There's a noise in the second division of the American League that cause C. Mack and H. Jennings t sounds like a pennant comeback. It's blockade the track at the rear of their but yesterday, and was pounded for Waterbass and Luke McLuke, and bein gmade by the Boston Red Sox winners of the American League flag in 1912, conquerors of the Giants in the world's series and the aggregation that cracked a year ago. abundance of racing material on hand McGraw and many National leaguers claimed the ub entry was the luckiest team that ever won a world's series, champs would be forgotten. In one respect McGraw was con rect. As for being lucky, that is another story. A Snodgrass muff does not occur very often, but a boot, a wild throw or a muff, these things are part of baseball.

The Boston Red Sox were put ou of the running early last summer. They quit the day Joe Wood was injured. How far could the New York Giants travel if Christy Mathewson Cook's Cotton Root Compound, should drop out for the est of the season? The same goes for the Athletics with Plank or Bender. There

It is quite early now-the one-third ole has not been passed-and the Red Sox are spurting at such a clip that one must give them a look-in when it comes to passing out chances for the 1914 American league pen-

The odds and the prediction spruce up a bit' right with Joe Wood. This brilliant curver has been useless to the Red Sox so far this season. But reports from the Carrigan camp are that Joe is recovering rapidly, and in another week or so he will be in ondition to go to the hill regularly. which means every fourth day, and may be a couple of times in between his regular performances. Can They Keep It Up.

If the Boston Red Sox can continue to hang up as they are to-day there s a very good chance of the 1913 world's champions turning this "come back." Smokey Joe can step in a haul the New Englanders to within hailling diistance of the real enemy the Athletics and mayhaps hurl th Sox across the line. Come-backs are not turned very of
