Next meeting in Temperance Hall Saturday, July 4th, at 3:30 P. M.

The meetings are always open to any who wish to become members.

Gospel Temperance meetings, conducted by members of the W. C. T. U., are held every Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, in the vestry of the Methodist church. All are welcome.

World's Council of Women.

The Halifax Herald speaking of the World's Council of Temperance Women now meeting in London says:—

This is a convention whose delegates will come from every civilized spot in globe where Christianity has a foothold.

A congress of women who have attained distinction as orators, authors, journalists, church workers, missionaries, temperance advocates, suffrage leaders, moralists, reformers and philanthropists.

It is an event which marks an epoch in the history of humanity, an event which shows that human society is beginning to show in new and nobler channels.

It is an apt commentary upon the extent to which science has reduced the limitations of time and space, and condensed the great globe into territory practically as small as a petty kingdom in the middle ages.

The idea first had its inception in the Chicago W. C. T. U., when Francis Elizabeth Willard and Mrs Louise S. Bonds first started the temperance crusade in 1874.

Miss Willard's far-reaching brain took in the full scope of the work, and she realized that in years to come a world's congress was bound to be called.

She helped to organize the many branches in this country, and headquarters were soon established in New York.

The work prospered and grew from day to day. The national campaign was instituted, in which Miss Willard and her lieutenants visited every state and territory.

At the national convention in Detroit in October, 1883, the members had a hearty celebration over the report that the W. C. T. U. was thoroughly organized in every state and territory of the Union.

BRITISH WOMEN.

The British Women's Temperance Association was formed in 1876 upon the model of our W. C. T. U. The many temperance societies of Great Britain were organized and conducted upon old-fashioned methods.

Since 1890 the leader of the organization has been that wonderful genius Lady Isabel Somerset, who is also the first vice-president at large of the World's W. C. T. U. The progress of the order in other lands is due to the efforts of the missionaries who have gone out from both England and America.

In London every preparation has been made to receive and entertain the visiting delegates from America and elsewhere. There are committees of all sorts and kinds. One committee takes charge of a visitor (if so desired), and after conducting her to every meeting and place of interest, sees her on board the steamer, and delivers her safely in New York three or four weeks from the beginning of the journey.

Sunday, June 16, will be the great event of the convention.

In the morning the delegates will attend whatever churches they wish, but in the afternoon and evening they will hold religious exercises under their own auspices in more than two hundred places of worship. Two hundred have been definitely engaged and a hundred others are held in readiness in case the demand requires a larger number.

The largest meeting will be held in the vast building, the City Temple, on Holborn viaduct. It has a seating capacity of 5000 and has been made popular by its pastor, the Rev. Mr. Parker. Among the more distinguished speakers are to be Miss Willard, Mrs. Bonds, Mrs. Yates, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Tennant, Mrs. Ackerman, Miss Archibald, Lady Somerset, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Baker, Miss Kearney, Mrs. Burt, Mrs. Brown, and Miss Price Hughes. The musical exercises will be under the general supervision of Miss Anna Gordon, a musician and poet of talent and the author of the "White Ribbon Hymn."

On Monday, June 17, there will be a meeting of the British Association in the City Temple, at which the leading English women orators will appear at the various sessions. They are thirty in number and are said to be very clever speakers. One of their ablest, Lady Somerset, has been in this country on many occasions, and is a very accomplished orator.

Tuesday evening, June 18, there will be a special musical meeting at Queen's Hall, in which the great feature will be a vast choir of white-ribboners. They number 400, and are nearly all young and fine looking women. Their white ribbon uniform consists of pale blue
