

Busy Trenton News

(From our Own Correspondent)

Trenton, May 29, 1918. Miss Beatrice Morris of Consocon, was in town yesterday visiting. Many Trentonians found their way to the Griffin Opera House last evening to the musical comedy, "The Girl from Kokomo."

Mr. Daniel Coogan was a visitor to Belleville yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Ryan have returned from Cleveland, Ohio where the former went on a business trip.

Trenton, May 27, 1918. Dr. F. M. G. Johnson, Chemical Advisor to the British Chemical Co. Plant returned to town the other day from his visit east.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Deviney were visitors to Stirling yesterday by auto. Miss Marie Harrison of Picton College, was a visitor here over the week-end.

Grateful Letters From Soldiers

Mrs. W. J. Brown, 32 Octavia St., has received the following very grateful letter of acknowledgement in response to the box of gifts sent overseas by the C.W.C.A., 62 West Bridge Street:

to the members of the church choir. The weather here is fine at present. I guess there is not much more at present so will close with best respects. I remain,

Sincerely yours, Corp. Arthur W. Hood No. 67393, 25th Battalion, 2nd C.E.F., France.

At Guelph the Chinese proprietor of a cafe was fined $100 and costs for selling pork to a customer on a day on which meat is prohibited by law.

Open Trent Canal Monday

MINISTER OF RAILWAYS AND CANALS TO PERFORM CEREMONY

Work Has Cost $16,500,000

The Trent Canal, which has now been completed from Lake Ontario to Lake Simcoe, will be formally opened for traffic by Hon. J. D. Reid, Minister of Railways and Canals, on Monday, June 3rd, the King's Birthday. The occasion will not be marked by any elaborate ceremonies in view of the state of war.

Stirling Soldier Not a Deserter

The following letter was received by Mr. Thomas Matthews yesterday morning:

Kingston, May 20, 1918. Mr. Thomas Matthews, Reeve of Stirling. Dear Sir, It was a source of great annoyance and regret to learn that one of the best men in my Company had been reported as a deserter.

Picked Up Around Town

The barn of John Bush on the 4th Concession of Sidney, was struck by lightning in Tuesday night's storm.

IVANHOE

The recent rain has improved the meadows greatly. Spring grain is looking fine and most of the farmers will complete their planting this week.

Mabel Cooch, spent over Sunday at her home here. Mrs. Fee of Lindsay is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) A. B. Frederick.

The pupils and teacher of Ivanhoe school are preparing for a field day on June 3rd.

On Tuesday evening a number of friends and neighbors assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Martin to spend a social evening prior to their son's departure to Kingston.

The obsequies of the late Mrs. Hannah Josie took place on Thursday afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Symons, Sinclair street, Veterans' Arkhadeon Banish officiating.

Decorate for June 3rd. The Great War Veterans Celebration committee are anxious to have the city in gala attire.

Police Circles are Quiet Today

The condition of Mr. Jesse Carr, the veteran mail carrier of Frankford, who met with a serious accident last Saturday is progressing favorably in spite of the old gentleman's advanced years.

The police picked up a young man on the street this morning, who had been sent to the Kingston asylum a few weeks ago as insane.

An aviator last evening about 7.30 performed a number of thrilling stunts over the city, bringing his machine low at the fairgrounds and in other sections.

The court of revision completed its duties last night. The appeals against assessment were less than in former years and any reductions made were fairly small.

At the annual meeting held at Gananoque of the Kingston Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society, which closed yesterday.

Mr. Walter H. Patterson, contractor of this city, has been awarded the contract for erecting three buildings for the Canadian Pacific Railway, one at Trenton, one at Cherrywood and one at Uthoff.

This morning a dog fight between a bull and a collie drew a crowd on Front street near the foot-bridge gangway.

Last evening in front of the post office an accident occurred. Master Eddie Lee, son of Mr. P. J. Lee, was riding a bicycle and met some cherryleaf cars going east along Bridge.

The prizes won by the Belleville Rifle Club members at the winter competitions will be presented this evening in the rooms of the Great War Veterans' Association, Corby building.

Cadet S. Rosenthal, who was injured in a crash near Camp Rathbun yesterday when Lieut. T. H. Heintzman of Toronto lost his life succumbed to his injuries a few hours later.

W. J. Elliott, J. E. Ferguson and S. M. Douglas were nominated at Ingersoll to fill a vacancy in the town council.

Joseph Garbutt, 73, was instantly killed at the Claremont station when he walked from behind a car in front of the Montreal-Toronto flyer.

Rhea Dupuis, 18, of Ottawa, was arrested at a Montreal hotel, where she had been stopping for some time under the name of Miss Bourque.

Strikers and Fraser, Bruce & Co., shipbuilders at Cote St. Paul, Montreal, have temporarily adjusted their differences, and the men returned to work.

Police circles are quiet today. No court was held this morning.

The condition of Mr. Jesse Carr, the veteran mail carrier of Frankford, who met with a serious accident last Saturday is progressing favorably in spite of the old gentleman's advanced years.

The police picked up a young man on the street this morning, who had been sent to the Kingston asylum a few weeks ago as insane.

An aviator last evening about 7.30 performed a number of thrilling stunts over the city, bringing his machine low at the fairgrounds and in other sections.

The obsequies of the late Mrs. Hannah Josie took place on Thursday afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Symons, Sinclair street, Veterans' Arkhadeon Banish officiating.

Decorate for June 3rd. The Great War Veterans Celebration committee are anxious to have the city in gala attire.

The court of revision completed its duties last night. The appeals against assessment were less than in former years and any reductions made were fairly small.

At the annual meeting held at Gananoque of the Kingston Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society, which closed yesterday.

Mr. Walter H. Patterson, contractor of this city, has been awarded the contract for erecting three buildings for the Canadian Pacific Railway, one at Trenton, one at Cherrywood and one at Uthoff.

This morning a dog fight between a bull and a collie drew a crowd on Front street near the foot-bridge gangway.

Last evening in front of the post office an accident occurred. Master Eddie Lee, son of Mr. P. J. Lee, was riding a bicycle and met some cherryleaf cars going east along Bridge.

The prizes won by the Belleville Rifle Club members at the winter competitions will be presented this evening in the rooms of the Great War Veterans' Association, Corby building.

Cadet S. Rosenthal, who was injured in a crash near Camp Rathbun yesterday when Lieut. T. H. Heintzman of Toronto lost his life succumbed to his injuries a few hours later.

W. J. Elliott, J. E. Ferguson and S. M. Douglas were nominated at Ingersoll to fill a vacancy in the town council.

Joseph Garbutt, 73, was instantly killed at the Claremont station when he walked from behind a car in front of the Montreal-Toronto flyer.

Rhea Dupuis, 18, of Ottawa, was arrested at a Montreal hotel, where she had been stopping for some time under the name of Miss Bourque.

Strikers and Fraser, Bruce & Co., shipbuilders at Cote St. Paul, Montreal, have temporarily adjusted their differences, and the men returned to work.

Homeseekers' Bureau. We have all kinds of Properties in every part of City and Country. Good bargains for investment or speculation. Let us show you some nice homes at right prices. Whelan and Yeomans REAL ESTATE & INSURANCE.

PANAMA And OUTING HATS. A cordial invitation is extended to you to inspect our splendid showing of Panama Hats. Joseph T. Delaney 17 Campbell St. Phone 797.

The Standard Bank of Canada. SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES are now installed at this branch for the custody of valuable papers, etc., affording safety and privacy.

HOGS BRING BIG PROFITS. The urgent and imperative demand for hogs has opened up a ready and profitable market for every farmer who will raise them.

Do Your Banking by R. F. D. Make the mail your messenger; and save yourself the long rides to town. Deposits may be made—butter and cheese cheques cashed—money withdrawn—just as easily and safely by mail as in person.

THE MERCHANTS BANK. Head Office: Montreal, OF CANADA. Established 1864. BELLEVILLE BRANCH, N. D. McFADYEN, Manager.