With the passing of St. Andrew's night went one of the best of times, until the next. The first assembly which will be held on the 8th of January, will mark another anniversary in fact these assembly dances which have been held for a number of years, are the most delightful affairs of the season. Sales, teas and parties made the week busy and they all seem to crowd in upon each other until it is impossible to patronize all. The amateur play in the Opera House was indeed worthy of the applause it received. To Mr. Bird nothing but the greatest praise is due. That the tuberculosis society is well in the public eye is shown by the great co-operation which was shown by the King's Daughters and the La Tour Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire. This week Rhetay welcomed back many of the summer visitors. There are rumors of several dances to be held during the Christmas season, so the gay world will certainly appear at its brightest when the standard play is presented at dinner at the club city in Ottawa on Monday evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Marion Ross, of Montreal. Society the world over is greatly interested in the debut of Miss Helen Taft, the daughter, of the United States president. An American debutante always attracts great attention.
