The Donaldson Line.
The Donaldson liner, Captain Black, is expected to sail today for Glasgow with a full general cargo.

The ship's general commander is welcomed here by a host of friends. Captain Black was in command of the big liner Athena a few years ago, when, without warning she was torpedoed by a German submarine and sank. The underwater craft did not even make an appearance, and about fifteen of the Athen's crew were lost.

The Donaldson liner Cassandra, which steamed from Glasgow on December 4, is due here on Sunday or Monday.

C. P. O. S. Liners.
The C. P. O. S. liner Queen Margaret has completed loading cargo at St. John and cleared under sealed orders yesterday.

The C. P. O. S. liner Scotian steamed for Liverpool yesterday afternoon with a full general cargo.

The steamer Pretorian is due today from Liverpool.

The Manchester Line.
The steamer Manchester Corporation, which sailed from Manchester about this date, is expected to arrive in Halifax tomorrow, and from that port will come to St. John.

From South Africa.
Advice has been received by James T. Knight Co., agents, that the steamers Bonds and Clan Gordon are expected here the latter part of this month from South Africa. Also that the Middleham Castle sailed from Hull on the 6th instant for St. John to take cargo for Australia and New South Wales.

Replacing Buoy.
The government steamer Aberdeen is engaged replacing the Blind Rock buoy, after which a search for the old one, which has drifted away, will be made. The steamer is also calling the Lurcher Lightship. When these in all have been attended to the steamer will return to port and will be proceeded to lift all the buoys from here to the head of the Bay of Fundy.

U. S. Shipbuilding.
A five masted iron strapped schooner, of about 3,500 tons deadweight, is being built for David Cohen & Co., of No. 29 Broadway, at Percy & Small's shipyard, Bath, Me., to be delivered in January, 1919. The four masted schooner John R. Fox was recently launched for the same firm at Phillipsburg, Me., at the yard of F. S. Bowker. This vessel, which is of about 1,400 tons deadweight, is now en route to New York.

A Wreck Marked.
To mark the wreck of the schooner Governor Powers, which was sunk in Nantucket Sound, between Half Moon and Handkerchief Shoals, on Sept. 11 last, the government has established a combination gas and bell buoy, pointed red and black in horizontal stripes and showing a fixed red light. The schooner is a total loss and will probably go to pieces during the winter. Until then she is a constant menace to navigation.

Was Driven Ashore.
The steamer War Metane, which left Quebec last Saturday night outward bound, could not proceed any further than about two miles below Grosse Island, owing to her pack ice; while the steamer was anchored the ice cut her anchor chains and she was driven ashore on a sand bar; she got off later with assistance and was brought here; the steamer is reported to have suffered damage to her machinery and steering gear.

Good Schooner Business.
The scarcity of steam tonnage is opening up unusual opportunities for sailing vessels. Schooners have recently loaded cargoes for distant ports in trades which heretofore were controlled entirely by steamers. The British three masted schooner Speedway, Capt. Fitzgerald, is now at the 3, Boston and Albany docks, East Boston, loading general cargo for Melbourne. The shipments taken by this vessel will include telephone cable, wire, paper, iron pipe, machinery, bicarbonate, etc. The Speedway brought a cargo of wool to Boston from South America. She was recently purchased by the Commonwealth Dominion Line, now controlled by the Camard Steamship Co.
