14 00

9.00

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

granulated sugar has advanced five cents

The Packers' Association have advance the price of canned goods two and a half cents per dozen.

The supply of fresh fish for the retail trade is better now than for some time past. Halibut and mackerel are somewhat

The funeral of James White took place Wednesday morning from his late residence at South Bay. Rev. C. Collins offi-

The marriage of Wallace Raymond Lovett and Miss Maude Alice Morrin, took place at Melrose (Mass.), Thursday, Sept. 11. The groom is a son of Mas.

James G. Urquhart, of Kars, Kings county, died at the General Public Hospi tal Wednesday evening, after an opera-tion had been performed for kidney trouble. Deceased, who was 69 years of age, leaves a widow and grown up family

Rev. Henry T. Parlee, formerly rector of Westfield, denies the published statement that he has resigned from the ministry of the Church of England. Rev. Mr. Parlee has not resigned, but merely has given up active work for a time. He is

The annual meeting of the New Brunswick and P. E. Island branch of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church, will be held at Marysville, October 2 and 3. Delegates are requested to send their names and time of arrival to Mrs. Robert Crisp, Marysville (N. B.)

The inquiry into the title of the crown The inquiry into the title of the crown to certain lands at Sussex near the railway station has been concluded. W. H. Trueman, the commissioner holding the inquiry, has forwarded his report to Ottawa. The lands are occupied by a large number of valuable buildings and it will mean a great loss to them if the land is held to belong to the crown. Mr. Trueman would not say what his report was.

M. V. Paddock is hard at work at the analysis of the stomach of Thomas Wooden, of Patterson Settlement, which he reton at the end of this month where he will enter the Institute of Technology for will enter the institute of Technology for a course in organic analysis and analysis of ore. Mr. Paddock will enter in the fourth year class, having completed his third year in the Massachusetts College of of May and during his absence the store will be in charge of George P. Allen, who has been all summer in Boston picking up new ideas with the large drug firm of Kelly Durkee & Co.

The marriage of Miss Maud Miller and George, Jardine, both, of Newcastle, took, place in the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Charles Hazelwood, of 123 Metcali street, at 8.30 o'clock Tuesday night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Long before only relatives and immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride was prettily attired in white. The wedding presents were very numerous. Mr. and Mrs. Jardine left on the May Queen for Newcastle, where they will reside. The wedding was to have been a very quiet affair, but fate destined otherwise when women and children to the Captain Fardie, of Grand Manan, arrived in the city on Monday and put up at the West End House on South Market wharf. Among Captain Fardie's belongings were an overcoat, a razor and a photo graph in a case. These the captain missed Tuesday afternoon and Tuesday reported his los to Officer

. J. Sullivan and Charles Marshall

Suspecion rested on Captain Sullivan, of the little schooner Emeline, lying at the North Market what and inquiries at the vessel showed that Captain Sullivan had gone ashore during the afternoon without a coat and returned later on wearing a fine overeat which he had put in his bunk. The officers searched Captain Sullivan's bunk and found the coat as well as the razor and picture. Captain Sullivan was found at the West End House and was placed under arrest and locked and was placed under arrest and locked up in Water street lockup on suspicion o stealing. The captain was to have sailed for down the bay Wednesday but wil now have to await the pleasure of th

Despatches from New York say that In the St. John Clearing House for the week ending Thursday, Sept. 18, the clearings were $8,071.49. For the corresponding week last year they were $8,497.29.

James Lamb, a milkman, while transfer ring cans from an I. C. R. car to his team recently, put his coat on the wagon and the driver, not noticing it, drove away with it. The coat fell from the wagon and it has been so far impossible to find it. In a pocket of the garment was $200 and

At the police court Wednesday morni Captain A.fred Sullivan, arrested on suspicion of stealing a coat from Capt. John Fardie at the West End House, was re-leased. He explained that he been drinking and had no intention of stealing the coat. He and Captain Fardie are friends,

Judge Burbidge, of Ottawa, will arrive in the city on Tuesday, September 23, and a session of the exchequer court will be held the following day in the cases of the King vs. parties from whom property was expropriated for the new lifle range. After the session of the count, Judge Burbidge

The following is the list of the beard of directors of the Cape Breton Railway Company appointed in New York last week. They are all New Yorkers with the exception of Mr. Michael Guerin: President, M. E. Evans; v.cepresident, Robert J. Campbell; secretary and treasurer, George E. Johnson; directors, Arthur L. Meyer, W. A. Prendergast, Michael Guerin, Jas. A. Minor, W. W. Orr and W. C. White, obacconists have been advised by Tuckett & Co. of an advance of four cents per pound in T. & B. and seven cents per pound in Lily. The MacDonald tobacco people advanced all their lines one cent per pound on Monday, and on Wednesday withdrew their previous quotations in an-ticipation of another increase. Scarcity of raw leaf is the cause assigned.

poat to be taken off the Minas Basin ceived on Tuesday of last week. Mr. Paddock expects to complete his analysis this week, after which the inquest will be The D. A. R. has been advertising that resumed. Mr. Paddock will leave for Bos- tion of the new steamer" but as yet the the D. A. R. will do if the Percy Car scarce. The Susie or Clayton might be obpublic and the importance of the route demand an improvement and efforts should be made to obtain S. S. Beaver.—Parrs-

> All the river boats were late Thursday because of the heavy land fog that prevailed up river during the morning. This fog, the boatmen say, was the thickest for some time. The Majestic arrived in the morning about two hours late. She lost as how in twings to tout the time Admired off the foot of Grassy Island. The Admiral was ashore with a heavy cargo of wood aboard. The Victoria got in quite late with a good load of passengers and a large mixed cargo. She was half an hour late in starting, and had to drift in the fog for quite a distance. She reported that the Admiral had floated herself by means of her kedges at high water. The May Queen did not leave Gagetown until after 4 o'clock, and did not reach Indian-selves together a joyous, well-wishing but unmusical band in front of the house and punctuated the solemn wedding ceremony with dismal sounds of horns and cowbell tinklings until windows were pushed up for blocks and a policeman loomed up through the mist at a near by corner.

The marriage of William W. Crosbie and Miss Lizzie A. Trainer took place at 1 of clock Thursday afternoon in the Church of the Assumption, West End. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Trainer, of Kinkora (P. E. I.) Rev. J. J. O'Donovan performed the ceremony in J. O'Donovan performed the ceremony, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The bride was attended by her sister, while Daniel Downie assisted the groom. In the evening an informal dance and supper was held at the groom's home on Main street, while in front of the house small boys exhibited their appreciation of the

Will Investigate Lobsters. Ottawa, Sept. 16-(Special)-Profes Prince has gone to Prince Edward Island to look into the lobster fisheries.

SEM -WEEKLY TELEGRAPH'S PICTURE PUZZLE

FIND THE LADY WHO GAVE ALMS.

AGED MILLEDGE ST. MAN TOO NEAR THE WATER

Former Shoe Merchant Made Morbid Inquiries About the Currents, and Was Taken to Police Station.

toward the city. After proceeding a short distance the porceman bade him good night as if to leave him, but kept watch on him for a time. Immediately the old man thought that he was bridge again.

The policeman intercepted him. was repeated a few times and then the patrolman conducted him to the North inability to carry on business. The poli withheld his name.

The prospects are that all lines of smoking and chewing tobaccos will be higher in price within a few days. Local tobacconists have been advised by Trade

Their Agents Have Been Examining Several Pulp Properties in Can-

city Wednesday from Bathurst and is at the Royal. When asked about the visit of Harold Harmsworth and party, of London, to the pulp mills at Chatham, he said that the Londoners arrived in Chatham on Friday morning last and went through the Chatham pulp mill and the What Dominion mill, but merely as spectators wou'd view it from curiosity. They did nce any intention of purchasing any of the properties. After lunch they went o Newcastle on Mr. Tweedie's yacht, the Winona. They were very pleased with the beauty of the river scenery.

Mr. Tweedie expresses the opinion that the Englishmen have had agents examine different pulp mills, not only in New Brunswick, but in Quebec as well, and that they are now looking them over per sonally to decide on what they will pur chase. The party went to Bathurst from Queens County S. S. Convention.

This annual meeting of the Queens county Sunday school convention was held at the F. B. church at Hibernia on Moaday, Sept. 15, under the presidency of 1. S. Vanwart, with Edward Vallis acting sequence.

immediately leaves this congregation for the U. N. B. Revs. W. E. Johnson and J. Puddington were also among the speakers.

by Messrs. Stephen Smith, Vanwart, Val-lis and others that every school in this day should be evergreen and that only schools which work all the year can truly serve the cause at its best. The field secretary represented the provincial committee and in conference on several subjects drew out many points of The following are some of the chief of-

Isaac S. Vanwart, president; Ed. Val-Isaac S. Vanwart, president; Ed. Vallis, secretary; Fred Inch. temperance department; Atkin Slipp, normal department; S. Vallis, home department; and Mrs. I. E. Vanwart, primary department.

An earnest spirit pervaded the sessions.

Albert County Teachers.

Albert County Teachers.

Hopewell Hill, Sept. 16.—The following programme will be carried out at the 25th session of the Albert County Teachers' Institute, which meets at this villege on Thursday and Friday, Sept. 25th and 26th:
Thursday, 25th—10 a. m.: Organization, appointing committees, President T. E. Colpitts' address; paper Discipline by W. C. Anderson; 2 p. m., paper Teaching by W. M. Burns, discussion opened by Mr. McCann; paper, Free Text Books, by L. R. Hetherington, A. B., discussion opened by J. T. Horseman, A. B. Friday, 26th—9 a. m.:Discussion, Teaching of Latin, opened by T. E. Colpitts, A. B., followed by L. R. Hetherington and H. H. Stuart; paper, Teachers' Unions and Salaries by E. A. Coleman, discussion opened by W. M. Burns; 2 p. m., lesson on How to Conduct a Miscellaneous School, opened by Miss. Mary A. Smith, followed by Miss May McLeod; election of officers, miscellaneous business. A public meeting will be held on Thursday evening.

Wm. R. Stiles, of Arlington Heights (Mass.), came by today's train on a visit to relatives at this place.

Bliss Colpitts, of Pleasant Vale, spent Sunday with friends here.

Rev. Jos. McLeod, D. D., will address temperance meetings in this county as follows: Hillsboro, Saturday, Sept. 22; Hopewell Cape, Sunday, 21st, 1 a. m.; Hopewell Hill, Sunday, 21st, 1 a. m.; Hopewell Hill, Sunday, 21st, 3 p. m.; Albert, Monday, Sept. 22nd.

The St. John City and County Agricul tural Society's exhibition will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 24, on the society's grounds, Mocsepath Park, and promises to eclipse any fair ever before attempted by the society. The prize list to be competed for by the membras for the current year.

For horses there are prizes for farm and draft horses, carriage horses, a special cass for thoroughbred running horses, any age, and also for best carriage horse to

For horned cattle, prize are offered for Ayrshires, Jerseys and grades or mixed breeds. There are also prizes for sheep, swine, poultry, turkeys, geese and ducks of 1902. The list of prizes for produce is

An easy way to soften hard water delightfully is to throw orange peel-into it just before the water is used.

MISS JOSIE M. MULLALY. Presents from Many Warm Friends--Have Gone to Massachusetts on Fortnight's

Wedding Trip - The Ceremony in De-"Frank" McCafferty, the popular and fficient city editor of The Telegraph and Wednesday morning in the church of the Assumption, West End, with a nuptial mass celebrated by Rev. J. J. O'Donovan. The early hour, 5.45 o'clock, was no broadcloth costume, with hat of the same shade trimmed with white. She was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Kate Mc-Caffrey, as bridesmaid, the latter in grey broadcloth with white trimmings and hat maiden hair ferns, while the bridesmaid's ouquet was of pink carnations and nilax. The groomsman was George T. McCafferty, brother of the groom.

After the ceremony the bridal party and Miss Burgess made a clever address, ous wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother, from which the happy couple were driven to the Eastern S. S. in Massachusetts. Upon their return to St. John Mr. and Mrs. McCafferty will reside at No. 168. Waterloo street, and many of the bridal home life more enjoyable.

There was a set of carvers from The from the employes of A. Gilmour's tailor-

The groom's gift to the bride was a crescent of pearls and to the bridesmaid The Telegraph building was decorated Belyea-MacAlpine.

A happy event took place at the resi-dence of George MacAlpine, Lower Gage town, on Tuesday morning, the 16th inst. town, on Tuesday morning, the 16th inst., when his eldest daughter, Mary A., was united in marriage to James P. Belyea. The ceremony was performed by Rev. David Long, of St. John, in the presence of a large number of friends was left by the steamer Victoria, via St. John, for Boston, where they will spend their honeymoon. The young couple will reside at Lower Gagetown on their feture. Among the presents received were the following: A gold watch and chain from the groom. Mr. and Mrs. MacAlpine, one the groom. Mr. and Mrs. MacAlpine, one dozen silver spoons and $50 in cash. Mrs. Belver, mother of the groom, a bedroom snite. Wm. Perkins $5; Afbert and Ruth Belyea $5; Reude and Miss Gaunce $5; F. C. Ebbett, silver fish knife and fork; Samuel Crawford, silver butter dish; Frank and Lillian MacAlpine, silver cake basket; Leslie A. Slipp, parlor lamp; Florence and Otty Gilchrist, silver berry spoon; china tea set from brothers and sisters of the bride. Mamie E. Cox, china plate. Mrs. Berger took for her subject "On the road to Jericho," and handled her subbride. Mamie E. Cox, china plate. Mrs. R. Christie, silk ruffle; Paulina Fox silver card reciver; Miss Dickie fruit dish; Geo Gaunce, berry set; William and Frank Fox, table set.

Nichol-Sprague.

The marriage of Miss Jean Marie Sprague and H. W. Nichol, of New Bedfor (Mass) took placeWednesday afternoo at the residence of the bride's father, Rev. Dr. Howard Sprague, pastor of Queen Square Methodist thurch. Only relatives and intimate friends of the family ware invited to witness the ceremony which was performed by the bride's father. The bride wore a navy blue broadcloth, while her attendant, Miss Gretchen Vroom, of St. Stephen, was gowned in fawn broadcloth; both the bride and her maid carried shower bouquets. John Trimble, of Calais, attended the groom. After the ceremony at the residence of the bride's father, Rev attended the groom. After the ceremony oung couple who later left for a trip hrough Nova Scotia.

Gibbs-Somerville. Rev. C. T. Phillips, pastor of Waterloo street Baptist church, officiated at the wedding of William Gibbs and Miss Theresa Somerville, both of this, city, last The wedding took place at the parson age and several friends of the contracting ouple were present.

Wood-Nash. Charlottetown, Sept. 17—(Special)—The marriage of James R. Wood, Habiax, and Daisy Nash, daughter of S. C. Nash, inspector of inland revenue, took place here this morning in Zion church. Rev. D. McLeod, assisted by Rev. George Wood, The bridesmaids were Susie Nash and Mabel Bremner, and the best man was Charles Wood. The church was beautifully decorated, and the gifts were beau-

Fullerton-Holdsworth

Digby, Sept. 17-(Special)-Mr. A. W Fullerton, of Round Hill, Annapolis country, at one time editor of the Digby Courier, and later employed on the Halifax dailies, and the Ladies' Magazine at Toronto, was united in marriage at 1.15 this afternoon to Miss Jennie Holdsworth, of Any person wishing a prize list can secure the same on application to Dr. T. Fred. Johnston, president, or R. R. Patchell, secretary of the society.

The ceremony was performed in the Baptist church by Rev. F. H. Beals. The Baptist church by Rev.

lock to Benton Bedell, elde t son of Jarv.s

The little church was crowded by friends The little church was crowded by friend to witness the happy event. The edification was tastefully decorated with flowers. Ven. Archdeacon Neales performed the ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in blue serge suit, with cream taffeta silk waist. After the ceremony the newly worlded counted draws to Woodston. wedded couple drove to Woods through the provinces. Many useful a happy couple who crowded the edifice to wish them as much joy as the day of sunshine fully prognosticated.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U

The platform was prettily decorated with flags, potted plants and cut flowers.

Mrs. H. Atkinson presided and the of welcome were made by Mrs. Joseph Carson and Rev. A. Bareham, C. W. Town send and Donald Stewart. Mmes. McLeod and Gray replied on behalf of the visiting

The provincial convention of the W. C.
T. U. resumed work Wednesday morning at St. Martins, the meeting being led by Mrs. Joseph Seymour; of St. John.
After the usual exercises the following committees were appointed:
Committee on resolutions Mrs. R. A.

D. Phillips, Fredericton; Mrs. M. A. D. Phillips, Fredericton; Mrs. Medicod, Newcastle; Mrs. Day, Fredericton; Mrs. A. Brown, Newcastle; and Miss. A. Shop of Hampstead, Queens county.

Mrs. Brownid in about the visit Mrs.

Committee on the plan of work Mrs.

Thomas Bullock, St. John; Mrs. J.

Colter, Fredericton; Mrs. James McAvity,
St. John; Mrs. Trot, Newcastle; Mrs.

St. John; Mrs. Sampen and Mrs. Sampen. Ruth Clarke, St. Stephen, and Mrs. Sampson, Fredericton.
Mrs. Atkinson, the president of the union then delivered a most interesting address giving a full outline of the year's work and the outlook for the future. In steadfast in the work, that there were many discouragements. A memorial service followed and was led by Mrs. A. J. Colter, of Fredericton. After a short address by that lady, the names of those who died during the past year were read as follows: Mrs. E. A. Turner, Fredericton; Mrs. C. W. Ford, Sackville; Mrs. J. B. Forbes, Mrs. Vin-cent, St. John; Mrs. Broad, St. Stephen; cent, St. John; Mrs. Broad, St. Stepnen; Mrs. J. E. Miller, Cody; Miss J. Weyman, Mill Stream, and Mrs. D. McLaughlin, St. John The charges of the honorary members who died during the year are Hon. A. F. Randolph, Fredricton, and A. C. Smith, St. John (west.)

The members then adjourned for dinner and met again at 2 o'clock when Mrs. and met again at the service of Missouri, led a short session of Bible reading by When this service had finished the session was adjourned and the delegates to the convention enjoyed a most pleasant drive through the village and surrounding district. All enjoyed the outing very much. In the evening a large audience listened ject in an admirable manner.

Mrs. Seymour opened the morning session of the W. C. T. U. with devotional service. The first business consisted of the election of officers for the ensuing pear which resulted as follows:
President—Mrs. H. Atkinson, Moncton
Vice-President—Mrs. S. McLeod, New

Corresponding Secretary-Mrs. C. A

Auditor-Mrs. Gilman, Frederic

The convention then discussed the question of compulsory education, but came to no decision, no resolution being offer At the afternoon session the devotions were led by Mrs. Clark, of St. Stephen. It was decided to send greetings to the provincial meeting of Nova Scotia to be held at Sydney (C.B.), on October 1, and also to the National Union, which meet at Portland (Me.), October 16. Mrs. Troy, of Newcastle, reported on anti-narcotics, speaking very strongly in favor of the anti-cigarette petition which will be circulated throughout the province, and presented to the legislature at its next session. She urged that al women should endeavor to obtain a many signatures as possible to the pet-tion which has for its purpose the prohi bition of the sale of cigarettes.

Mrs. Seymour read the report of the "Little Gir.s' Home," St. John, and a collection was taken up on its behalf which amounted to $4.43.

A children's mass meeting was held at 4.30 p. m. The meeting was addressed by Mrs. Burger, of Missouri. She gave a recitation of a bashful schoolboy making his first recitation which was loudly ap

The total membership of the union a present is 546. The amount of literature circulated consisted of 50 322 pages. Seventy-one Bibles and Testaments were

The receipts for the year were $1,495. The convention appreciated very much the presence of Mrs. Burger, who was of evening session a resolution was placed on the records of the convention of the appreciation of the restoration to health of the king, and the hope expressed that he may long reign over the British Em-

The convention then passed a vote of thanks to the following: The St. Martins Union for the kind hospitality extended to the delegates, the trustees of the Baptist church by Rev. F. H. Beals. The Baptist church by Rev. F. H. Beals. The Baptist church for the use of the Baptist church for the report of the Baptist church for the use of the Bapti The convention then passed a vote of

The state of the s

ST JOHN, SEPT Fall Clothing

This cool weather makes MEN AN BOYS ST WEAR ING. HAVE YOU "MONEY amount of STYLE AND SATISFACTION

MEN'S OV MEN'S SU BOYS' OY BOYS' S der, $10.00 and Men's and Boys' 199 Union St.

KNO-BUG Bug Killer and Potato Grower,

T. McAVITY & SONS,

: St. John, N. B.

LACK OF HARMONY IN CHARLOTTE GO., AS AT THE OPPOSITION MEETING IN ST. JOHN.

St. Stephen, Sept. 18-(Special)-A meet- | as his town was concerned he thought ing of the electors opposed to the pro-vincial government was held this even-ing in the Salvation Hall.

Mayor F. M. Murchie was chairman, with J. W. Richardson secretary.

LISTEN TO MR. TEED.

Mr. Teed again made a few remarks and stated that there should be no politics and that he was not in favor of the methods of the present opposition and thought there should be able men who would place a good platform and men who would not be working for their own selfish ends-men who would save the interests of the people. - Extract from the

Mr. J. T. Whitlock was the first speaker. He thought it best that several mo active persons in politics should speak first G. W. Ganong was then called who opposed to any deal being made and thought it better to be defeated many times over rather than give away any of imes over rather than give away any of remarks of A. I. Teed.

as Charlotte county was concerned during the past four years the county has been neglected so far as bridges and roads are concerned and while the present members personally are honorable men, yet he thought four others could be elected with more ability and for the better welfare of lock and F. C. Murchie to be added and warded to the union of Hartland, Carle-The next annual meeting will be held at Newcastle, Northumberland county. rendered by Mrs. Alfred Bareham, Miss Weldon and E. A. Titus. Mrs. Burger gave a recitation from "Black Rock."

Movements of the Bank Officials. J. H. Abbott, manager of the Royal marriage of his step-daughter, Miss Cur ren, to Doctor Douglas Thompson, of New ton Highlands (Mass.), takes place at.

Buctouche today. W. G. Jones, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has arrived in Charlottetown to spend Brenton Alley, of the Bank of Nova Sco tia at Toronto, is spending his holidays at his home in P. E. Island, accompanied Alcohol and Drug Users.

by James W. McDonald of the branch a terested in the discovery of a harmless antidate which quickly and permanently antidote which quickly and permanency, removes all desire flow liquor and drugs. This medicine has been publicly endorsed before Congress of Bishops and at Father Matthew's Anniversaries, also by Clergymen from their pulpits and by temperance societies of all denominations. Interested those in opposition had a good opportunity.

this year to elect four candidates who would oppose the government.

Mr. A. I. Teed stated in his opinion that since Hon. Mr. Emmerson was the left those now in charge of the affairs of the province were not working for the interests of the people and he thought there should be a change.

If those who would take their place did no better for the people turn them out and keep on doing this until a good government could be secured. He thought Hon G. F. Hill the principal member of the government who kept this in any manner straight.

H. B. McAllister thought a change ad-H. B. McAllister thought a change ad-J. E. Ganong thought this a fitting time to get to work, especially as the opposi-tion in St. John had nominated four men who stood a good chance to be elected. With four men in St. John and Charlotte pledged to oppose the government he thought it would be a good stant to upset E. G. Vroom was in favor of the motion to appoint a committee who would confer with other parts of the county on the advisability of calling a convention to J. M. Murchie, too, had traveled considerable through the country districts and in many districts the roads were in poor condition and he thought the people and stated that there should be no pol their principles.

Geo. J. Clarke was the next speaker who thought they were present to work, nather than talk. He agreed with Mr. Ganong that the people should be given who would place a good platform and men who would not be working for their own work who would not be working for their own selfish ends, but men who would be above everything else save the interests of the people alone.

he county.

Mayor F. C. Murchie stated that so far holding a convention.

St. Andrews Wedding.

St. Andrews, Sept. 18-(Special)-There vas a quiet home wedding this afternoon at the residence of Charles M. Gove when his daughter, Mrs. Raymond, was married to R. A. Brehm, a wealthy Newfoundland gentleman. Only the immediate riends of the bride were present. Rev. R. J. Langford, Episcopal clergyman married the couple. They started for New-

