DANCING.

Now that Lent is nearly over and full swing again, perhaps a word or but to many, most boring amusement lots of people who want to dance but can but won't, these last being chiefly of the sterner, and of course, superior sex. There are also quite a number of people who think they can dance, and filled with their own conceit, inform their partners when they trip them up or walk on them, that they are used to dancing with people who know how to dance. It is very satisfactory to know, however, that this class of person is rapidly being exterminated and the only remaining specimens, male and female, one each of cours probably be presented to the museum where they will remain for the admiration of future generations. Dancing depends a great deal on music. If on haven't an ear for music you usually find your feet going wrong and. if they happen to be large, stepping a week, I cannot in future receive unall over your partner. Now some music is good and some is bad. From my personal experience I should say the dancing season will shortly be in that the worse the music is, the easier is it to dance to, and the band which two about that decidedly energetic makes the most row and creates the greatest amount of discord is generalmay not be out of place. There are ly considered the best one. If I so desired, I could go on for columns in can't, and a great many more who a discourse on dancing but as I am rather fagged ("'E's nevver enything else." litor Evening Telegram Dear Sir,-In connection with the estitution now prevailing in this city. I desire to say that since Xmas Eve I have been endeavouring to help out two families at Byrnes Cottage Ropewalk Range, one of whom a Clarke family. (Father, mother and three small children) is completely lestitute. The father, Azariah Clarke, ame to me last Sunday and informed me that the children were ill of whooping cough. On Monday morning on my way to the office I called on Mr. O'Dwyer, C.P.C., and told him of Clarke's predicament and asked if he would request Dr. Macpherson to visit the stricken family. Mr. O'Dwyer explained that the sick poor of this section of the city were looked after (in the absence of Dr. Fraser) by Dr. Cowperwaite and kindly gave me anorder to Dr. Cowperwaite which I handed Clarke at my office. On Tuesday morning Dr. Cowperwaite attended the sick children. He called at the house looked them over, told the parents that the eldest boy, 7, may develop pneumonia, but that the others were in no danger.
