At the House

Petitions were presented by Mr. Woodford from Upper Gullies on the subject of a public wharf and the reservation of some bog lands; by Mr. Jennings from Twillingate District on various public matters and from Exploits for a wharf; by Mr. Grimes from Brigus and Cupids on Temperance Reform; by Mr. Parsons from Harbour Grace on the same subject; by Mr. Higgins from Portugal Cove for a wharf; by Mr. Devoreaux from the Cape Shore (St. Brigid's) for railway extension; by Mr. Lloyd from Trinity for a road, and by Mr. Hickman from Grate's Cove for elective road boards.

The annual report of the Inspector of Weights and Measures was tabled by the Col. Secretary.

Mr. Hickman, on behalf of the Temperance Committee, asked the Prime Minister what action was being taken in connection with the Temperance petitions and was informed that the petitions were referred to the department of the Colonial Secretary and would be dealt with as early a date as possible.

The amendment of the Legislative Council respecting the Partridge Berries Bill was amended and the Governor in Council given the power to regulate the inspection of the berries instead of the Board of Trade.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on Ways and Means and additional supply resolutions were passed.

While in Committee Mr. Conker spoke on the awards given to Ryan Bros. for a portion of their land for the use of the Trinity railway line, pointing out that $20,000 was claimed but the arbitrators awarded $6,000. All the Ryan property in Trinity was bought for $5,000. Mr. Ryan had testified that among other damages sustained the railway interfered with his fish flake which was a great loss to him for fish drying purposes. He said he had used it to dry fish in some cases he had bought at $1.00 a gal. and sell at $6.50. He also referred to the fat fees got by those who arbitrated on the Ryan property. For instance Mr. P. Gibbs, who claimed $972 and got $762; Mr. Howley, $484. These and other expenses amounted to over $2,000 outside the award.

Mr. Lloyd in answer to an insinuation made by the Prime Minister that he (Mr. L.) while a member of the House under the Bond administration received 'fat' arbitration fees, said he wished to correct that impression and pointed out that the total amount he received during those four years was $232. He would not have taken notice of the Premier's statement of Wednesday, but that at Bonne Bay the Premier had stated that he (Mr. L.) had lived largely out of the late Government from whom he had fat fees and by the defeat of the party, he had been forced to work for a living.

The Prime Minister expressed regret for the statement and withdrew it, adding that he had made the statement originally under provocation from the strong hostility of the newspaper, edited by the member for Trinity.

Mr. Conker asked for the Report of the General Hospital enquiry and wanted to know why doctors not attached to the hospital could not follow their patients into the hospital as it was said the former did.

The Prime Minister in reply said he would have the report of the enquiry ready by to-day, that it was not true that there was discrimination amongst doctors regarding patients and that the Superintendent had been instructed to ascertain the scale of fees for well-to-do people, so that some scale would be enforced there.

The Public Service Bill passed the first reading; the amendment to the Sealing Bill from the Legislative Council was read a first time; the Municipal Bill passed without amendment, though Mr. Kent spoke against it; the Bills providing for the Governor's salary and for the inspection of pickled fish and the propagation of lobsters, passed the Committee stage, as did also the Train Ferry Service.

The United Towns and Conception Bay Electrical Companies Bill, Pilotage Bill and Revenue Bill passed the second reading and will go into Committee to-day.

Before an adjournment took place the Prime Minister intimated that he expected the House would close on Wednesday next.

If a Child Is Cross, Feverish And Sick.

Look Mother! If tongue is coated, cleanse little bowels with "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs." and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

"Brain Supplied Here"

Is it possible to provide the feeble-minded with more brain until they are normal? Will though the possibility may seem to the lay mind, it has, nevertheless, been seriously discussed at the Congress of Medicine in Paris. Furthermore, experiments in the science which is known as "organotherapy" have already been attempted.

This science really consists of treating diseased organs with medicines made from similar organs. It is pointed out by medical experts that the building up or doctoring of one organ with extracts from a similar one was practised 2,000 years ago. Although, of course, in a very crude fashion. It is on record that patients suffering from an affection of any particular part of their system were given the same part of an animal to eat, with the idea of repairing the local waste and damage. Thus consumptives were ordered to eat sheep lungs, while for dyspepsia was prescribed a diet in which the stomach of calves ranked as the chief item.

In an address on the subject delivered by a widely-known Roumanian doctor, Dr. Iscovesco, he remarked that special importance is attached to the treatment of anaemia by this method. "The old treatment with iron," he declares, "was never absolutely satisfactory, while if a liquid extract of blood corpuscles is administered to patients the corpuscles rapidly multiply and the anaemia disappears."

Probably the most startling suggestion made by the doctor was that of curing the feeble-minded by this method. This physician held that so long as organotherapy worked so well along other lines, it stood within reason that it would work well with the feeble-minded. By giving them a liquid extract of grey matter, an extract of the brain, it ought to increase their mental faculties, and in time give to them normal brain.

Of course, if this is possible, it will be one of the greatest wonders and most valuable things in modern or ancient medicine.

Headaches and Heart Trouble

Nervous Prostration of Three Years' Standing Cured a Year Ago by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Anyone who knows the discouragement and despair which accompanies the helplessness of nervous prostration will appreciate the gratitude felt by the writer of this letter.

Mrs. H. C. Jones, Scotch Lake, C. B., writes: "I suffered from nervous prostration for nearly three years. I had frequent headaches, had no appetite and was troubled with my heart. After consulting two doctors, without obtaining satisfactory results, I began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and was completely cured by this treatment. It is nearly a year since I was cured, and I want others to know of this splendid medicine. I now attend to my housework with pleasure and comfort, and am glad to have the opportunity of recommending Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

At least some benefit is bound to be derived from each dose of this great food cure, as day by day it forms new blood and builds up the system. 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers, or Edman, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

FRIDAY, March 6, 1914.

Remember, the cold weather is probably not all over yet, and you will still be liable to sore hands on sudden and extreme changes of weather. To prevent the trouble going very far keep a pot of Cream of Lilies on your dressing table. You will find that the redness, stiffness, soreness, and chapping will soon disappear, and your hands, face and lips soon return to their normal condition. Cream of Lilies sells for 25c. a pot.

Mazere's English Cure for catarrh has many stories of good work done to its credit, and many cases of cold in the head and catarrh have been cured by its use.

The Logging Bill.

The second reading of the Logging Bill was taken up in the Legislative Council yesterday. The Bill was unanimously referred to a Select Committee, consisting of President Harris, Hons. J. Harvey, M. P. Gibbs, W. C. Job, J. A. Robinson, P. T. McGrath and J. Murphy. We are informed that the object of the reference is to obtain evidence. It will be interesting to observe what report the Select Committee brings in this session.

Drowning at St. Bride's.

A sad drowning accident happened at St. Bride's on Monday. A fine young man was drowned. He was coming down St. Bride's River with a load of wood, the load upset and he got caught under it and the ice broke and he was drowned under the load of wood when found. He was a son of Frank Conway. His people are heart broken over it.

Fads and Fashions.

Have the new spring tailored coat and skirt made of the new diagonal duvety or the new corded duvety. A simple and becoming style is the peasant's smock. This fashion is featured on many of the smart gowns. The corduroy suit made Russian blouse style and trimmed with fur is eminently becoming to the slender figure.

The newest fur trimming is monkey fur. It makes charming revers to a coat, for it is long and silky.

Girdles are tied at the side or back, and when the long ends are omitted, a flat bow is used to clasp the girdle in the front or back.

A new blouse has made its appearance; it resembles a negligee. The length below the waist is used as a peplum and is worn outside the skirt. The new hand bags are made of very fine, soft leather, and are invariably stuffed into the metal frame. They resemble the medieval bags carried by our ancestors.

Occasionally a touch of brilliance is obtained through the intervention of a skillfully posed sash of rich patterned ribbon. This is charming with a dress of black satin.

A pretty idea to hold the pleated skirt in place so as to retain the silhouette is to wear a long loose sash that is draped from the front of the skirt toward the back and knotted near the bottom of the skirt.

Each month seems to bring a new taffeta, and there is a new crinkled crepe de chine in all the new shades, and there is a new crepon in a broad effect, which comes in many of the dearest shades.
