

pose of erecting, maintaining or repairing any of its works, without the previous assent of the owner or occupant of the property for the time being;

Temporary removal of wires and poles.

(j.) If for the purpose of removing buildings or in the exercise of the public right of travel, it is necessary that the said wires or poles be temporarily removed, by cutting or otherwise, the Company shall, at its own expense, upon reasonable notice in writing from any person requiring it, remove such wires or poles; and in default of the Company so doing, such person may remove such wires and poles at the expense of the Company. The said notice may be given either at any office of the Company, or to any agent or officer of the Company in the municipality wherein are the wires or poles required to be removed, or in the case of a municipality wherein there is no such agent or officer, then either at the head office, or to any agent or officer of the Company in the nearest or any adjoining municipality to that in which such wires or poles are;

Notice to Company.

Liability for damage,

(k.) The Company shall be responsible for all damage which it causes in carrying out or maintaining any of its said works.

Tapping wires.

11. If any person place, or cause to be placed, any wire, pipe or other means of communication to communicate with any wire, pipe or conductor belonging to the Company, or in any other way make use of the electric current, gas or other production of the Company, without the latter's consent, he shall forfeit and pay to the Company the sum of one hundred dollars, and also a further sum of four dollars for each day during which such communication exists.

Penalty.

Damages to apparatus.

12. If any person wilfully or maliciously damages or causes to be damaged, or puts out of order, any wire, pipe, engine or other appliance used by the Company for the supplying of electricity, gas, heat or power, or other manufacture of the Company, or any materials connected therewith, or wilfully impairs or knowingly suffers the same to be altered or impaired, he shall incur a penalty to be forfeited to the Company of not less than four dollars or more than one hundred dollars, and shall pay all charges necessary for the repairing or replacing of the said wires, pipes, engines and appliances, and double the value of any surplus electricity, gas or other manufacture which has been so wrongfully consumed.

Penalty.

Power to cut off supply of gas, etc.

13. If any person whom the Company supplies with electricity, gas or other manufacture, neglects to pay the rent, rate or charge due the Company at the times fixed for the payment thereof, the Company, on giving forty-eight hours' previous notice, may stop the supply of electricity, gas, heat, power or other manufacture from entering the premises of the person so in arrears, by cutting off the supply thereof, and by any such other means as the Company sees fit; and the Company may recover the rent or charge due up to such time, together with the expense of cutting off the electricity, gas or other manufacture, in any competent court, notwithstanding any contract to furnish for a longer time.

Apparatus
