

prove
e able
of tar-
Man-

almost
they ending
e tar-
m the
round
catch
o five

imber
ng is
eated
btain
ormer
s, or their ld be
valuc,
asites
wfly,
of the
study
their
ested
uable
Agri-
ained
s had
out-
on to e new
ently
ficial.
not a
souri,
de a
apple
st of
asite
art of
plete
a one
these
very
more
tions
o' the
urrent

PLATE IV.

FIG. 26—Larches at Tharlmere, England, defoliated by N. cecidivora. The trees have been tar-banded. Note the spruce and pine on the left of the photograph not attacked by the sawfly.