Mr. John Conning, student of Knox College, Toronto, has arrived at his home in this city to attend the funeral of his sister.
—Allen, of this city, assisted by his brother and sister, Wm. and Miss E.
Allen, will furnish the greater part of the program at the concert to be given in the Dutton Methodist Church on Feb. 4.
—The lecture room of St. Andrew's Church was crowded last evening when Rev. W. J. Clark conducted a special service. He was assisted by Rev. James Ballantyne, of Knox Church.
—Among those in correspondence with the Dominion Government with a view to the pension is a man named Ryck securing a pension in the battle of transporting supplies at the battle of Lundy's Lane.
—It is said a proposal is being worked up—though by whom or under what auspices is not very clear—to raise a fund for the benefit of whatever house-holders shall be cut off under the vote of 99 to 50.
The proposal is not generally regarded as being related to practically, leaving aside all debate on other phases of the "Silver

"Good Old Times," which is being pre sented at the Grand Opera House this week. The play is far ahead of any of its kind that has been seen here in several years and the cast is an unusually strong one; every member is an artist. (Toronto Empire.)
—Mrs. Catharine Duggan, the un fortunate indigent who fractured her hip on Monday, Jan. 5, by falling on the slippery pavement of the City Hospital, been discharged and has been quartered with her kind-hearted but poor neighbor, who now seeks to be relieved of the heavy burden incurred upon her.
—At the regular communication of King St. Joseph's Church, No. 278, A. F. and A. M., G. R. C., on Wednesday evening, W. Bro.
Dr. J. M. Smith, I. F. M., was made the recipient of an elegant past master's jewel.
The presentation was made on behalf of the lodges in a few well-timed words by W.
Bro. H. C. Symonds, I. F. M., who referred to the harmony and prosperity of the lodge.
—The Golden Link Mission Band of King Street Presbyterian Church held an entertainment in the lecture room of that church last evening. A duet by Misses E.
Marriott and J. Green, song by Frances Mutch, recitation by Bertha Villa, chorus by the Mission Band and three dialogues also by the band, made up an interesting programme. Rev. Walter M. Roger oc cupied the chair and delivered a short ad dress.
—There died at the family residence, Adelaide street, last evening, Miss Jessie Conning, daughter of the late James Con ning, who died about three months ago.
Deceased had been suffering from lung trouble for some time, but was not until quite recently confined to her room.
—The remains will be interred in the St. Joseph's Cemetery on Saturday.
—Mr. Joseph M. Tierney, P.L.S., of Tilbury Center, and Mrs. Eva Keller, of St. Joseph's Church, Tuesday. The cere mony was performed by Rev. Father brother, Rev. Father, on the noon train of the happy couple left on the morning of the C. P. R. on their wedding trip, visiting several points in Michigan before returning.
The bride received many lovely presents.
The wedding breakfast was served by the sister, Mrs. George Smith, corner of Lorne avenue and West street. (Chatham Plain Press.)
—James and Anna Ryan do not appear to live in domestic happiness, and as a re sult of a family brawl two weeks ago the husband yesterday appeared in the household and yesterday appeared in the Police Court, having been in jail since the charge was laid. Mrs. Ryan was on the spouse on this occasion struck her on the head with a file, causing a wound which bleed profusely. Ryan then informed the magistrate that his wife was too fond of liquor, and this led to a rapid interchange of blows, and the result was the present couple. Ryan was fined $5 or twenty days.
—George Donnelly was acquitted by the police magistrate yesterday morning on the charge of stealing four chickens from Henry Peters. The latter testified to tracing the feathers to Donnelly's house and finding the birds with their necks wrung around in the rear kitchen. Detective Phair and the Ridger gave similar evidence, and told of the finding of Donnelly in a Richmond street hotel subsequently. The magistrate gave his verdict on the ground that there was no legal evidence to connect the prisoner with the case, although suspicion strongly pointed in that direction. Donnelly was fined $5 or twenty days on another charge of drunkenness.
The Koch Treatment.
The Advertiser understands that Dr.
J. Dolway and G. H. Wilson, of London, who have been studying the Koch treat ment for consumption in Germany for some time past, expect to return home in a few days.
The doctors return with an abundant supply of the lymph, and will, the Advertiser learns, be prepared to treat all sufferers of the dread disease at a private sanitarium after the Koch system. Numbers of physicians and surgeons went to Berlin on a similar mission and returned with the disease in connection with it. It is gratify ing to find that London doctors have been more successful.
He Will Get Pointers.
When the question of putting the front age tax system into effect came up at the meeting of No. 2 Committee last evening the city engineer was instructed to write to other cities where the system is in vogue and secure what information he can with regard to its working and the manner in which it was introduced. No work will be commenced until the engineer presents his report. Acting on Mayor Taylor's sugges tion, the Council, the committee request ed the engineer to prepare plans for a light railing between the Council Chamber and the City Hall. It will replace the unsightly barriade which does duty at present. The cause of the flooding of his cellar on Lan garth street was referred to Chairman Connor and Eugene Tracy. Those present at the meeting were Aldermen Connor (in the chair), Winnett, Bartlett, Shaw, Sawrow, O'Meara, Mayor Taylor, City Engineer Tracy, Secretary Graydon and Commissioner Owen.
