Civic Government.

To-day we publish another letter from "Advance" on the matter of Civic Reform. The two letters of Mr. Gosling and the two letters of "Advance" favor civic government by commission. So far as we can see there is neither gain or loss in the name. Whether civic government be called a Council or a Commission seems to matter little. The name does not go to the root of the matter. The proposition appears to be to divide up civic government into departments, to obtain men of ability who have knowledge, skill and experience of a particular department to take charge of the department, to devote their undivided attention to it, and to pay them well for it. This brings us to the crux of the whole situation, the money question. Money would have to be found for salaries for such services, and also to carry out the work they would undertake. Without an additional revenue to that available for our present Council, the Commission would be almost as helpless as the councillors are. If anything worth while is to be accomplished, the Council or Commission must have more money. When the people are prepared to pay more in the way of civic taxes, it seems to us that many of the crying evils which everybody recognizes and complains about can be remedied. If more money cannot be raised, then comparatively little in the way of reforms can be carried out. It is of course pointed out that civic commissions have done much in some cities in the United States. It is as well known that City Councils have done equally good work, while retaining the older fashioned form of Councils in Great Britain. In both cases, the municipal governments have command of revenues ample to carry out street paving, sewerage, sanitation, housing, etc. Without those ample resources, they would be handicapped, and their field of labours as circumscribed, as those of the St. John's Municipal Council.

Personal.

Mrs. Cantwell, wife of Mr. Denis Cantwell, of Roxbury, Mass., arrived here by the Stephano, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jas. Brien. Both will remain on a holiday and are guests of Mrs. D. A. Flynn, Water Street West. Mrs. Brien is a sister-in-law of Donald Brien, the well-known theatrical star, and her husband has a prominent position as engineer in the American Navy. Mr. Brien is a graduate of the Christian Brothers here, and will be remembered by those who went to St. Patrick's Hall in the 70's and 80's.
Miss Kitty Cooper left by last evening's express for Boston on a visit to friends.
Rt. Rev. Monsignor Roache who was abroad for the benefit of his health returned to Newfoundland by the Bruce Saturday. He came by the express to Bay St. George where he will remain some time as the guest of His Lordship Bishop Power. Not alone the people of his own communion but the many friends of the Monsignor of other denominations will be glad to hear that his health is much improved.

SOFIA, To-day.
The prospects of a peaceful settlement has considerably improved, said Premier Danoff, who will go to St. Petersburg. It is rumored the Bulgarian Government is prepared to make some concessions to Servia. The danger continues, however, in the military situation. It is reported the Servians are concentrating bodies of troops on their advanced lines, and heavy outpost firing persists between Selectova and Istiba. Another engagement occurred between Greeks and Bulgarians at North Letera.

COZENZA ITALY, To-day.
Villagers in Southern Italy are still fearful of further earthquakes and are camping in the fields. Tents have been erected for their shelter and supplies have been forwarded by the authorities for the care of the injured at Rogiano and Gravina, where more than a score of persons were injured. Teachers in the public school showed great heroism during the most severe shock. Regardless of their own safety, they rescued all the children at a time when the roof of the school was in imminent danger of collapse. It fell with a crash after the children were taken out. The Doctors hospitals remained at their posts until their last patient was removed. In other villages nearby probably an additional score of persons were injured.

Montreal Toughs
"Egg" a Speaker.

Montreal, June 25.—A gang of toughs, numbering about twelve or fifteen, attacked John H. Roberts last night while he was speaking at an open air meeting in a vacant lot at the corner of Beaubien and Christophe Colombe Streets, and, while the Secretary of the Dominion Temperance Alliance finally reached home with no more serious injuries than a bruised hip, which had been struck by a flying stone, and a face badly smeared with eggs, Captain Harland, of the St. Hubert Street Police Station, who, with a couple of plain clothes men, came to his rescue, had a couple of teeth knocked out by a rock thrown by one of the rowdies, all of whom escaped in spite of a sharp pursuit by the police.

The Old Man's Dream.

Oh, for one hour of youthful joy!
Give back my twentieth spring!
I'd rather laugh a bright-hair'd boy
Than reign a grey-beard king!

"Off with the wrinkled spools of age,
Away with learning's crown!
Tear out life's wisdom-written page,
And dash its trophies down!"

"One moment let my life-blood stream
From boyhood's fount of flame!
Give me one giddy, reeling dream
Of life all love and fame!"

My listening angel heard the prayer,
And calmly smiling, said:
"If I but touch thy silver'd hair,
Thy hasty wish hath sped.

"But there is nothing in thy track
To bid thee fondly stay,
While the swift seasons hurry back
To find the wish'd-for day?"

"Ah, truest soul of womankind!
Without thee, what were life?
One bliss I cannot leave behind
I'll take—my—precious—wife!"

New Priest Ordained.

After last mass, yesterday, Rev. Thomas Nangle was ordained Priest by His Grace Archbishop Howley, in the imposing and solemn ceremony His Grace was assisted by Rev. Frs. McDermott, and Dr. Greene. After the preliminary functions His Grace addressed the Deacon in the impressive language of the Pontifical, and asked those present to join with him in imploring an increase of heavenly gifts on the newly ordained. After the Litany of the Saints was recited, His Grace blessed the ordained, then the imposition of hands took place and the singing of "Veni Creator Spiritus."
