Demonstration For Unemployed. Nauaimo, B.C., March 26.—The unemphoped made a demonstration late last high at a meeting addressed by Premier McBride. One hundred men who had refused to sign the declaration that they had no money, as imposed by the government before relief work was given, assembled in front of the hall where Premier McBride was to speak and were harangued by Hawthornthwaite, Socialist leader. A resolution was passed calling on the government to dispense with sign in the declaration on the ground that it would disenfranchise men on returning to England. The deputation then stroys to, break into the hall, but were driven back by the police.
