

LOCAL NEWS.

Leonard B. Tufin, of Hampton, has made an assignment to Sheriff Ritchie for the benefit of his creditors.

The patient missing from the Provincial Hospital for Nervous Diseases since last Friday has not yet been heard from.

The Mispac pulp mill, which has been shut down for the past three weeks on account of lack of water, has resumed operations.

The river steamer Majestic on the way down river Monday was struck on a mud bank near Hamstead. She came off again without difficulty or damage.

The St. John Real Estate Company, Ltd. have declared a dividend of eight per cent. per annum, payable on Nov. 1 and May 1.

Beatrice M., youngest daughter of Pilot Frank L. Lacey, 43 Britain street, died Tuesday of whooping cough. Physicians report quite a number of cases of this disease in the city.

Ernest M. Reid has resigned as principal of Newman street school and has gone to Whitman (Maine), to succeed his brother, Percy Reid, as principal of a school at that place.

On Sunday, Sept. 24, at the 11 o'clock service, the congregation of St. Jude's church, Carleton, will have their new chancel window and reredos dedicated. The reredos is the gift of an unknown donor.

Dr. Scott, who was lately superintendent of the General Public Hospital here and who is going to China as a medical missionary next month, was ordained an elder in Eskling's Presbyterian church, Montreal, Sunday.

Robert Myers, of Portland (Me.) who is a guest of his sister, Mrs. H. S. Seard, at Penobscot, was fortunate in landing a large trout on Saturday last. The speckled beauty tipped the scale at three pounds and fifteen ounces. Local fishermen will be envious.

A large party of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. James L. McKinnon, of Fairville, met at their home Monday evening, the occasion being the 23rd anniversary of the marriage of the bride and groom. As a token of their regard they presented to Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon a handsome oak sideboard.

A meeting of Division 63 of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers was held at Amherst on Monday. The division includes among its members the railroad telegraphers employed between St. John and Springhill. The difficulty between the Canadian Express Company and its agents is apparently as far off as ever.

Rev. C. B. Gibson, lately minister of Glasgow Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Gibson, who was Miss Louise Henderson, left Thursday evening for Montreal en route for Glasgow (Scotland), where they will reside for the winter. Whilst in Glasgow Mr. Gibson will take post graduate work in the university, and also assist Rev. Dr. Somerville, of Blackfriars parish.

No less than six new cases of infectious disease were reported to the board of health yesterday—three of typhoid fever and three of diphtheria. Of the typhoid cases one was on the Westmoreland road, one in the city proper and one in the North End. Two of the diphtheria cases are in the North End and one in the city proper. Secretary Barron St. John said a few days ago and his place in the office is being taken by one of the inspectors.

There was a very enjoyable gathering in White's Monday night when the members of the Drug Clerk's Association assembled and tendered a farewell banquet to Mr. Golding. Harry Lobb, president of the association, acted as chairman. The repast was served in Mr. White's best style, and during the evening G. D. Davidson gave a number of enjoyable songs and selections, and S. Crosswell Matthews, who is an honored member of the association, was heard with pleasure in several songs and recitations.

Five Chinese—four men and a boy—went out to Vancouver in the steamer Oruro, from Trinidad. Little Ah Sid was a very entertaining bit of humanity for the people who happened to be in the boat last evening. He is but two years old and is going with his father to Hong Kong for two years, leaving mother in Trinidad to look after the business there. Through an interpreter, the little chap was asked his name and he answered "Sam."

Grand Falls, Sept. 26.—Frank Goodreau and L. W. Parent, who have been in the woods near Perkins Brook for the past fortnight, with Charles Dube as guide, returned last night without their moose. A few days ago three other hunting parties composed of Joe O'Regan and Frank Price; Thomas Mookler and Jack Mookler with Denis Coy as guide, and A. J. Martin, J. J. Gallagher, and Bernard McLaughlin with Wm. J. Taylor as guide, returned from a hunting trip about noon without having seen one of the monarchs of the forest. The writer saw the carcass of a large cow moose shot within two miles from Grand Falls. No attempt was made to conceal the head and hide, and only the two hind quarters had been carried away. More game is illegally killed in June, July and August in this county than is lawfully killed during the whole of the open season.

The New Brunswick Telephone Company has a crew of men engaged in extending their line through the town and county. Next spring the C. P. R. will build a new bridge across the St. John at the Michael Rocks, about one mile above the present structure which has been condemned.

Dr. C. A. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Kirkpatrick are visiting relatives in Woodstock.

Al. Etey badly injured his hand a few days ago while working in Burgess' mill. The dominion fish hatchery building at Rapid de Femme has been repaired and a new foundation placed under the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Burgess returned yesterday from their honeymoon trip, and have taken apartments in the Victoria restaurant. In the evening, the boys honored them with a charivari and bon-fire.

W. Fred Kertson went to Andover on Monday to attend the Victoria Circuit Court.

James Crawford, U. S. customs officer at Van Buren (Me.), was in town on Monday.

WEDDINGS

Thompson-Burn.

Saturday evening at 6 1/2 Trumbull street, The Haven (Conn.), the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott Burn, their eldest daughter, Vera Olga Cullingford, was united in marriage with Roland A. Thompson, son of Mrs. Mary Thompson, of Carleton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Brindley Morgan, D. D., of Christ Church. The bride wore a beautiful robe of white embroidered chiffon and veil. Her bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Helen Burn, who wore a handsome dress of blue silk muslin. The groom was attended by Dr. Keenan, of North Carolina. The house was attractive and decorated with flowers. The young couple left by train for Lake George, to spend their honeymoon, and on their return will reside in East Orange (N.J.).

Mr. Thompson is of the staff of the Bank of Montreal, and the good feeling of his associates in that institution was demonstrated by the handsome present sent by them to the bride. There was a large display of articles in glass and silver and bronze, the gifts of friends. Among the guests at the wedding were the mother and sister of the groom, and other New Brunswick people.

Haley-Jones.

A quiet wedding took place Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when W. Kenneth Haley, of Winnipeg, was united in marriage by Rev. David Hutchinson to Miss Susan Louise Jones, eldest daughter of Everett B. Jones, accountant for M. R. A., Ltd.

The contracting parties were unattended and only their relatives and immediate friends were present at the ceremony. The groom is the son of R. G. Haley, of this city, and is employed in the Saskatchewan Valley and Alberta land office.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Haley left for Winnipeg, where they will reside.

Armstrong-Hazlett.

An interesting nuptial event took place at 3.30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hazlett, 346 Union street, when their eldest daughter, Miss Annie Hazlett, was married to William Armstrong, overseer of the Cornwall cotton mill, which was witnessed only by relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties, was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, of Exmouth street Methodist church. The bride was gowned in a dainty creation of grey silk and was unattended.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The newly married couple left by steamer Calvin Austin for a two-weeks' wedding trip to Boston, New York and other United States ports, and on their return will reside on Rockland road.

The happy couple have been the recipients of numerous beautiful presents, including a pretty quilt, a pair of white cotton gowns, a pair of white gloves, a heavy oak Morris chair from the overseer and several handbags, and a pair of handsome silver vases from Mrs. Gerow and S. P. Gerow.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong have the good will of a large circle of friends and acquaintances, who wish them every happiness in wedded life.

Kierstead-Peters.

The marriage of Guy G. Kierstead and Miss Alberta M. Peters, daughter of Howard L. Peters, of Wickham, Queen county, took place Tuesday at 6.30 a. m., at the residence of Mrs. S. L. Rye, 277 Main street. Rev. David Long performed the ceremony in the presence of a few of the immediate relatives. Among the presents received by the bride were a beautiful picture, given by the Victoria street Baptist church choir, of which she was a member. Breakfast being served, Mr. and Mrs. Kierstead left by the Prince Rupert for a trip through Nova Scotia and will visit the Dominion exhibition at Halifax. Returning, they will reside at 223 Main street.

Golding-Logan.

A quiet but pretty home wedding took place at 3.30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 64 Winter street, when Miss Jessie L. Logan, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Logan was married to Harold Golding, of Short's Pharmacy, Rev. Dr. Macrae officiating.

The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father, and wore a pretty costume of white organdie and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. After the ceremony a dainty supper was partaken of. The happy couple left by the 6 p. m. train for a ten days' trip to Boston and other United States points. On the return to the city they will take up their residence at 64 Winter street.

Among the wedding gifts, which were numerous, may be mentioned a pretty china vase from Seville Bros. Ltd., with whom the bride was employed, a cut glass water set from the staff, and a silver scallop dish from the baker's lay team of St. Stephen's church with which the bride was prominently identified.

Mr. and Mrs. Golding have the best wishes of a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

McAfee-Emery.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the residence of F. J. Wright, 13 Hospital street, Tuesday when Bertha M. Emery, youngest daughter of Oliver J. Emery, was united in marriage to George McAfee. The bride was beamingly beautiful in a traveling suit of grey broadcloth with hat to match. The groom was prettily decorated for the occasion. Rev. A. A. Graham performed the ceremony in the presence of near relatives. Mr. and Mrs. McAfee left on a short tour to Boston. On their return they will reside at 20 Dorchester street.

Logue-Mullin.

A very interesting event took place Tuesday night at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. P. J. Stackhouse, R. D., at the Michael Rocks, when Miss Edith Jean Fuller, daughter of Mrs. Isabella Fuller, of Seville street, was united in marriage to Miss Cora May Mullin, of Indian Mountain, Westmorland county. The bride entered the church. Both the bride and groom were unattended. They will spend their honeymoon. Both are popular young people, whose many friends will wish them much happiness. On their return they will reside at the corner of Dorchester and Seville streets. The groom is in the employ of S. H. Belyea & Co.

Morrison-Graham.

Miss Bertha Graham, of Church street, Fairville, was married Wednesday to Murdoch J. Morrison, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Hill, and P. Lele were the attendants. The bride wore a dress in cream crepe decorated with flowers and ferns. The ceremony took place at 7 o'clock, and supper was served at 8 o'clock, after which the bride and groom drove to their new home.

The wedding was a quiet affair, only immediate relatives being present. Among the latter were John Somerville and wife, the bride's uncle and aunt of the bride. The bride, who is a very popular young lady, received many gifts, and the young couple have the best wishes of a wide circle of friends for their future happiness.

Farmer-Bonner.

Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock Edwin D. Farmer, son of William Farmer, of Wall street, was united in marriage to Miss Mamie E. Bonner by Rev. A. B. Co. church. The bride's dress was of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

Skinner-Kerr.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Kerr, Mount Pleasant avenue, when their eldest daughter, Edythe, was united in marriage to Roy A. O. Skinner, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Skinner, Rev. Dr. Macrae was the officiating clergyman. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

Bowser-Babcock.

Sackville, Sept. 27.—Dixon E. Bowser and Miss Greta Bebock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Bebock, Salem street, were united in marriage last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. B. A. Laid, that both had many friends who were shown by the beautiful array of gifts which they were the recipients of. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

WEDDINGS

Thompson-Burn.

Saturday evening at 6 1/2 Trumbull street, The Haven (Conn.), the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott Burn, their eldest daughter, Vera Olga Cullingford, was united in marriage with Roland A. Thompson, son of Mrs. Mary Thompson, of Carleton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Brindley Morgan, D. D., of Christ Church. The bride wore a beautiful robe of white embroidered chiffon and veil. Her bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Helen Burn, who wore a handsome dress of blue silk muslin. The groom was attended by Dr. Keenan, of North Carolina. The house was attractive and decorated with flowers. The young couple left by train for Lake George, to spend their honeymoon, and on their return will reside in East Orange (N.J.).

Mr. Thompson is of the staff of the Bank of Montreal, and the good feeling of his associates in that institution was demonstrated by the handsome present sent by them to the bride. There was a large display of articles in glass and silver and bronze, the gifts of friends. Among the guests at the wedding were the mother and sister of the groom, and other New Brunswick people.

Haley-Jones.

A quiet wedding took place Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when W. Kenneth Haley, of Winnipeg, was united in marriage by Rev. David Hutchinson to Miss Susan Louise Jones, eldest daughter of Everett B. Jones, accountant for M. R. A., Ltd.

The contracting parties were unattended and only their relatives and immediate friends were present at the ceremony. The groom is the son of R. G. Haley, of this city, and is employed in the Saskatchewan Valley and Alberta land office.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Haley left for Winnipeg, where they will reside.

Armstrong-Hazlett.

An interesting nuptial event took place at 3.30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hazlett, 346 Union street, when their eldest daughter, Miss Annie Hazlett, was married to William Armstrong, overseer of the Cornwall cotton mill, which was witnessed only by relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties, was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, of Exmouth street Methodist church. The bride was gowned in a dainty creation of grey silk and was unattended.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The newly married couple left by steamer Calvin Austin for a two-weeks' wedding trip to Boston, New York and other United States ports, and on their return will reside on Rockland road.

The happy couple have been the recipients of numerous beautiful presents, including a pretty quilt, a pair of white cotton gowns, a pair of white gloves, a heavy oak Morris chair from the overseer and several handbags, and a pair of handsome silver vases from Mrs. Gerow and S. P. Gerow.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong have the good will of a large circle of friends and acquaintances, who wish them every happiness in wedded life.

Kierstead-Peters.

The marriage of Guy G. Kierstead and Miss Alberta M. Peters, daughter of Howard L. Peters, of Wickham, Queen county, took place Tuesday at 6.30 a. m., at the residence of Mrs. S. L. Rye, 277 Main street. Rev. David Long performed the ceremony in the presence of a few of the immediate relatives. Among the presents received by the bride were a beautiful picture, given by the Victoria street Baptist church choir, of which she was a member. Breakfast being served, Mr. and Mrs. Kierstead left by the Prince Rupert for a trip through Nova Scotia and will visit the Dominion exhibition at Halifax. Returning, they will reside at 223 Main street.

Golding-Logan.

A quiet but pretty home wedding took place at 3.30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 64 Winter street, when Miss Jessie L. Logan, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Logan was married to Harold Golding, of Short's Pharmacy, Rev. Dr. Macrae officiating.

The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father, and wore a pretty costume of white organdie and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. After the ceremony a dainty supper was partaken of. The happy couple left by the 6 p. m. train for a ten days' trip to Boston and other United States points. On the return to the city they will take up their residence at 64 Winter street.

Among the wedding gifts, which were numerous, may be mentioned a pretty china vase from Seville Bros. Ltd., with whom the bride was employed, a cut glass water set from the staff, and a silver scallop dish from the baker's lay team of St. Stephen's church with which the bride was prominently identified.

Mr. and Mrs. Golding have the best wishes of a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

McAfee-Emery.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the residence of F. J. Wright, 13 Hospital street, Tuesday when Bertha M. Emery, youngest daughter of Oliver J. Emery, was united in marriage to George McAfee. The bride was beamingly beautiful in a traveling suit of grey broadcloth with hat to match. The groom was prettily decorated for the occasion. Rev. A. A. Graham performed the ceremony in the presence of near relatives. Mr. and Mrs. McAfee left on a short tour to Boston. On their return they will reside at 20 Dorchester street.

Logue-Mullin.

A very interesting event took place Tuesday night at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. P. J. Stackhouse, R. D., at the Michael Rocks, when Miss Edith Jean Fuller, daughter of Mrs. Isabella Fuller, of Seville street, was united in marriage to Miss Cora May Mullin, of Indian Mountain, Westmorland county. The bride entered the church. Both the bride and groom were unattended. They will spend their honeymoon. Both are popular young people, whose many friends will wish them much happiness. On their return they will reside at the corner of Dorchester and Seville streets. The groom is in the employ of S. H. Belyea & Co.

Morrison-Graham.

Miss Bertha Graham, of Church street, Fairville, was married Wednesday to Murdoch J. Morrison, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Hill, and P. Lele were the attendants. The bride wore a dress in cream crepe decorated with flowers and ferns. The ceremony took place at 7 o'clock, and supper was served at 8 o'clock, after which the bride and groom drove to their new home.

The wedding was a quiet affair, only immediate relatives being present. Among the latter were John Somerville and wife, the bride's uncle and aunt of the bride. The bride, who is a very popular young lady, received many gifts, and the young couple have the best wishes of a wide circle of friends for their future happiness.

Farmer-Bonner.

Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock Edwin D. Farmer, son of William Farmer, of Wall street, was united in marriage to Miss Mamie E. Bonner by Rev. A. B. Co. church. The bride's dress was of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

Skinner-Kerr.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Kerr, Mount Pleasant avenue, when their eldest daughter, Edythe, was united in marriage to Roy A. O. Skinner, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Skinner, Rev. Dr. Macrae was the officiating clergyman. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

Bowser-Babcock.

Sackville, Sept. 27.—Dixon E. Bowser and Miss Greta Bebock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Bebock, Salem street, were united in marriage last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. B. A. Laid, that both had many friends who were shown by the beautiful array of gifts which they were the recipients of. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

OBITUARY.

Hugh Logan.

Amherst, Sept. 25.—The death occurred at Stanley, this county, last night, after a lengthy illness of Deacon Hugh Logan, one of the best known and most highly esteemed citizens of the county.

Deceased, who had reached the age of 80 years, was for upwards of a quarter of a century a deacon in the Baptist church and had been closely identified with the work of this denomination for many years. In politics he was a Conservative, taking a deep interest in all that pertained to his party's best interest. Few men in this county have left such an impress for sterling honesty and high Christian character as has Deacon Logan.

He was a son of the late Hugh Logan and was born on the old homestead where he died. He was twice married, his first wife was a Miss Taylor, of Great Village, Colchester county, by whom he had three children who survive—Wm., O. and Miss Alice, at home, and Mrs. Joseph Dickson, of Point de Bute. His second wife, who survives him as a daughter of the late Wallace Archibald, of Musquodibit, Halifax county, and sister of W. C. Archibald, of Wolfville. H. T. Logan, M. P., is a nephew.

R. D. Blair.

Dalhousie, N. B., Sept. 25.—(Special)—The death of R. D. Blair occurred at Dalhousie Junction on Sunday morning after an illness of several weeks of consumption. He was forty-five years of age and carried on a lumbering business. Mr. Blair was a widely known and liked. His funeral, which was one of the largest ever held here, was held today. He was a Presbyterian and his funeral services were held by Rev. Peter McIntyre. The deceased is survived by a widow, several children and a large circle of friends.

Edward Marshall.

Digby, Sept. 24.—Edward Marshall, aged 60 years, died at an early hour this morning at his home in Marshalltown, Digby county, having been ill but a short time with typhoid fever. The deceased was postmaster in his native village and also contractor and builder. He was well known throughout the western counties. He is survived by a widow and two sons and also leaves three brothers—Harvey, of Bear River; Alden, of Digby, and George L., of Marshalltown, and three sisters—Mrs. Thomas Huxman, of Digby; Mrs. Timpany, of Roseway, and Mrs. William Rice, of Cambridge. Mr. Marshall was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal church and an enthusiastic Liberal in politics.

Mrs. Hugh McCavour, Lorneville.

Mrs. Hugh McCavour, of Lorneville, died Wednesday morning after the third paralytic stroke she had sustained within a few weeks. The first two strokes were slight. Mrs. McCavour was formerly a teacher in the school at Lorneville, and had a more serious attack and fell to the ground, and was picked up unconscious some time later. Mrs. McCavour, who was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal church and an enthusiastic Liberal in politics.

Dorchester, N. B., Sept. 27.—(Special)—The marriage of Hiram Croxman, of Sackville, and Miss Myra Lockhart, of Rockport, was celebrated on Wednesday, September 27, at 6 o'clock, when William W. Purdy, of Jemseg, and Miss Clara W., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Worden, of Rockport, were married in the presence of immediate relatives of the bride.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

Baywater, Kings Co., Sept. 27.—At the residence of the bride's brother, Captain S. C. Worden, a very pretty event took place Thursday morning, September 27, at 6 o'clock, when William W. Purdy, of Jemseg, and Miss Clara W., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Worden, of Rockport, were married in the presence of immediate relatives of the bride.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

Moncton, Sept. 26.—(Special)—A wedding of much local interest was quietly celebrated this morning at the home of Everett P. Vanwart, of the firm of N. W. Eveleigh & Co., was united in marriage to Miss Rosemary, of Exmouth street, at 10 o'clock, when Edward A. McKee, of Exmouth street, and Miss Lillian, the second daughter of P. J. Quinn, of this city, a former well known dry goods merchant, were married in the presence of near relatives. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

The bride and groom stood under a beautiful arch of roses during the ceremony. The bride wore a dress of white and blue, and the groom wore a suit of white and blue. A dainty repast followed the ceremony and the happy couple left by Washington County Railway this evening for a visit to Boston. Her traveling costume was of purple Venetian cloth with white hat. She will be at home to her friends in Houlton.

OBITUARY.

Hugh Logan.

Amherst, Sept. 25.—The death occurred at Stanley, this county, last night, after a lengthy illness of Deacon Hugh Logan, one of the best known and most highly esteemed citizens of the county.

Deceased, who had reached the age of 80 years, was for upwards of a quarter of a century a deacon in the Baptist church and had been closely identified with the work of this denomination for many years. In politics he was a Conservative, taking a deep interest in all that pertained to his party's best interest. Few men in this county have left such an impress for sterling honesty and high Christian character as has Deacon Logan.

He was a son of the late Hugh Logan and was born on the old homestead where he died. He was twice married, his first wife was a Miss Taylor, of Great Village, Colchester county, by whom he had three children who survive—Wm., O. and Miss Alice, at home, and Mrs. Joseph Dickson, of Point de Bute. His second wife, who survives him as a daughter of the late Wallace Archibald, of Musquodibit, Halifax county, and sister of W. C. Archibald, of Wolfville. H. T. Logan, M. P., is a nephew.