Reebok

V-Reds prepare for post-season "Battle of the Hill" UNB meets STU in MacAdam Final

THE REPUSEURCEAN

It's often referred to as the best cross campus rivalry in Canadian Collegiate

And for the first time since 1995, the UNB Varsity Reds will meet the St. Thomas Tommies in the playoffs. It promises to be a spirited "Battle of the Hill" that will lead to the AUAA final for one of the teams. The winner of the series will represent the MacAdam Division and meet the winner of the Kelly Division, and then a potential chance to represent the Atlantic conference at the CIAU Final Four Championship in Toronto on March 14, 15, and 16. Division final by taking similar routes. The Varsity Reds beat the Université de Moncton Blue Eagles 7-1 in Game games straight. on Saturday night, winning their series first period.

UNB's playoff hopes diminish as...

B-Ball Reds lose 2 to UCCB

Talk about bad breaks.

If the ball bounces had gone UNB's way, the men's basketball team would have clinched a playoff berth. However, last weekend just wasn't meant throughout the first half, but never by more than 10 points. The half-time score was 52-46 in favor of the Ca-

U de M may have shut the door this time but couldn't keep the door shut

JUD DELONG PHOTO

1 in Moncton and again this past Saturday night, 7-1 at the Aitken Centre, On Saturday night, the Varsity Reds taking the best of three series in two dominated the Blue Eagles on the scoresheet, however, the game was ac-St. Thomas beat the UPEI Panthers
7-4 in Game 1 on the Island, and then 7-3 at the Lady Beaverbrook Rink, also T-3 at the Lady Beaverbrook Rink, also
T-3 at the Lady Beaverbrook Rink, also
T-3 at the Lady Beaverbrook Rink, also
T-4 in Game 1 on the Island, and then clinging to a 2-1 lead heading into the third, after the teams played a scoreless
T-4 in Game 1 on the Island, and then clinging to a 2-1 lead heading into the third, after the teams played a scoreless
T-4 in Game 1 on the Island, and then clinging to a 2-1 lead heading into the third, after the teams played a scoreless

THE BRUNSWICKAN

But UNB exploded in the third period, scoring five unanswered goals for Despite the lopsided win, UNB's head coach, Mike Kelly, wasn't exactly happy

However, the Capers controlled the extra period, and finished off the points in a losing effort. The Reds were helped with David Low tossing in 24, and Simon MacDougall add-

On Sunday, the Reds lost another heartbreaker. This time UNB led throughout the game before somehow losing 64-62 in the end. The V-

Reds led by as much as 14 in the first half, taking a 42-36 lead into the McNeilly led all scores with 30

Reds 102-97.

UNB to host AU's next weekend Reds defeat Capers in a winning streak

Reds looking to playoffs.

The UNB Varsity Reds women's basketball team defeated the UCCB Capers this weekend in two games. Both were important to the Reds, contributing points to their rank and giving them the opportunity to reach

The Reds met with the Capers on Saturday and played a winning game. UNB lead by 23 points at the half and continued to hold their lead position throughout the second, defeating UCCB 88-53. Charlene Woolaver was named player of the game, while Donna Retson, Heather Grasman and Bridget Gamble each tossed in over 20 points a piece to help the team

The teams faced off again on Sunday, UNB carrying their winning streak on from Saturday. The Reds took the lead from the start, never loosing their po-sition and ending the first half 34-26. UNB came into the second ready to win, increasing their lead and holding it until the end, defeating UCCB 80-

The player of the game was once again Charlene Woolaver, who scored 29 points for the team. Bonny Munn also contributed 32 points for the team. Reds' Shelly Ryan was absent from both games, due to a severe flu. At press time it was confirmed whether she would play this weekend against UPEI.

UNB assistant coach Dick Slipp comritory. The plan was to get the ball to McNeilly, however were unable to do so because of tenacious defense by UCCB. Reds' Low lost control of the ball at the top of the key. And a UCCB player took advantage by stealing it and taking it in for the uncontested lay-up. Now there was only 4.2 seconds left, which proved to be not enough as the Reds were unable to get a shot away.

McNeilly led the Reds attack once nore, this time pouring in 25 points. MacDougall added 13 to help the

As McNeilly stated after the game, much more competetive game today (referring to on the players performance saying, " We knew they play harder and they The Reds meet UPEI this weekend in their final home game.

> ing off a winning streak, having won 8 of their last 10

UPEI is com-

The AUAA playoffs are the follow-the LB Gym, and UNB prepares for on UPEI. the Reds "missed a lot of easy bas- I will take that responsibility on my kets, a lot of lay-ups, and you can't do that and expect to win.' With these pair of losses, the fate of the V-Reds lies not with them, but with the Capers. It's out of their hands. With only 2 games left in the season, the Reds need a pair of wins this weekend against UPEI Panthers. And the Capers must lose both of their remaining games. Any compination of a Reds loss or a Capers win eliminates UNB from the post-season.

A disappointed Reds' head coach Clint Hamilton told reporters after the game, "I feel that as a coach, I games are to be played at the LB didn't prepare my team well enough.

the game should be "playoff style bas-ketball." the challenge that it will present.

The Reds will hit the floor at 6:30pm on Saturday and again on Sunday at 1pm at the LB Gym to take shoulders."

As he explained, "We had some bad breakdowns in key situation, and I feel that's the coach's job." The Reds will be playing in their final game of the season and will be fighting for the final playoff berth for the AUAA Championships to be held in March in the Halifax Metro Centre. UNB will play their final regular season games this weekend with rin off times at 8:30pm on Saturday night, and 3pm on Sunday. Both

0,.99

The teams traded leads in the seclocker room at half-time. ond half with UNB finding them-The teams staved close throughout the second half before the "good selves down by 3 with only 5 seconds left. Gordon McNeilly shot a luck" Capers pulled through. The 3-pointer to send the game to over- game was tied with 10 seconds left and UNB had the ball in Caper ter-SMT and Acadian Lines have a DEAL for you!!!! Student Travel Pack Buy 4 Tickets, Get 2 FREE!! Now Good For Travel In New Brunswick, PEI and Nova Scotia! For More Information, Call

IN TODAY'S ENVIRONMENT YOU NEED MORE THAN A DEGREE!

EXPERIENCE NETWORK INTERNATIONAL

YOU NEED. TEAM WORK PROACTIVE ATTITUDE EXPOSURE LEADERSHIP

1-800-567-5151

AIESEC is the place to get all this and more! Join our team at UNB, located in Room 30 of the SUB. Meetings: Fridays 11:30 - 12:30 Room 203

COME SEE THE OPPORTUNITIES AWAITING YOU!!! ATESEC ###

2 Footlong Steak Subs 16" Pizza - 3 toppings

> 16" Pizza - 3 toppings 9" Garlic Fingers Donair Sauce

Order of Wings

1997 AUAA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

MARCH 7TH - 9TH, 1997 LB GYM UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK, FREDERICTON

SCHEDULE

Friday, March 7 Saturday, March 8

Sunday, March 9

Quarterfinal 1 6:30pm Quarterfinal 2 8:30pm 6:30pm Semifinal 1 Semifinal 2 8:30pm Final 2:00pm

ADMISSION Session Tournament Adults $12 $6 Seniors/Students $7 $3 UNB/STU Students $5 $2 Children (12 + under) $5 $2 Family Pass $30 N/A N/A Team Pass (max 15 players) $25

For your convenience, passes may be purchased in advance at UNB varsity games - March 1 & 2 vs UPEI Panthers. Varsity Games Admission and Complin Passes not valid for this event. Ticket office open one hour before each

