Labrador News

The S. S. Sagona, Capt. Parsons, reached port at 10.30 Monday night from the Labrador mail service, going as far north as Hopedale, where she took on board the crew of a shipwrecked schooner owned by Mr. James, of Exploits. The ill fated ship left her bones on the shore at Rowseville's Harbor, North of Labrador. The men who had a narrow escape, were landed at their homes on the return trip.

Capt. Parsons reports the fishery unfavourable, with most of the floaters gone north. The trip was almost a record one, was made under excellent weather conditions until last Sunday when returning home from the north darkness suddenly set in, about five miles outside of Weesleyville, and much difficulty was experienced in making that port.

The Sagona's report of the fishery is:—
Cape Murgford—Seven schooners reported there last week, all doing well.
West Turnavie—Bartlett's crews hail for 50 to 100 quintals, with fish scarce.
East Turnavie—The best fished crews report from 100 to 150 quintals.

Iliaa—A few crews have from 150 to 200 quintals.
Mesovic—Dunn's crews have 400 quintals ashore.
Iron Bound Islands—Hierlihy's crews have about 200 each.
Ragged Islands—A few crews hail for 200 quintals each.
Horse Hr.—Very little doing.
Emily Hr.—Very little doing.
Holton—Poor fishery.

Indian Hr.—Jas. Wade's schooner from Conception Hr. with 600 quintals.
Cutthroat—A few crews with 300 quintals each.
Grady—Very little doing.
Pack's Hr.—Very little doing.
Sandy Island—Some crews have done fairly well.
Webber's Cove—Crews 200 and 300 quintals each.
Bolster's Rock—Shanahan's crews report for 500 quintals.
Other places fishery generally poor.

Death of Mr. Jonathan Snow

There passed peacefully away at his residence, on Saturday morning last, one of our old and respected citizens, Mr. Jonathan Snow, at the ripe old age of 74 years.

He always prosecuted the fishery at Labrador until six years ago when he decided to remain at home. His health began to fail in April, and he gradually grew worse until Saturday the messenger of death called him to his eternal home. He leaves to mourn their sad loss a wife, two sons, Edward, now in Boston, and John, of Bay Roberts, on Labrador, and one daughter, Mr. William Mercer of Mercer's Cove, Bay Roberts; two grand children and a large circle of friends. Interment took place on Monday, July 31st, at 2.30 p. m. in the Church of England Cemetery, the Rev. D. R. Bailey officiating.

A precious one from us is gone
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.—Com.

Notes of Thanks
