CAP. II.

An Act for the Amendment of the Law, and the better advancement of Justice.

(Passed the 8th day of March, A. D. 1849.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS there is no remedy provided by Law for injuries to the Real Estate of any person deceased, committed in his lifetime, nor for certain things done by a person deceased, in his lifetime to another, in respect of his property, Real or Personal; for remedy thereof,

Trespass, or Trespass on the Case may be maintained by Exrs. or Adms. for injury to Real Estate of deceased persons.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That an Action of Trespass, or Trespass on the Case, as the case may be, may be maintained by the Executors or Administrators of any person deceased, for any injury to the Real Estate of such person, committed in his lifetime, for which an action might have been maintained by such person, so as such injury shall have been committed within six months before the death of such deceased person: And provided such action shall be brought within
