GAVE OUT RUM AND GOLD WITH A LAISH HAND

Bayne Accused by Many Witnesses
WITNESSES TORY

More Startling Revelations in Bribery Case Against Bayne

HALIFAX, Aug. 26.—The lifting of the lid in the bribery trial of Alonzo R. Bayne, the Yankee mining man who seems to have been the chief operator in the "purity" election of John Stanfield, M. P. for Colchester, today continued to furnish startling revelations of corruption practiced on behalf of the opposition candidate in the famous by-election last November. Witnesses after witness testified to distribution with a lavish hand of rum and money by Bayne.

The sensational feature of the case is that all the witnesses for the prosecution, on reaching Truro, were corralled by Bayne or other workers, taken to his room in the Stanley Hotel, where were assembled Frank Stanfield, brother of the M. P., and others, treated to drinks, and in some cases asked to "forget some things."

Almost invariably they testified that Bayne then sent them to W. H. A. Ritchie, K. C., his lawyer. What Ritchie said to them has not yet been divulged, but at the closing of the session of the court tonight J. J. Power, K. C., counsel for the prosecution, declared that this procedure flavoured of improper practices.

Ritchie is a legal partner of B. L. Borden, ex-president of the Conservative Club, Halifax, and has been one of the chief platform denouncers of liberal corruption and professors of purity, but shame to say during the present trial he has been most resolute and frequent in resisting the examination of witnesses.

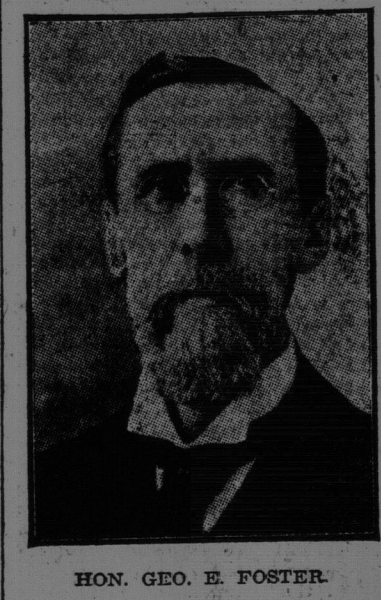

He admitted tonight that Bayne had undoubtedly supplied a quantity of liquor, but there was nothing to show that it came from Stanfield.

Mr. Power said he had witnesses to prove that there was close connection between Bayne and Stanfield or somebody very near him.

The exposures made in the two days' trial have created something akin to consternation.

FOSTER TELLS THE SAME OLD STORY IN THE SAME OLD WAY

A good sized audience heard Dr. J. W. Daniel, M. P., and Hon. George E. Foster speak last evening in the Opera House. The meeting was held under the auspices of the R. L. Borden Club of St. John. Its president, Norman P. McLeod, acted as chairman. Upon the platform with the speakers of the evening sat many prominent Conservatives from various parts of the province. Among the number were Senator Wood of Sackville, O. S. Crockett, M. P., or Fredericton, Hon. Robert Maxwell, M. P., and H. A. Powell of St. John.

HON. GEO. E. FOSTER

The chairman briefly introduced Dr. Daniel, the first speaker. St. John's representative was received with applause when he arose. He briefly expressed his pleasure at being able to address an audience composed of the electors of St. John city. Dr. Daniel began his address with an explanation of the attitude of the Conservatives on the Manitoba election bill. He also referred to Maritime representation and accused Hon. Wm. Pugsley, when a member of the house of commons, of taking no action to preserve New Brunswick's representation at its former figure.

Speaking of the timber limits investigation he explained that the opposition had insisted on the production of the original documents and had succeeded in its efforts. It had been worth being called obstructivists to compel the government to produce the original documents and show that the people's representatives—that was the people themselves—had a right to all information it was possible to obtain.

The Manitoba election bill was an attempt to hand over to partisans the electoral lists, for it was written in his efforts. It had been worth being called obstructivists to compel the government to produce the original documents and show that the people's representatives—that was the people themselves—had a right to all information it was possible to obtain.

In conclusion he predicted victory for the Conservatives at the next general election.

those candidates would have chances of success.

Twenty-six years ago, said Mr. Foster, he had made his halting entrance into politics by speaking in St. John. He was glad to say that the principles enunciated then had underlaid the work of the Liberal Conservative party ever since. (Applause.)

The speaker then paid tribute to the memory of A. A. Stockton, who, he said, in a remarkably short time had made the House of Commons made a national reputation. (Applause.)

MANY CHANGES

There had been many changes since he had stood on a platform in Saint John. There had been a change in local politics. (Laughter.) When the news of the late elections had been received at Ottawa the Conservative members looked rather happy.

Mr. Foster after making some reference to provincial politics, said he was proud to speak under the auspices of the Borden Club. He was proud on account of its name, the name of him who was to be Canada's first commoner. (Applause.) He was proud because the club was composed of young men. It was a young man's age. One by one the gray heads were disappearing from the ranks. Who were to take their places? The problems of the future were difficult, more difficult perhaps than those of the past. On this account he appealed to the best that was in the youth of the country.

"In this democracy of ours," said Mr. Foster, "the neutral man is a parasite. I make the expression strong to emphasize it. I do not care what party flag you fight under what as you fight under one or the other. Of course I would prefer that you fought under the banner of the Liberal Conservative party. (Laughter.) If there is anything that saddens the heart of a man at Ottawa it is the sight of the autocrats on the government benches. Go to Hansard and see if any of the men behind the ministry offered any criticism on government measures."

Mr. Foster condemned the Laurier administration for not introducing its legislation at the first of the session. The opposition had been accused of obstruction and yet the government had deliberately held back its legislation until six and sometimes seven months after the beginning of the session.

The speaker then proceeded to analyze the Liberal platforms of 1893 and 1898. There never had been known in the country, said he, such a naturalist of extravagance and over-expenditure as had existed during the last ten years. It was the age of middle-class, he said, and instances what he termed "take-offs in purchases of land by the government in Moncton and in Halifax."

He also stated that the government had permitted the looting of timber limits, agricultural lands, mining lands and even fisheries.

In conclusion he predicted victory for the Conservatives at the next general election.

UNIVERSITY SENATE SELECTS PROF. STONE

FREDERICTON, N. B., Aug. 26.—At a special meeting of the University Senate held this evening Prof. E. A. Stone of Dalhousie College was appointed to the chair of engineering made vacant by the resignation of Prof. Perrott. His salary will be $1,250 per year, which will include allowance of $150 for his services at the annual engineering camp.

An invitation from Cambridge University to send a representative to the centenary of the birth of Charles Darwin in June next, was accepted and Chancellor Jones was appointed.

The present act of meeting were: Dr. Inch, Chancellor Jones, Judge McLeod, Judge Barry, Dr. Bridges, Wm. McLean, Dr. Walker, Senator Ellis and Registrar Coy.

WAS TOO HONORABLE

While Sir Chas. Fitzpatrick had been Minister of Justice he had been too honorable to permit the introduction of a similar measure, and it was not until there was a more obsequious minister that it was introduced. However it had been knocked out. That disposal of it had been one of the greatest victories for responsible government.

Dr. Daniel next referred to the Grand Trunk Pacific. At its inception the project of building the road had been opposed by the then Minister of Railways. The building of the line had gone on until it was possible to make some estimate of its total cost. The total liability to the country was $118,000,000.

Dealing with the statement that under Liberal rule Canadian trade had made greater advances than that of any other country in the world, he claimed that such was not the case and cited quotations from the report of trade and commerce, which, he said, supported his claim.

Canada's revenue was not keeping pace with her expenditure and she would face a deficit of $22,000,000. Since 1895 Canada had received many advantages. The greatest of these was that of the conduct of Canadian troops in South Africa. (Applause.)

Wilfrid Laurier, however, had done little to help Canadian soldiers to get to South Africa until the great wave of public opinion showed him he was the people's servant, not their master.

THIRD IN SERIES WILL BE PLAYED TOMORROW

Both the St. Peters and Marathons Are Practicing Hard

Both the St. Peters and Marathons practicing hard for tomorrow afternoon's game on the Victoria grounds. It looks as though good ball will be played. The North Enders intend to retrieve their defeat of last Saturday, while the Greeks feel that they can repeat the drubbing. Considerable more cash has changed hands this week than was the case with the past games. The St. Peters outfield plays a good game on the Every Day Club grounds, and if the weather is at all suitable, another large crowd should turn out.

IN FINE SHAPE FOR TUESDAY'S CONTEST

Littlejohn and Foley Both in the Pink of Condition

Johnnie McIntyre, the young Halifax boxer, arrives in the city today and will finish training here for his preliminary bout with Jimmy Rogers in the Victoria rink on Tuesday night next. Tom Foley, the Nova Scotia champion who is to meet Dan Littlejohn in the final bout, will not arrive here until Monday morning, as he is to compete in a regatta at Halifax tomorrow. Besides being a clever boxer Foley is in fine condition for his bout with the Halifax man, and Manager Jack Power is assured of a bumper house at the Victoria rink next Tuesday night.

STRIKERS FRUSTRATE PLOT TO DESTROY THE COMPANY'S SHOPS

WINNIPEG, Aug. 26.—It transpired tonight that the C. P. R. striking mechanics frustrated a plot last week to either burn or blow up the company's shops here.

The plot was the work of foreigners in north Winnipeg, who represent themselves as sympathizers and who have been doing their best to inflame the men to disorder. These anarchists, for such many of them really are, have no real connection with the strike, but are a constant source of anxiety to the better heads among the strikers who fear they may get out of hand any night.

Most inflammatory speeches have been made at meetings of foreign clubs and many orators have not hesitated to tell the strike leaders that they are slow and that "if this was their country there would soon be a big bonfire."

Word came to the strikers' executive last week that anarchists intended to force the bonfire party of their programme and that the coup would be pulled off Sunday night last. The executive immediately saw that a strong

Only for Union Men

MONTREAL, Aug. 26.—The first strike pay was handed out today in connection with the C. P. R. strike. The boiler makers were the fortunate ones. Great dissatisfaction was expressed when the non-union men who had been persuaded to go out with the union men found that they were not included in the distribution, the only satisfaction they received being that they would be looked after later. The machinists will draw their first strike pay on Saturday. Non-union men who are not on the list of those who will be paid. They declare that they were not that if they went out they would be looked after by the union just as if they were union men. The number of non-unionists thus affected is considerable.
