THE QUESTION OF DEPRECIATION

YOU cannot afford to overlook the question of depreciation when buying a car, because the time will come when you will either sell the car you have bought or turn it on a new car. The loss you will have to take will depend on your choice now.

Ask the owner of any car purchased within the last 15 months, at a price varying from $2,000 to $4,000, what loss he would have to take on a resale. The amount will surprise you!

The more expensive the car the more the owner stands to lose. Excessive cost of upkeep kills the demand for a used car of this class.

Buy a Ford. It costs so little to run, and repairs and replacements for worn parts can be so easily obtained at low cost that the demand for used Ford cars reduces depreciation to the minimum.

The Watford Guide says:—May Young, 17, daughter of Robert Young, nearly lost her life when her hair caught in the belt of a cream separator, which she was adjusting. It is stated that five well-known New York financiers will establish a floating "hoose palace," to be anchored outside the three-mile limit and to and from which a special ferry service will be run. "The promoters have been assured by lawyers that the project is within the law, and already business men have made application for ferry tickets amounting to several hundred thousand dollars."

"Lumberman," in Saturday's Globe, writes: "In February I shipped one carload of dry, peeled cedar fence posts to Dutton. These posts cost me over 15 cents on the car, and I had them sold for 27 cents f.o.b. Dutton. I have now received a cheque in settlement and the freight amounted to $110 and I received $107.07. The freight on each post was therefore 13 4/5 cents, and all I received for each post was 13 1/5 cents, thus losing over $25 on the transaction. This is poor encouragement for the lumber industry."

STORY OF A STOLEN CAR
Constable Henry of Glencoe took a Toronto young man in charge one day last week on the strength of information wired by the police of that city.

According to the young man, he bought a car from another party in Toronto for $250 and was driving with friends to Newbury where he had made arrangements for his marriage to a young lady of that village.

On the trip the car gave no end of trouble, and after getting it temporarily repaired at Campbell's garage in Melbourne he decided it good business policy to dispose of the car, and accepted an offer of $100 from Mr. Campbell, who agreed to drive the party the balance of the journey to Newbury.

A few days later another Toronto man appeared at the Melbourne garage and took the car away, claiming that it had been stolen from him. A charge of theft was then laid against the young man who sold the car to Campbell and he was taken to Toronto by police officers of that city and remanded for a week.

The young man bears an excellent reputation and holds a receipt for the purchase price from the man who sold him the car, but unless the latter can be located, the young man still find it difficult to establish his innocence.

Meantime the English church clergyman at Glencoe is minus an expected wedding fee.

R. J. YOUNG GOES WITH UNITED HOTELS COMPANY
George H. O'Neill, general manager for Canada of the United Hotels Company, announces the appointment of R. J. Young as assistant general manager.

Few men in Canada are more widely known than Mr. Young, who is a former Glencoe boy, and who, following his graduation from Toronto University in 1902, was general secretary of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association during several years of that organization's most rapid growth.

In 1906 he was appointed general sales manager of the Canadian Consolidated Rubber Company, a position which he filled with marked success for seven years.

Mr. Young's war activities were of a most extensive nature. In 1915 he organized the Export Association of Canada, on behalf of which he made special trips to Europe and to South Africa, and later filled in succession the posts of secretary of the Canadian War Mission at Washington, D. C., and secretary of the Canadian Mission in London, England.

Mr. Young's work in this latter connection necessitated visits to France, Belgium, Italy, Rumania and Bulgaria.

The United Hotels Company operates the King Edward Hotel, Toronto; the Royal Consulate, Hamilton; the Clifton, Niagara Falls, Canada, and has under construction the Prince Edward, Windsor, and the Mount Royal, Montreal. This company also operates hotels in thirteen cities in the United States.

Mr. Young, the new assistant general manager, will make his headquarters at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto.

DEATH OF MRS. EDWARDS
(Correspondence)
There passed into eternity Thursday, March 23rd, in Glenwood private hospital, London, Gertrude James, beloved wife of T. A. Edwards, 63 Askin street.

Although ailing for years from a stubborn complication which gradually sapped life's vital springs beyond any earthly aid, the end came as a shock to her many friends and acquaintances in this and her old home vicinity at Wardsville near where deceased was born seventy-one years ago and where practically she spent her life before removing to London eighteen years ago.

Though of a quiet, unobtrusive disposition, Mrs. Edwards, by her gentle kindness, thoughtfulness and love, made many friends in London, as was amply testified by the beautiful banks of flowers which permeated the hushed household with their sweet incense.

After a short service, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Morris of Askin Street Methodist church, a personal friend of the deceased, the body was brought via G.T.R. to Glencoe and followed by a concourse of sorrowing old friends and neighbors, interment made in the family plot at Simpson cemetery.

Besides her bereaved husband, a kind and patient mother leaves to mourn her loss Miss Jessie, at home; Mrs. Joseph Gilbert, of Glencoe; Fred of Santa Monica, Cal.; Harry of Los Angeles, and W.
