

Oh, Foolish Heart!

Oh, foolish heart, why feel in pain a pleasure? ... Why seek the cruel thorn? ...

Gall

WHEREIN IS SHOWN THAT GALL HAS ITS USES AS WELL AS AUBURN AND THAT THE MAN THAT HAS NONE IN HIS ONE TO BE FITTED AFTER ALL.

I saw a joke in a college paper once, and I jotted it down. It's not often that we do see jokes in college papers, and when we do we should appreciate them.

"Cesar says, in his 'Commentary de Bello Gallico,' that all Gaul is divided into three parts; but it seems to us that a certain Young (?) man of this place has the whole three of them."

How is that? I call that a pretty good joke. Of course, I may not have it exactly as it was in that paper, but you'll all readily perceive what it's intended for.

This all goes to show that gall is dangerous; that it's not to be trifled with. History is full of such cases; but these are extreme cases.

How different men and women indulge themselves in what is called a resting spell. "I guess I'll sit down and read these stockings and rest awhile," says the wife, but her husband throws himself upon the lounge or sofa back in his arm chair.

"In peace there's nothing so becomes a man as modest stillness and humility; but when the blast of war blows in our ears, then imitate the action of the tiger, Stiffen up the sinews," etc.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers there is no mistake about it. It cures DYSENTERY and Diarrhoea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Stomach, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething, is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price, twenty five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

CATARH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS, HAY FEVER. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that some diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and catarrhal tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient and in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (white) this remedy is specific. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 103 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American.

Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should carefully read the above.
