Upon His Honor as Minister of the Gospel

REV. W. A. THOMPSON WRITES OF DR. F. G. KINSMAN'S HEART TABLETS.

I had heart trouble severely for fifteen years and had many doctors to treat me with no discernible effect. I had become so low that I could scarcely walk fifty steps. At night I was troubled with fluttering of the heart, and by no means had a night's rest for that length of time. I had pains most excruciating and could not lie on my left side even for a moment. I tried five boxes of your Heart Tablets and can now truthfully say that I am well. I am a Minister of the Gospel and upon my word as such, I believe I could not have lived had it not been for your remedy. I am not generally speaking, willing to give testimonials, but I fully owe this or more to you as owner of the Heart Tablets.

Horse Races To-Morrow

EIGHTEEN ENTRIES.

Although the ice conditions are anything but good, it has been decided to run off the horse races to-morrow afternoon. The pond is rough and shelly, and it will probably be necessary to have the course near the North bank instead of in the centre as was last year. The following are the entries for to-morrow's event:

Finnister—Matthew Kelly.

FREE FOR ALL PACE.

May Taunton—Joseph Judge.
Helen—John Duff.

Red Tape.

Probably, through nobody's fault, but the result of too much red tape, a resident of a northern outpost who arrived here several days ago for admission to the Lunatic Asylum, was kept waiting in the cells of the lock-up, whilst two M.H.A.'s vainly tried to have the patient admitted. The latter, who is a middle-aged woman, resident of Bonavista, was examined by two doctors since coming to the city and pronounced insane, but because the regular forms had not been completed with, entrance to the institution could not be gained until this morning.

Major Cotton left Botwood at 11 a.m. in the Martynside 'plane to search for the main patch of seals. The Westland machine, which will be piloted by either Mr. Bennett or Mr. Butler, will proceed to Pogo to stand by. A message to this effect was received to-day from Botwood. The sealing steamers are still on the outskirts of the patch, and if Major Cotton locates the main patch, it will help considerably to shorten the voyage and bring about a large catch.

Stafford's Liniment for all Aches and Pains, only 20c. per bottle.—mar16.

Enquiries for Relatives.

Enquiries are being made for the relatives of a Mrs. Annie Reed Murphy. The lady in question came to St. John's about 78 years ago from La Porte, Ind., as the bride of a man named Murphy, whom she met on the "stage" out from Ireland. The couple were married in Indiana, after arriving from the old land, and shortly after left to make a home here.

THE LIFE OF SAINT PATRICK
Apostle of Ireland.

One of the best and most interesting stories of the life of the Irish Saint that has yet been written. It combines historical and antiquarian interest with an edifying and beautiful picture of St. Patrick's life and labours that cannot fail to instruct and improve those who read it.

The Sale of Tickets.

Several correspondents have written the Telegram complaining of the manner in which the sale of tickets for the B.L.S. play on St. Patrick's night was conducted. One writer states that when the tickets were placed on sale, those who gained admittance first, found that every worth while seat in the hall had been sold. The writer does not blame the members of the B.L.S. Society, many of whom were left out in the queue and kept in absolute ignorance of "private sale."

Obituary.

Much sympathy will be expressed for Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dominey of Greenspond, whose eldest daughter, Edna, passed away at home on the night of 12th inst. (Sunday). Deceased was of a most genial disposition, having many friends on the South West Coast where for a period she taught school. The sad part of it all is that Miss Dominey was making preparations for her marriage when death intervened. The Telegram joins with others in extending condolences to the bereaved parents and family.
