash. She was found by Mr. Benjamin, living against one of the registers in the car. He carried her out of the wreckage, but she only lived a few minutes. All injured were sitting on the one side of the train.

The cause of the accident is unknown, although one report is that the truck in the second box car jumped the track, and threw the rest of the train off. The train was travelling about 25 miles an hour. Dr. A. E. Ross will hold an inquest here.

Needsn't Treat Sewage.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—To compel cities along the great lakes to so treat their sewage that it would not contaminate the lakes into which it is dumped would place upon these cities an unnecessary and unjustifiable expense which would bankrupt the cities in most cases.

This was the opinion of Dr. McLaughlin, an expert from the surgeon-general's office at Washington, D.C., who recently reported on the question of the pollution of the great lakes by the American cities.

This evidence was given yesterday before the international joint commission on waterways now in session here, which has been asked by the Governments of the United States and Canada to report on the whole question of the pollution of boundary waters.

Slayer Admits Guilt.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 3.—George Spengler, a laborer, 30 years old, confessed to the police last night that he murdered 15-year-old Mary Smith, whose mutilated body was found on Tuesday night in an alley at the rear of her father's home in Beaufort avenue.

According to the police Spengler, who is described as a degenerate, gave complete details of the crime.

"I met the girl and talked to her," he said. "She knew me and was not afraid."

"I took my jackknife and cut her throat first, then mangled her body." Spengler was a neighbor of the Reiss family and had often been in their home. He was taken into custody shortly after the crime was discovered Tuesday night.

Stork For Royal Family.

London, Oct. 3.—The London Mail's weekly society supplement, which specializes in court gossip, states that an addition to the already large royal family is expected. The interesting boys was the subject of much comment in the fashionable drawing-rooms of the West End.

King George and Queen Mary, whose marriage took place July 6, 1893, have six children, of whom all but Princess Victoria Alexandra are boys. The Prince of Wales was born in 1894 and his youngest brother, Prince John, in 1905.

Boy Accidentally Shot.

Sherbrooke, Que., Oct. 3.—Russell Bloomfield, 14 years old, only son of Dr. S. J. Bloomfield, lies in a critical condition as a result of a bullet wound received from a 32-calibre revolver in the hands of a young lad named Wright, son of C. J. Wright. Both boys were playing together when Wright pointed the revolver at Bloomfield. It was discharged, and the bullet entered the boy's forehead. An operation was performed, but the bullet could not be located.

Chinaman's Bed In Refrigerator.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—An inspection of the laundries of Ottawa is being conducted by the civic sanitary officials (Croat) and a Chinaman sleeping in the presence of a Chinaman sleeping in a refrigerator.

The place was formerly used as a butcher shop, in connection with which a stationary refrigerator had been built. In this the laundryman had his bed.

Driver Is Exonerated.

Toronto, Oct. 3.—Coroner Dr. Elcho's jury yesterday afternoon found that Delia McGroey came to her death on Tuesday afternoon as a result of being accidentally struck by a motor car. The car was driven by James Scott, a butcher at 399 Davenport road, and he was exonerated from all blame in connection with the death of the child.

MacIntosh Very Ill.
