Lives Lost and Shipping Destroyed on the English and French Coasts-- Coolidge is Opposed to Cancellation of Allies' Debts --China Has New President.

FRENCH COAST STORM SWEPT.

PARIS, Oct. 5. North to northwesterly gales, at times developing into a hurricane, have been raging during the past 36 hours, causing the loss of many lives and stranding the French shores on the English Channel and Atlantic seaboard with wreckage. The steamer Pacific from Hamburg, for Panama, is ashore two miles south of Cherbourg. The crew were saved. Two fishing smacks foundered and four men were drowned. Premier Briard, of Australia, is held up at Boulogne on the way to London. The British steamer Enrico, coal laden, is around off Stapsles and the fate of the crew of twenty-two is not yet known. A British freighter is a total loss two miles north of Dunkirk and four of the crew are missing. The Belgian steamer City of Ghent was rammed by a dredge in the port of Dunkirk, and seriously damaged.

A ROUGH EXPERIENCE.

LONDON, Oct. 5. The wild northerly gale of Wednesday and Thursday spread damage in Southern England and on the West Coast of France, causing among other things prolonged delay in telegraphic communication and complete suspension of Channel traffic. The steamer Engardine, with 68 passengers, had a terrifying experience. Leaving Dover for Boulogne Wednesday night, after a stormy passage she found she was unable to make harbor and proceeded to Calais, but could not make harbor there either and was obliged to return to England in the teeth of the gale. On arriving in England it was found impossible to enter Dover and the vessel was forced to anchor off Sandgate for the remainder of the night.

LOYD GEORGE AT NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5. David Lloyd George, one-time Premier of Great Britain, to-day set foot on United States soil for the first time, coming here as a private citizen to tour Canada and the States. The little Welshman and his family were taken from the liner at quarantine and landed by a police boat. The former Premier made it known that while here he intended calling on former President Wilson, with whose aid the Treaty of Versailles was drafted. Crowds of several thousand massed at the Battery to greet Lloyd George on his arrival from the ship, and nine platoons of mounted police escorted him to the City Hall. With the police were delegations of British and Canadian war veterans. On his arrival at City Hall Park, Lloyd George was received by a volley of cheers.

Acting Mayor Hulbert then extended the welcome of the city.

LOYD GEORGE'S FIRST SPEECH IN U.S.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5. David Lloyd George, former Prime Minister of Great Britain, in an address to-day at a luncheon given in his honor by the Press Association shortly after his arrival on American shores, said "I claim that the real founder of the British Empire to-day was George Washington. He taught us to become democratic. The lesson taught us in the eighteenth century has been the salvation of the British Empire." He said Washington taught the British Government to be more lenient and cited as proof the case of Canada. Mr. Lloyd George described in detail the situation in Europe when the United States entered the war, declaring the Allies were fighting the greatest military machine of all time. He continued, "Europe is now in a desperate condition. Fifteen million men have been killed, twenty million maimed and injured, and billions of dollars scattered; but what would have been the case if the Allies had lost? At least now there is hope. A continent does not recover in a few days but Europe will recover. The only difference now and during the war is that we worked in unity then, and we are not working in that fashion now. You are going your way and we are going our way; Italy is going her way and France hers. It is not that you broke away from each other, there is now no common purpose and no common action between the powers of the world. If we had unity now as we did during war the terrible problems of the world would be solved in one-half or one quarter the time."

FOUR OF RALEIGH'S GUNS SALVED.

HALIFAX, Oct. 5. Four of the seven 7.65 guns of the British Cruiser Raleigh, wrecked on the Labrador Coast in August 1922, have been salvaged by the Halifax wrecking steamer Standhill, according to a wireless message to the Standhill's owners here. Tendered Farewell Dinner.

POPULAR ATHLETE LEAVES FOR MONTREAL.

A farewell dinner was tendered Sergeant-Major Harold Rendell by the Regiment and N.G.O.'s Mess of the C. L. B. Cadets, at the West End Restaurant last night, on the occasion of his departure from Newfoundland. Mr. A. G. Williams, ex-Staff Sergeant, presided over the function, and in a very happy speech paid a glowing tribute to the work of Sergeant-Major Rendell, while connected with the Brigade. Mr. Williams, on behalf of his fellow brigade members, presented Sergeant-Major Rendell with a souvenir as a slight token of the esteem in which he was held by all. Regret was expressed on all sides in losing such a good friend and comrade and before the gathering dispersed, he was tendered the hearty good wishes of all for his success in the land of the Maple Leaf. Sergeant-Major Rendell leaves to-day by the Manoa for Montreal. He has been one of our foremost athletes. He figured with the British hockey team during the past three seasons; while he was also an ardent footballer, having played with his old brigade, the

SUFFERED FROM SEVERE PIMPLES
On Face, Caused Intense Itching, Cuticura Heals.

"I suffered great annoyance from severe pimples on my face, which I attributed to the use of poor soap. The pimples were hard, red and rather large, and itched. They were scattered all over my face and caused intense itching and burning. My face looked unshightly. This condition lasted about two months. "I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and purchased some. I could see an improvement, and in two months I was healed." (Signed) Miss H. P. McArthur, Misconche, Prince Edward Island.
