"Canada At War" Price $3.00

This book is beautifully bound in durable red buckram.

In the ordinary course of book-making it would be impossible to produce "CANADA at WAR" at less than $5.00 or $6.00 a copy.

But the publishers recognize the big nation-wide demand awaiting this book. They have planned an en offered to our readers at $3.00 a copy. $3.20 by mail.

This volume may not be obtained through agents. Its appeal to Canadians is too wide to be entrusted to ordinary trade channels. As a service to our readers we have therefore arranged with the publishers to distribute this volume.

THE STANDARD

management is convinced that throughout the length and breadth of Canada every home has been awaiting just such a book. For it records in picture and word the true story of Canadian heroism on the fields of Flanders and of our achievements in Over half a million families in Canada have been affected directly and personally by the war. Now each home can have the record — preserved in convenient book form—fully illustrated—a volume that will be prized by the coming genera-

You can read in this great book the full story of how Canada stepped into the world arena—and made history. Premier Borden has written an introduction praising in flattering terms J. Castell Hopkins' work. In addition to this complete narrative there is included a magnificent epic of those last hundred days — from Amiens to Mons—written by Chaplain R. J. Renison (of Hamilton) who marched with the boys and penned from battlefield, notes a wonderful HUMAN message.
