

It was also moved, seconded, and after an animated discussion, agreed, that the Young People undertake some specific mission work for this year upon which we are just entering. Rev. John Pringle, Atlin, Klondyke district, was chosen as the missionary, and they aim at raising $1,000 for his support during the coming year. They further resolved to submit the question of continuing specific work each succeeding year, to the Societies, and decide at next annual convention.

At the evening session earnest, helpful addresses were delivered by Rev. J. H. Barnett, subject, "Missions," and Rev. W. J. Clark, subject, "'Reverence in the House of God': (1) 'In its Worship,' (2) 'In its Government.'"

A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Kirk Session and Choir for assistance rendered, and to the kind people of Dutton for their generous hospitality to delegates, and the Convention of '99 closed with the benediction.

Presbytery recognized the invalidity of the appeal, but deemed it well to appoint a Committee to confer with the appellant with a hope that the way might be made plain for the right settlement of all differences between the parties concerned.
