Victoria News.

Well, Mr. Editor, Christmas with all its good cheer and joy is over once more and we are enjoying the weather and good sleighing for the holidays.

We were pleased to see such a large crowd at the Xmas Tree held on the 21st inst., and owing to Miss Kelly's able manner in training the children, an excellent program was rendered by the pupils.

Mrs. Annan and Mr. and Mrs. Anger and family, of Smiths Falls, spent Christmas at the home of Mr. Wm. Rylo, Sr.

Mr. Fred Sanders is home from the shanty at Maynooth. He is looking hale and hearty. They say he is on his honeymoon but forgot to bring the bride along.

Our teacher, Miss Kelly, is spending the holidays at her home in Norwood.

A number of our young people attended the Xmas Tree at Rush Point on Thursday night of last week and report a very enjoyable time.

Well girls you won't get homesick this winter, as we see a new cutter flying around lately.

Miss Edna Sanders and sister Aggie of Wellington, are visiting friends in this neighborhood.

Quite a number from here attended the Tea Meeting at Marston on Xmas night and all report a good time.

Wedding Bells.

MENZIE—LOBB

A very pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized at Beatty Methodist church last Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 15th, when Mr. Wm. H. Menzie was married to Miss Laura Estelle May Lobb.

At 2.30 the bridal party took their places at the altar to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Lottie M. Lobb, sister of the bride.

The bride was charmingly attired in white satin de chene and wore a veil which was delicately arranged with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of the same flowers. The bridesmaid, Miss S. Luella Lobb, sister of the bride, was prettily dressed in white. Mr. Arthur L. Sumner acted as groomsmen, and Rev. D. B. Kennedy pronounced the ceremony in a beautiful and touching manner.

At the close of the ceremony, congratulations were extended, after which an elegant supper was served at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Thos. E. Lobb.

The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond ring and a gold chain, to the bridesmaid, a gold brooch; the organist was the recipient of a silver ring, and the groomsmen of a pair of gold cuff links.

The bride's travelling suit was Scotch toque cloth, and she wore a cream satin hat, trimmed with chiffon and plumes.

The happy couple left amid showers of rice, on the evening train for Havelock, Ont., the former home of the groom.

The congratulations on the happy event are numerous, and the "Moon" is pleased to add its hearty good wishes to those being so freely extended. —Melford Moon, Sask.

Obituary.

MRS. GEO. RODGERS.

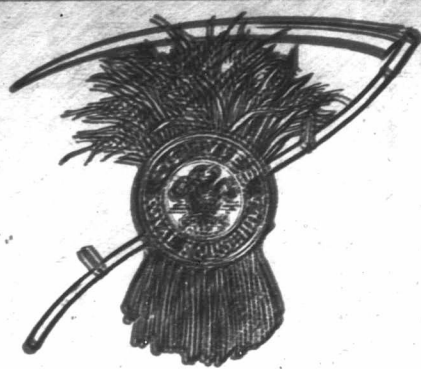

We are again reminded of the uncertainty of life, even in the prime of manhood or womanhood, by the death of Catherine, wife of Mr. Geo. Rodgers of the 12th concession of Dundas, whose death, following a short illness due to an attack of typhoid fever, occurred on Friday last. Deceased was in the 56th year of her age, and was held in high esteem by the people in the neighborhood in which she lived, being every where spoken of as a kind, pleasant and agreeable neighbor. In case of sickness in the community, she was always a ready and willing helper and her death has cast a gloom over the neighborhood. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband in his hour of sorrow and loneliness. The late Mrs. Rodgers was a daughter of Mr. E. Grove of Stony Lake.

The funeral, which took place on Sunday afternoon at the Maple Grove cemetery, Havelock, was largely attended. Rev. W. B. Tucker, pastor of Norwood Methodist church, officiated. The bearers were Messrs. Robert and Thos. McDonald, David Buchanan, Thomas McNeely and Matthew and Harry Elmer. —Norwood Register

Mr. J. T. Clark in England to cover British Elections for Toronto Daily Star

Another instance of aggressive enterprise on the part of the "Toronto Daily Star" is furnished by its action in sending to England a member of its staff, Mr. Joseph T. Clark, to remain there until the close of the British Election Campaign.

Since the 14th of December Mr. Clark's cables appearing in the "Star" have been commanding attention and favorable comment. Never before has a Canadian paper afforded its readers the news of following day by day a British Election Campaign so intelligently.

Cabling is an expensive operation, but the "Star" does not spare expense when there is an opportunity to serve its readers.

Mr. Clark, who is known throughout Canada as a writer of unusually graceful English, with an original point of view that gives distinctiveness to everything he writes, is describing the campaign at greater length for "Star" readers in frequent letters which can be truthfully described as masterpieces.

The British Elections are being covered in the "Star" by no less than four distinct services, two of them exclusive to the "Star," as follows:

1. Mr. Clark's cables and letters (exclusive to the "Star").
2. A special cable service from a staff of permanent correspondents in Britain (exclusive to the "Star").
3. The Canadian Associated Press cables.
4. The Associated Press cables.

In no previous British Election has a Canadian paper made similar preparations for getting the news. It is another proof of the increasing closeness of Canada's relations to the Mother Land. But, also, not in our times have there been as great issues at stake. The budget, free trade, the future of the House of Lords, the British constitution itself, are in the melting pot, and who knows what will come out? For comparison one has to go back to the great reform of 1832, and one authority says it is the most momentous struggle since the Revolution of 1688.

The "Toronto Daily Star's" news columns will keep you fully posted as to the progress of the fight.
