

RULE.	PAGE.
79. Notice of argument of, when to be served.....	10
80. When default in pleading action may be set down on motion for judgment.	10
81. When one of several defendants makes default.....	10
82. Default by Attorney General.....	11
83. Default in replying or demurring within time limited, effect of.....	11
84. If no reply or demurrer or subsequent pleading delivered after expiring of one month after period allowed defendant may apply to dismiss action for want of prosecution.....	11
85. Judgment by default may be set aside by Court or Judge.....	11
86. Petitioner, plaintiff or defendant may be examined by opposite party.....	11
87. Departmental or other officers of the Crown may be examined.....	11
88. Examination in actions against Corporations.....	11
89. Subpœna to be issued to enforce attendance.....	11
90. Production of documents at examination.....	11
91. Parties to be examined to be paid.....	12
92. Examination of parties without the jurisdiction by interrogatories.....	12
93. Case of party omitting to answer.....	12
94. Order for production may be made by Court or Judge at any time.....	12
95. Order for discovery of documents may be applied for without filing affidavit.....	12
96. Affidavit to be made by party upon whom order made.....	12
97. Production of documents for inspection.....	12
98. Form of notice to produce.....	12
99. Notice when inspection may be made.....	12
100. Order for inspection may be obtained.....	13
101. Application for to be to a Judge upon affidavit.....	13
102. Judge may order any issue or question to be first determined.....	13
103. Consequences of not appearing to reply to order.....	13
104. How service of order for discovery or inspection may be made.....	13
105. If at trial part of any examination read the whole to be considered in evidence	13
106. Any party may give notice of admissions.....	13
107. Notice to admit and costs of refusing.....	13
108. Form of notice.....	14
109. Affidavit as to admissions.....	14
110. Inquiries and accounts.....	14
111. Special case may be stated for opinion of Court.....	14
112. Questions of law may be first tried.....	14
113. Special case to be printed.....	14
114. Special case in actions where married woman, infant or lunatic is party....	14
115. Entry of special case for argument.....	15
116. Order for trial.....	15
117. Venire facias, order for.....	15
118. Trials of issues of facts to be at bar.....	15
119. Countermand of notice of trial.....	15
120. Sheriff may adjourn sittings in absence of Judge.....	15
121. Default by Defendant in appearing at trial.....	15
122. Default by Attorney General or Petitioner in appearing at trial.....	15
123. Postponement of trial.....	15
124. Directions by Judge at trial.....	15
125. Findings of fact and directions of Judge to be entered by officer of Court..	15
126. Where Judge directs judgment to be entered to any party absolutely.....	15
127. Where Judge directs judgment to be entered subject to leave to move.	16
128. Judge at trial may refer cause.....	16
129. Printed copies of pleadings to be furnished for use of Judge.....	16
130. Copy of Judge's notes to be made.....	16
131. Evidence generally.....	16