

THE MERCHANTS' AGENCY RED BOOK

A GAZETTEER, TRADE DIRECTORY & REFERENCE BOOK OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Abbreviations used in descriptions:—

Stn.—station.	B.—Bank.
Tel.—telegraph.	M.—money order.
Ex.—express.	Sav. Bk.—savings bank.
Ry.—railway.	pop.—population.
Co.—county.	m.—miles.

The Counties named are those designated by the "Counties Definition Act, 1895."

Abbreviations used in other parts:—

J. P.—justice of the peace; stip. magistrate—stipendiary magistrate; gen.—general; Mpg.—mining; phys.—physician; (in liq.)—in liquidation; $20m—means $20,000; $2mill—means $2,000,000; contr.—contractor; furn.—furniture; hdwre.—hardware. In names of mining companies, Hyd. means hydraulic. Names of cities after a company name refer to the registered office or principal place of business of the Co.

ABBOTTSFORD, Westminster Co.

Stn. on C. P. R.: Mission Junction 6m; Gilliwack Sm. Tel. Matsqui: mails daily: pop. 50.
Postmaster Frank Munro

Gold Queen Mining Co., Ltd. ($4m).
Whateom, Wm., C. W. Paton, Supt.
Munro, Frank?general store

ABERDEEN, Nanaimo Co.

Salmon fishing stn. on Skeena River;
Ry. Tel. B. Vancouver 530 m: mails fortnightly in summer, monthly in winter: pop. about 100.
(See also Port Essington.)
Postmaster W. H. Dempster

Bowes, druggist

publishers have kept berorous patrons for a companies engaged in trade;
ne of partners, and an
'from a creditor's standing from two to three y any other publishers.
formation locating the es, railway stations, post is enumerated and des-before been gazetted in pilations in the past, it part to personally in-though in such a new ossible to insure ablishers claim the Red

for portion of the mat-
is form, and the matter is altered by correct-
y claimed that the work yle and principle of the ements are already con-

ook are: A complete
lement, mining camp,
post office, P. O. savance from some well-

ay and Transportation

essional concerns and different points, with a firm, full christian

gents, Registrars, Bar-
, etc. Street address made in the year 1866, by A.