ROTHESAY.

Rothesay, Oct. 19—Mrs. Ellinor Close, of London (Eng.), and her secretary, Mr. Mellish, left on Friday evening for home, via Rimouski. Mrs. Close has purchased the Hill farm at Nauwigewauk, and will in May next, begin working out her scheme, in regard to the settling of little English children on Canadian farms, to be brought up under Canadian conditions.

On Friday afternoon, by invitation of Mrs. Close, the following met at the Kennedy House, and were appointed members of the committee, to arrange for the coming, and assist those who shall afterward have charge of the farm and children: Rev. A. W. Daniel, Mrs. J. Simeon Armstrong, Misses Helen Thomson and Mabel Gilbert. Rev. Mr. Daniel was appointed chairman of the committee the other members of which are A. C. Fairweather, H. F. Puddington and Rev. Mr. Cowie.

On Tuesday evening a genuine surprise was given Rev. A. W. and Mrs. Daniel, when, in celebration of the twentieth anniversary of their marriage, about forty of their friends met, and went in a body to the rectory. No hint of the intended visit had reached the family, and the rector was absent at the upper end of the parish, but returned by the 9 o'clock train to find a house full of visitors. Many beautiful gifts were received by the 'happy couple," among which was a dinner and tea set, in the lovely rose pattern. Refreshments were served, after which speeches and music were enjoyed and the company departed, having spent a most pleasant evening. The bridesmaids—Mrs. Herbert Flood and Mrs. John Magee—were both present.
