

From the latest photograph of Principal W. H. Shaw, of the Central Business College of Toronto, who now has more than 500 young men and women under his care in training for business pursuits. The catalogue of this great School, mailed free on request, is an interesting production.

Please mention "The Teachers Monthly" when writing advertisers