

Local News and Personal Items

The Observer asks every reader to help make this page interesting by contributing any local news or personal item they may know about. The editor must depend on the reader to supply news for this page. Don't hesitate to send personal news concerning yourself and your family. Don't blame the editor if what you expect to see is not here. You have not yourself taken the pains to see that the editor was informed of the item. Anything in the nature of advertising appearing in these columns must be paid for at the rate of 5 cents a line. This applies to Cards of Thanks, Announcements of Meetings or Societies, For Sale, Wanted, Lost, Found, etc. Charged items will be 10 cents a line. Better send the money with the item, counting six words as a line. No advt. less than 25¢ a week.

Don't neglect to vote on October 10. Rev. J. B. Daggett was in town on Wednesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Judson Foster, Sept. 19, a son.

Rev. E. W. Kenyon was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Sippell on Wednesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McDonald, Stokney, a daughter on Sept. 20.

Bert Adams of Fredericton was a guest of his brother, J. B. Adams, this week.

H. H. Hatfield was in New York City on business last week, arriving home on Monday.

Mrs. Sophia Shaw and Miss Bachelor of Coraway, N. H., are visiting at the home of J. C. Day. Mrs. Shaw is a sister to Mr. Day.

Harold Evans of Fredericton has accepted a position with Estey & Curtis Co. Ltd., as dispensing chemist. Mr. and Mrs. Evans arrived in town on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rowe Shaw of Derby, Me., have been spending a fortnight with his brother, Harry Shaw, at Middle Simonds, and with his aunt, Mrs. Frank Hagerman.

There are a number of new interesting ads in this issue, noticeable among them being that of the Maritime United Farmers Co-operative of Hartland. They are offering some really remarkable bargains.

Lost—Between Waterville and Good Corner by way of Deserville or at the Baptist church at Centerville, an Isabelle fox stole, consisting of two fox skins. Finder please notify Mrs. J. F. Anderson, Centerville.

O. Albert Plummer died on the 16th inst. at the home of his niece, Mrs. Alexander Bell, of Lakeville, after a lingering illness of cancer of the stomach in the 80th year of his age. The funeral service was held at the United Baptist church at Waterville on Sunday of this week.

A deal is about to be completed between Mrs. T. J. Hurley and G. E. Seely in which the latter may become the owner of the neat Hurley property on Main street. While Mr. Seely's family would be welcome to town all would regret if Mr. Hurley moved away, which is not, however, his present intention, although he may no longer be tied here by property holdings.

If you want prohibition mark X opposite the yes on the ballot.

Miss Margaret Werd of Highfield, Queens county, has been visiting her brother, I. A. J. Ward.

Miss Edna Hagerman was down from Grand Falls and spent the week-end at her home here.

Wanted—Dependable portable boiler of 50 or 60 horse power. Write or wire F. E. Sayre, Hartland.

Mrs. J. F. Murdoch arrived home Monday from a pleasant visit with her daughter, Miss Rita at St. John.

Mrs. Judson Carrie and daughter, Miss Sarah, have moved into the rent of Keith & Plummer's recently occupied by Rev. W. P. Haight.

The Star will offer two programs a week. The days are to be Saturdays and Tuesdays, starting Tuesday, Oct. 4. Everybody come and enjoy a good Goldwin picture.

The new sidewalk that is proving such a great delight to the people of the town is to be extended north to the foot of Maple Street and the work is now underway.

Rev. H. C. Mullen will speak at Carlisle on Sunday at 10:30 a.m.; at Waterville at 3 p.m.; and in the evening at Hartland. He will speak especially on the subject of the forthcoming referendum.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Phillips of Bristol motored to Hartland on Tuesday. Mr. Phillips has just returned from a buying trip to the big markets and his advertisement this week indicates the result of his trip.

On Tuesday evening Miss Edna Rideout entertained a party of her Hartland friends and others at her Somerville home in honor of her cousin, Miss Grace Rideout, who has been spending the summer with her and who expects to leave soon for her home at Calgary. Tomorrow Miss Rideout will herself leave for Presque Isle where she will enter the hospital for a course in nursing.

Charles M. Shaw has joined The Observer staff as general assistant to the editor and manager. Under the direction of the chief he will handle the business outside of the office and thus the management will be better able to render service to its patrons. Besides a writer with distinct and interesting style Mr. Shaw has already had newspaper training and his assistance will be invaluable.

Eggs have advanced. You can now get 35 cents at Carr's.

Mrs. Randolph Day has returned from a pleasant visit with friends at Fort Fairfield.

Princess May sweater yarn in six shades, for sale at Carr's at Harton's prices.

Mrs. Austin Ellis of Carlisle was operated on yesterday morning by Dr. Macintosh for tonsils and adenoids.

Colt for sale—Two year old bay gelding, should make 1300 draft horse. Will sell at a bargain. Apply to Horace Mean, Hartland.

Winston Nicholson, Simonds, operated on last Thursday for appendicitis, with abscess, by Dr. Belyea, is progressing favorably.

Mr. and Mrs. Ola Cogswell and family were week-end guests of E. H. White and Mrs. Annie Southan accompanied them home for a two weeks visit.

A Curtiss seaplane, flying high, wide and lively, passed over town at 4 p.m. on Tuesday. The big winged boat was piloted by Lieut. Fitzherbert and left Halifax at 8 a.m. for Ottawa.

Mrs. Ass Gordon of Ottawa, Ont., a vice-president of the Dominion W. C. T. U., will address the people of Hartland in the U. B. church on Monday evening, October 8 at 8 o'clock. Subject, "The coming referendum and the temperance question in general."

Among the signs generally accepted as indicating a mild winter are quite a profusion of ripe raspberries and strawberries found in September. Mrs. G. H. Campbell of Mount Pleasant has sent The Observer a box of September-ripened raspberries.

On Sept. 15, Andrew Howard, two months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Fowler, died at their home in Carlisle, after a lingering illness. Funeral services were held at Carlisle church, conducted by Rev. H. V. Bragdon, burial being made in Cloverdale cemetery.

Dolph E. Nixon has recently purchased a farm property of some 500 acres at Mauderville, Sunbury county. About 200 acres of this is improved, nearly 100 being intervale. Mr. Nixon expects to move with his family to his new home at an early date.

C. H. Fogg, editor of the Houlton Times, is representing Maine Press Association at the World's Press Congress at Honolulu. Fred H. Stevens of The Observer was named as a representative of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association but has been unable to make the long trip.

Local merchants are arousing to the possibilities of advertising by the printed word. This issue of The Observer is particularly interesting because of the many money-saving offers made by the merchants of the county. The fresh rush for trade is a hopeful sign, an encouraging indication of business revival. The county is still safe; everything is lovely and the goose comes high.

TOO GOOD TO KEEP

A woman writes from a nearby district: "I fell down stairs the other day, but escaped serious injury. If your correspondent from here sees fit to include that item in her next batch I respectfully request you not to publish it, as I do not care to have that word sent broadcast over the country."

WONDERFUL GAIN IN WEIGHT REPORTED

Young Woman Only Weighed 76 Pounds—Now Weighs Over 100 and is Gaining Every Day

"Before I began taking Tanlac I only weighed 76 pounds, I now weigh over 100 pounds and am gaining every day," said Miss LeRue Davis, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

"I bought my first bottle of Tanlac at Gas City, Ind., and it helped me so much that I continued using it. I have always been very delicate and suffered a great deal from stomach trouble and rheumatism. I rarely ever had any appetite and simply could not relish anything. I fell off until I only weighed 76 pounds and was so thin I looked perfectly awful. This is the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac."

"Oh, I feel so different now. Even my complexion is improved. My appetite is good and I can hardly get enough to eat. Tanlac is simply grand and I can truthfully say it is the only medicine that ever done me any good."

Tanlac is sold in Hartland by Estey & Curtis Co., and by leading druggists everywhere.

New lot of printed butter wraps just received by The Observer. For sale only to merchants and at current wholesale prices. Mail orders promptly filled.

Potatoes Wanted

We are open to buy Potatoes at any landing points along the C.P.R. and at Valley Railway Points

Write us, or call on either phone for PRICES

CARLETON PRODUCE CO.

Hay and Potatoes WANTED

Highest prices paid. Before selling call N. B. or Farmers' phone

Clyde E. Rideout

HARTLAND, N. B.

Our Millinery Display

Has attracted the attention of many ladies far and near and all seem delighted with what we are showing. Many orders have been placed and it is a good plan to select your Fall Hat while the assortment of shapes and trimmings are complete.

F. F. PLUMER

Groceries

Dry Goods

Furniture

RED ROSE TEA is good tea

Always Pure and Clean and Kept Good in the Sealed Package

Have YOU a Farm or Town Property to Sell?

The power of the Printed Word will dispose of it for you. Within a few weeks I have disposed of more than $10,000 worth of property by persistent use of this space. If you want to sell your farm or your house or lot, or if you want to buy or rent, come and see me about it. I am sure I can arrange a deal that will be entirely to your satisfaction. Communicate with me if you want to buy or sell anything at all.

C. MURRAY McLEOD

HARTLAND, N. B.