Our Glorious Dead.

The suggestion made by the Advocate in its editorial columns on Saturday last, on the subject of bringing from the battle field of France or from that hell spot of suffering—Gallipoli—the body of some Newfoundland "Unknown" in order that due honor may be done the body of one who typified all that was valiant and heroic, among those who were equally valiant and heroic, is a fine thought, and one which we highly commend, as we believe that it will appeal to everybody. It is not the mere remains of the glorious dead alone that will receive honor. It is more perhaps the great cause for which they deemed it a high privilege to fight and die, but the simple fact of the corpse of an unknown who followed so bravely the trail of the deathless memories of our heroes who risked all for the sake of liberty, justice and truth. No mere sentiment of imitation should animate us in following up the example of other countries, but rather a sincere and patriotic desire to do posthumous honor to the men who went forth but never returned. Great Britain took the initiative in this honoring and hallowing for all time the memory of those who gave through the unknown soldier of the United Kingdom, who may have been English, Scotch, Irish, Canadian, Australian, Newfoundland, New Zealand, South African, or from any other portion of the far-flung Empire. But he—no matter where the place of his birth—was symbolical. As an unknown he was honored by the great and the noble, by the rich and the poor, the prince and the peasant without class distinction or priority of place. He was the martial soul of the Empire, the centre of everything British, and he lies interred in that fane of British greatness, side by side with the magnificent dead of the past, fit company for the modern soldier, Westminster Abbey. He as the unknown represents the heart of Britain. Millions did his poor, maimed body all honor, and millions yet to come will visit the sacred spot and mingle tears of sorrow and gladness for the ideal of which he was the prototype. France was not slow to follow the example of her ally and an unknown poilu has been interred with national honors and ceremonial beneath that mecca of all Frenchmen the Arc de Triomphe, Paris. This year our great neighbor to the south, the Republic of the United States of America, paid her tribute to the unknown dead, and in the great Rotunda of the Capitol at Washington, such a scene was witnessed little over two weeks ago as eclipsed anything ever seen in that city of numerous functions. Newfoundland was represented here, and in another column to-day we are in a position to show the faces of the triad of military men, all sons of the soil, who were given the honor of paying a comrade's no less than a national tribute on the shrine of America's gallant dead. Canada now desires to perpetuate the memory of the men who went from her shores in a similar manner, and we believe that it would be in keeping with the best traditions of Terra Nova if it could be arranged to have the remains of one of those "better than the best" transferred to a final resting place in Newfoundland in testimony of our intention to keep faith in the only way which the spirits of our departed heroes will appreciate.

No Relation.

The Telegram has been requested by letter from the Postmaster of Halifax, Colonel Fred A. Oxley, to correct the statement recently appearing in its columns, reporting the Barfleur-Oxley nuptials, that the groom was a nephew of his. Colonel Oxley desires it to be understood that the Mr. Harold Oxley referred to in the wedding notice is not connected with him by family ties.

To-Night's Attraction.

"DEACON DUBBS" AT THE CASINO. The attraction for to-night is the presentation by the B.I.S. players of that charming rural-comedy "Deacon Dubbs" at the Casino Theatre. It has been faithfully rehearsed under the direction of Mr. P. F. Moore, and a very excellent performance is promised. What will undoubtedly be delightful is the excellent programme of specialties arranged by Miss Mary McCarthy, who is a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music. In addition the C.C.C. Band, under the direction of Captain Arthur Bulley, have prepared an elaborate programme of the latest musical numbers with the assistance of Miss T. Power, A.T.C.L. at the piano. Altogether it promises to be a show well worth witnessing, and will undoubtedly draw a crowded house as there has been a remarkable advance sale. Tickets may be had to-day at the Royal Stationery.

McMurdo's Store News.

MONDAY, Nov. 28. Many people find their blood thin at this time of year, and notice how the cold weather affects them, by the ease with which they catch cold. This condition can often be remedied by the judicious use of our Nutritive Hypophosphites. The Quinine contained in this preparation not only stimulates the appetite, and strengthens the nerves, but increases the number of red corpuscles in the blood, gives a fillip to the circulation, and improves the digestive system, so that food taken is readily assimilated, and thus the blood becomes richer and thicker, anaemia disappears, and the general health is restored. Two sizes 50 cents and $1 a bottle.

Intercessory Service.

Yesterday, being Advent Sunday, was set apart for the holding of special Intercession Services for Missions, throughout the Diocese of Newfoundland, and in every church proper Psalms, Lessons and Prayers were used. Large congregations attended the Cathedral, St. Thomas's, St. Mary's and St. Michael's, at both Matins and Evening. Celebrations of the Holy Communion also had their quota partakers of the Blessed Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The hearts of all were strengthened by participation in this great mystery, and there can be no doubt that the fervent prayer of the faithful on behalf of Missions ascended as incense to the throne of Heaven. A week of prayer and intercession will be observed, designed to give all those who so desire the opportunity of joining their petitions for the mercy of God and His Divine aid in the great work of carrying the Gospel to the heathen.

Services at St. Thomas's.

A special service for the children who attend Sunday School, was held yesterday afternoon at St. Thomas' Church. The service was conducted by the rector, and a collection was taken for the orphans. To-morrow, a continuous chain of services will be held, starting at 7 a.m. and concluding at 8.30 p.m. The special service in the evening will be taken by the Rector, and at the end the Mission Boxes will be presented.

A new stock of Ice Sticks with good reliable Spear has just arrived at BISHOP'S, and selling for only one dollar and forty-eight cents each, complete. Sticks suitable to ladies or gentlemen.

No Official Report.

No news of the robbery reported to have taken place at Harbor Grace railway station on Saturday, has been received by either General Superintendent Russell or the Reid Newfoundland Company, or by the Justice Department. According to the telephoned report in the News, the thief broke a window and entering the station, got away with all the money left in the cash drawer. It is most unusual that money should be left lying about in a drawer as there is a safe in every office, where the cash on hand is kept for the night.

Paid the Fine.

The storekeeper of the West End, who was recently convicted of a breach of the Prohibition Act and was heavily fined, was arrested on Saturday, having failed to pay up. Seeing, however, that the Justice Department meant business, he paid the amount of the fine and was released from custody. The authorities intend to deal in a similar matter with all others attempting to evade the payment of fines imposed upon them.

Music at Kirk.

At last night's service at the Kirk for St. Andrew's Society, part of the Sacred Concert held on Thursday night last was repeated. The Anthems and the Double Male quartette were splendid. An old fashioned concert is being held by the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavour to-day in aid of charities. Up to date, the Thanking collection has amounted to $1328.00.

Miss Molly Horan of Rickett's Ann fame, plays the comedy role with Doc Power at Deacon Dubbs to-night. Get ready for the big haul!

STORMY PASSAGE ACROSS ATLANTIC. S.S. Glenarnock, Capt. Richardson, 30 days from Bristol in ballast arrived in port this morning for supplies and repairs. The ship encountered very stormy weather during which several life boats were smashed and other minor deck damage done. The ship's boilers and pumps were also somewhat damaged but the captain managed to reach port without assistance. The Furness Withy Co. are the ship's agents whilst in port.

SABLE L. ARRIVES.—S.S. Sable I. arrived in port from North Sydney at 10.30 a.m. bringing the following passengers:—J. Cohen, Wm. Williams, T. Molloy. It is likely that the Sable will sail again for Sydney at 8 o'clock this evening.

The Helping Hand.

"The helping hand" is how counsel described one of the accused in a Prohibition case to-day, in asking for his dismissal. Two citizens were charged with breaches of the Prohibition Act before Judge Morris in the Magistrate's Court. One pleaded guilty and was fined $100 and the other, who had helped to put the stuff manufactured, into bottles, was discharged, the Inspector General stating that he had only been charged because he was on the premises when the maker of the moonshine was stowing it away in bottles, at which time the police made their raid.

Boys Damage Garden.

Four boys, belonging to Petty Harbor, were charged before Judge Morris this morning with malicious damage to property. They pleaded guilty. Plaintiff said he had been greatly troubled by boys breaking into his garden and damaging trees and plants, and he had the accused in this case arrested as a warning. He had no desire to prosecute. The accused were given a sound lecture by His Honor and were ordered in conjunction with their parents to find bonds for their future good behavior. They had also to pay costs.

Schooner Sunk.

A message to the Deputy Minister of Customs from the Sub-Collector at Salmonier, states that the schooner Medina A., Nolan Master, had been abandoned, and sunk off Miramichi. The Medina A., is a vessel of 74 tons, owned by Jas. Baird Ltd. and was bound to Sydney in ballast. The vessel must have encountered the storm which prevailed during last week. The crew were saved, so the message stated.

"DEACON DUBBS" Are You Going?

'Plane Leaves Wednesday.

Minister of Posts and Telegraphs Halfyard informed the Telegram this morning that Major F. S. Cotton would leave Botwood on his flight to Halifax on Wednesday. A message to that effect was received from Major Cotton on Saturday. It is not known whether a trial flight has been made, but it is thought that it was delayed until the arrival at Botwood of a mechanic who reached there Saturday. The air mail for Halifax closed on Saturday, and has been sent to Botwood in readiness for the flight. It consists of some 5,000 letters.

Injured While Coasting.

This forenoon a three-year-old child named Annie Maloney came near being killed in collision with a team, driven by a man named Martin. The child, in company with her 5-year-old brother, was sliding over Garrison Hill, at the foot of which they ran into a passing horse and cart with a load of meat. The horse's hind leg hit the little girl, but fortunately owing to the promptness of the driver the car did not pass over both children. Sergeant Noweorthy brought the injured youngster to the lockup and later had her conveyed home in a sleigh.

Belvidere Ladies' Association.

A very successful meeting of the Belvidere Ladies' Association was held yesterday at the Orphanage. Great enthusiasm was manifested, and arrangements were finally made for the Garden Party on July 8th, which will be, without doubt, a brilliant success. These ladies were added to the Executive—Assistant Vice-Pres., Mrs. W. J. Higgins; Assistant Treas., Miss May Kennedy; Assistant Sec'y, Miss Maude Ryan. A committee of the following ladies who signified their intention of doing all in their power to help the great cause of the orphans, was then elected:—Lady Cashin; Mesdames Kent, Morris, Fortune, McGrath, Kelly, Hiscok, Hutton, Howlett, Kiddy, Collins, Summers, Warren, Scully, Edens, Higgins, Wootton, Brownrigg, Comerford, Devine, O'Mara, Smyth, Mulcahy, Barron, Jardine, Burns, Carroll, Burke, Campbell, Harris, Brophy, McGettingham, Shea, Hogan, Tobin, Chafe, Renouf, Smith, Mitchell, Carter, Bradshaw, Howley, Peddigrew, Byrne, Keegan, Cox, Curtin, T. # Manifesto of Hon. Tasker Cook, CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR.

To the Electors of the City of St. John's

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,—
In presenting myself as a Candidate for the office of Mayor of your City, I do so after mature consideration following the request of a large number of Citizens representative of all classes in the community.

I realise the responsibility of such an office; am sensible of the honor it confers upon its occupant, and fully appreciate the splendid services rendered by the gentlemen who have already occupied the chair as Mayor.

It is difficult, if not impossible, at the present time to define any set programme which, if elected, I should follow in the government of the City; suffice for the moment to say that the policy I should propose would be based on the four cardinal principles of EFFICIENCY, ECONOMY, CONSERVATION OF THE PRESENT INCOME EARNING POWER OF THE CITY, and the DEVELOPMENT OF NEW SOURCES OF REVENUE.

It would be idle to close our eyes to the fact that there are defects in our civic life that should and could be remedied. St. John's has many natural advantages which should tend to make one of the cleanest and healthiest cities in North America; but these advantages are not being utilized as they should. There are conditions in this City to-day that would not be tolerated in any neighbouring city of its size and population; and we should seriously set ourselves to the task of remedying these defects, utilizing our advantages, and removing these intolerable conditions.

Here and There.

THANKED CONGREGATION.—At St. Thomas' Church last evening, the Rector, Rev. Mr. Earp, thanked the congregation for the liberal response to the appeal on Thanksgiving Sunday. The amount received was $1,500, men of the Island none the worse for it.

The message was transferred to the Shipping Department, and the Prospero was ordered to the rescue. The ship has since taken the men with some amounts yet to come in their experience.

EXTENDS GREETINGS.—Dr. Whelan of North River rang up the Prime Minister yesterday and extended greetings on the opening of the new long distance telephone and later during the afternoon the Prime Minister conversed with Harbor Grace, Sir Richard says the system is working perfectly and conversations could be heard distinctly and voices easily recognized.

The ship reports that the herring fishery at Bay of Islands and Bonaventure is showing up well and a fleet of schooners have already arrived and are loading for American and Canadian ports. The fishery around Hermitage Bay shows much improvement of late. The Portia reports winter conditions around the coast, and the weather, all through the trip, as the worst experienced for years. All ports of call were made, however, and the ship brought a fair inward freight and the following passengers:—Miss Crocker, W. Clarke, J. F. Parrott, W. Parrott, D. Burke, B. Keating, W. A. ## SUGGESTION No. 9.

PUBLIC PLAYGROUNDS INSTEAD OF A REFORMATORY. There has been considerable talk in the newspapers of recent months of the necessity of providing a reformatory for the juvenile offenders of the City. From Judge Morris' point of view it is quite understandable, as he must always be at his wit's end to know what to do with the juvenile who would be his welcome out in the police court, and it is well known that Judge Morris has been more than merciful to these juvenile delinquents hundreds of times.

The other side of the case is that a reformatory is going to be a heavy additional expense to the taxpayers and that if expense can be avoided by doing away with the necessity of such an institution it would be a hundred times better, prevention being always better than cure.

The trouble with the juvenile that gets mixed up with the police is that there is nowhere for him to go, nothing for him to do. He has plenty of spirit and hence he gets into trouble. The crowd up sport of the city is well provided with athletic grounds, thanks to the enterprise and energy of the Nfld. Amateur Athletic Association, but there is absolutely nothing in the way of free amusement provided for the small boy (or small girl) whose parents are not provided with this world's goods other than promising that Judge Morris has been more than merciful to these juvenile delinquents hundreds of times.

In every Canadian city, from Halifax to Vancouver, there are one or more public playgrounds provided for juveniles of those cities. They are not expensive playgrounds but merely a fair sized piece of level fenced in land, with equipment of football, baseball and such like stock which can be provided for quite a small amount. As soon as the spring months begin an organization of games is put in charge of each playground, who gets paid quite a small salary. His (or her) duty it is to organize games for the children who use the playgrounds (and they are legion); keep track of the athletic stock and see that the smaller children are not bullied by the larger ones. The result in every case is that the youngsters are off the streets and are certainly not in the police court. They have some definite place to go, something definite to do, and they are not driven to inhaling the dried dust and manure with which St. John's streets are plentifully sprinkled in summer, nor to breaking all the windows surrounding any vacant lot in which they decide to play.

My candid opinion is that two such Free Public Playgrounds could be started in St. John's with very little expense—one in the East End and one in the West—and that such playgrounds would prove an undoubted blessing to the children, to the parents, and last, but not least, to His Honor Judge Morris.

(MEMO.—In reference to my remarks under "Suggestion 3" re the Canadian Banks not asking for local tenders in connection with their new buildings I am informed by Mr. H. M. Stewart that this was not the case with the Canadian Bank of Commerce. It is only just therefore to state that the Canadian Bank of Commerce at least made an attempt to play the game even if the actual building contract did eventually go to an outside firm of contractors.)

I THANK YOU!

Lloyd's Lost

Shipping Report.

LONDON. (Associated Press.)—Steam and sailing vessels totally lost or condemned last year numbered 561 of 645,693 tons, according to statistics published by Lloyd's Register of Shipping. Of these 255 were wrecked, 30 abandoned at sea, 80 foundered, 63 burnt, 38 lost in collision, 9 broken up and 28 "lost." The United States lost 108 vessels of 158,894 tons. ### The Ceremony Described

THE MANY THAT HAVE TAKEN PART IN THE CEREMONY, WAS HELD ON THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10TH, WHEN THOUSANDS OF THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER REMAINS WERE BURIED IN THE ROTUNDA OF THE U.S. CAPITOL. THE CEREMONY HAD BEEN POSTPONED SEVERAL TIMES DUE TO THE GREAT INTERNATIONAL STORM WHICH WAS NOT ALLOWED TO PROCEED UNTIL THE OCCASION AND THREE OF THE REAR VETERANS, OFFICERS OF OUR REGIMENT, NEW YORK, TOOK PART AMONGST THE SPLENDID ANNUAL DUES WHO PAID TRIBUTE TO THE DEAD. NEW YORK'S STANDING COMMITTEE, CAPTAIN ROBERTSON, SON OF MR. A. ROBERTSON, RICHARD FIELD, SON OF MR. RICHARD FIELD, AND LIEUTENANT RICHARD FIELD, SON OF MR. W. J. FIELD, WERE THROUGH THE REPRESENTATION OF THE PRIME MINISTER, SIR RICHARD SQUIRE, K.C.M.G., AS REPORTED IN PREVIOUS ARTICLES. THE CEREMONY WAS OPENED BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, WHO WAS PRESENTED BY THE AMBASSADOR, LORD GEDDIS, WHOM MR. FIELD REPRESENTED. THAT THE REPRESENTATIVES HAD A BOX WITH THEATRE THROUGH THE COURTESY OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE. ON THE DAY, THE BRITISH EMPIRE WAS BY ITS RESPECTS AND OUR OWN REPRESENTATIVES ASSEMBLED AT THE AMBASSY WITH THOSE WHO HAD OTHER DOMINIONS ON A SIMILAR BASIS. MR. HENDER BRIDGE OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE WAS ALONG WITH ROBERTSON, FIELD AND ERS.

AMERICAN PRESS OPINION

The "Washington Post" publishes a photograph of our representative, Mr. Field, and had the following in its report of the ceremony:—
"They were flowers from Newfoundland, and a next came from Newfoundland, a hardy son of the North, and a tribute from Canada, placed by Robert Borden, former Prime Minister of the Dominion."

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH.

Through the courtesy of a lady, I am enabled to publish the following biographical sketch of Archibald Field, grandfather of the present Archibald Field, who was well known in Newfoundland at his time, and it is probable that he having given a son, Archibald, in the person of Admiral Field, and two to the persons of Major G. Thomas Duncombe, Bridge, Brigadier General Sir Charles Bridges, that a son of the latter, Charles Henry Duncombe B.
