

On The Side

Very touching—this weather. Had my ears touched the other day.

Wonder if Carrie Nation is any relation to that Caro-Nation in England.

Ever count the number of trains you were on—coming down the theatre stairs after the opera.

IN LOVE.

New York, Jan. 29. — Millionaire Edward A. Stevens does not disdain labor. He works side by side with mechanics of the W. D. Forbes Co. of No. 1300 Hudson street, Hoboken. He says he works for love of it.

SAD, SAD STORY.

An insurance agent, like a drunkard, is rather to be pitied than scolded at. Still both get into some very laughable positions. Well it happened only Tuesday. Now, you know how windy it was that day, that a young hustling and energetic agent was going his rounds in the Brooklyn division of this Maple City. He had just visited a house where he was badly thrown down and almost thrown out and was feeling struck him—"was a gust of wind by which his derby was carried into a neighboring field and on through a barbed wire fence into another yard. He scaled the first fence, only knocking the scab off his vaccinated arm, and finally capturing his hat or rather the rim of it, after tearing a three cornered bit in the bosom of his best Sunday pantaloons. "Who is he?" Well, that's our secret—but, anyway, he went his way lamenting that he had not a policy on his wearing apparel.

"SMART KID, THAT."

The Roosevelt children are never-failing objects of interest to those who have occasion to visit the White House. One evening recently at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt were discussing an old program which she had preserved and both referred to the entertainment, saying how much they had enjoyed it at the time. The young child listened very closely and at length burst forth in genuine grief and disappointment.

"Why didn't you take me?"

"Fush, my dear," said the mother.

"That was before your mother and I were married."

They thought no more of the incident. A few days later the tot was told some wildly improbable tale to the effect that Mr. Roosevelt, who overheard the weird narrative, demanded sharply:

"When did you do all that?"

"Oh, that was before you and mamma were married," replied the tot with the utmost gravity.

HORSELESS HOUSE.

The young woman who entered the grocery store the other day had but recently entered on the sea of matrimony and, like all sensible brides, had begun housekeeping at once. But she did not know a little bit about either housekeeping or shopping, and she was giving her first order. It was a crusher, but the grocer was a clever man and was used to all kinds of orders and could interpret them easily. "I want two pounds of paralyzed sugar," she began with a business-like air.

"Yes'm. Anything else?"

"Two tins of condensed milk."

"Yes'm."

He set down pulverized sugar and condensed milk.

"Anything more, ma'am?"

"A bag of fresh salt. Be sure it is fresh."

"Yes'm. What next?"

"A pound of desiccated codfish."

He wrote glibly, "desiccated cod."

"Nothing more, ma'am? We have some very nice hominid just in."

"No," she said. "It would be of no use to us; we don't keep a horse."

Then the grocer set down and fanned himself with a patent washboard, although the temperature was nearly freezing.

A WOMAN'S THROAT

Is her fortune if she chances to be a Patti or Albeni, and that fortune is guarded day and night with the greatest care. Nothing frightens a singer so much as a cough.

Every woman ought to be afraid of a cough. It is nature's danger signal. Who does not know of some sweet woman-voice silenced forever by disease which began with a slight cough.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will ensure a permanent cure of the most obstinate and lingering coughs. Even when the lungs are involved and there are hemorrhages and emaciation, "Golden Medical Discovery" is generally effective in restoring the diseased organs to sound health and strength. There is no alcohol in the "Discovery" and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

"I am feeling quite well," writes Miss Dorcas Lewis, of No. 1124 1/2 Street, Washington, D. C., "and I owe it all to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I had been quite a sufferer for a long time, and after reading Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser thought I would try his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I had not been sleeping well for a long time. Took quite a spoonful of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and slept nearly all night without coughing, so I continued taking it. I had been a great sufferer for more than ten years. I tried lots of different medicines and different doctors, but did not feel much better. I coughed until I commenced getting blood, but now I feel much stronger and am entirely well."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
