PAR BUILDING STUNKE, PHILDAY, OCE. 9, 1885.

Two Convictions and a Dismissal. From the Clinton New Era.

The Scott Act cases referred to last week came up for trial on Friday, at this town, before Messrs. M. Young and H. Steep, J. P's, and occupied the greater part of the day. 'Jas. Scott was the counsel for the prosecution, and Mr. Campion and C. A. Hartt, for the defence. The first case was that of Mr.

defence. The first case was that of Mr. Reynolds, of Hensal'.

John King, of Clinton, sworn, testified as follows:—I remember being in defendant's hotel in Hensall, on the ing the summer in Dakota, paid a ling the summer in Dakota, paid a line summer in Da the drinks. I asked for lager. I got intoxicating liquor. [In answer to Mr. Campion's question as to what he got, the witness would only give the answer, which he did.] The bartender told me it was lager beer that he gave me. The RELIGIOUS.—] it was lager beer that he gave me. The party whe was with me got drunk.—Did dist minister, Dungannon circuit, has not get this liquor for the purpose of laying information, but Mr. Paisley asked me and I told him the circumstances. I know the defendant; he keeps the hotel where I got the liquor.

Morrison asked for whiskey, and I be-

W. J. Paisley sworn, said he remem bered seeing King and Morrison drive into Clinton on the evening of September 23rd. Morrison was drunk, very drunk. I assisted in carrying him into the lobby of the town hall, where he slept nearly all night. Saw him again next cay, when he said to me "I was very crunk last night." I asked him where he great the ligant and he said he get the ligant and he get be got the liquor, and he said he got J. R. a bottle. Did not hear defendant refuse liquor; he might have done so.

Charge sustained, and same fine impos ed as in previous case. The third case was that against C. Spooner, Clinton, and the evidence as

E. S. Holmes said he was in defend-E. S. Holmes said he was in defendant's hotel on the 25th of September. George Calbeck, J. R. Holmes, James Ford, Wm. Rutledge and John Ford were with me. I had something to drink; asked for ginger wine and think I got what I asked for; think I could tell the taste of intoxicating; there might have been intoxicating liquor mixed with what I drank.

Nivon Sturdy said he was in the bar grossly they would offend his immensity.

Nixon Sturdy said he was in the bar of Spooner's hotel on the day in question; saw there Geo. Calbeck, Ed. Holmes, and others; was asked to drink and took some liquor; cannot say what it was that I drank; do not know if it

W. C. Morrison said he went into the bar of Schaffer's hotel, and called others in this vicinity. It is about 17 years up to drink; I drank what tasted like since Mrs. Yeo paid a visit to the scenes gin, and suppose it was intoxicating of her girlhood, and many are the liquor. and took some liquor; cannot say what it was that I drank; do not know if it was intoxicating liquor as I did; as far as I know the liquor as I did; as far as I know the liquor I drank was not intoxicating,

Geo. Calbeck said he was in Spooner's hotel the last day of the fair, with others named; I treated; one party asked for ginger wine, and I took the same. The liquor was in a tin measure; think it was ginger-wine I got to drink; think I know the taste of intoxicating liquor, think there was intoxicating liquor which I drank. James Miller approached me in reference to this case, and wanted me to keep out of the way, saying I would be remunerated for any time I might lose in going away. What I drank went by the name of ginger-wine before that was not like this.—Think this liquor was intoxicating.
