A TRANSER thunderstorm accompanied by rain passed over the Province Sunday afteronous and during the night. Reports of the damage are still coming in from various parts of the Island. The house of Mr. Daniel McLean, Cardigan Road, was atruck by lightning and hurped to the ground. Dr. McLallan's house at Souris was also struck and hadly damaged, a servant girl being rendered insensible fill the following morning. Mrs. Pyke's house at Souris was rendered insensible for a time. Two barns east of Souris were also struck, and she also was rendered insensible for a time. Two barns east of Souris were also struck and destroyed with sentents. At Kingston, Mr. Robt. Willisi bars with all its contents, consisting of twenty-five tone of hay and almost all his farm implements were destroyed. The spire of the Catholic Church at Hope River, was struck and we regret to hear that ten feet of the spire fell to the ground. A slight fire which followed was soon under control. The Hope River Hall was shattered hadly. The store of Hos. R. Reid, Alberton, was struck and damaged somewhat and two other barns at Ross's wasp wrocked badly. Mr. Thomas Wood's residence at Kelly's Cross was damaged and a calf belonging to Mr. J. H. Mann of the same place was killed, A barn helponging to Mr. John Stewart, Wiltshire Road, with all the bay it contained was also destroyed. For a time telephonic communication between this city and Summerside was interrupted.
