The deputation closely examined the appliances and watched with interest the rapid hitches. The Bay street hose wagon was brought to King street in front of the postoffice, and the London visitors were shown several rapid runs. The deputation also visited the electric light station and inquired into the workings of the system.

To be garty of London tourists came away for a big time, both as regards specific information on things scientific and the indescribable article known as "fun," and it is believed they got it in Hamilton. A London paper was thoughtful enough to remark that to avoid drinking any of the "vile" Hamilton water, each of the deputation left home with a pint of pure" water in his lunch basket. Just like men from a backwoods town! A PATRIOTIC SONG.

The following song, which has been specially composed for the occasion, will be sung by a choir of school children at the opening of the Toronto carnival:

Come, let us all unite.

To sing our country's praise;
For God, and home, and right,
Our voices now we raise,

Chorus:
Dear Canada to thee,
Home of the brave and free,
With heart and voice we now rejoice
To sing in praise of thee!

We'll welcome with a cheer, Each hardy son of toil; For happy homes are here, With fruitful virgin soil!
